

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

PREFACE.

THE Scriptures contain the revelation of God's will to man,—God's word addressed to all mankind. As the Scriptures are Truth, the closer we adhere to them, the nearer we are to Truth. But the nearest approach we can make to the inspired originals, is in faithful translations, as they express the sense with the greatest brevity and precision. Hence good translations afford the best helps for obtaining a true knowledge of the Scriptures, and different versions, by learned and religious men, must be the best and shortest commentaries. The same truths are there expressed in different words. Where some are too brief and obscure, others may be more full and clear, while together, being the same in sense, they mutually illustrate and confirm each other.

The present volume contains four translations of the Gospels. translations were made by the leading men,—the intellectual aristocracy of their day. The first version is the Gothic by Ulphilas, in the 4th century. What vigour and decision of mind,-what a clear view of the future extension and influence of the Germanic race, must Ulphilas have had to induce him to translate the Scriptures into the vulgar tongue of his people, in an age when Greek and Latin were the only languages employed for literary purposes! Ulphilas deeply felt, from his own experience, that the power of the word of God to convince the understanding and to influence the conduct would be limited, unless it was not only preached, but read in the mother tongue, through which the best affections of the heart are most easily touched.—These remarks are equally applicable to the translation of the Gospels in the 8th or 10th century from the Vetus Italica into Anglo-Saxon, and to the Wycliffe version of the whole Bible from the Vulgate into English in the 14th century, which was the dawn of that scriptural light that preceded the Reformation. In the 16th century, Tyndale presented the Gospel in a still clearer light by his translation of the New Testament from the original Greek into English, so faithfully, that it is, in substance, our present authorized Version, which constantly uses the same phraseology and often employs the very same words.

These versions, extending from A.D. 360 to 1526, are not only of great value to Divines, but deeply interesting to the philologist, who is here supplied with ample specimens of the earliest German, and of the Anglo-Saxon, as well as early English. The first German comes down to us in the translation of Ulphilas, made about A.D. 360. Though the Anglo-Saxon Gospels were translated in 735 or before, and the version printed in this volume is from a MS. written about A.D. 995, yet we have an earlier record of Anglo-Saxon writing, in the Laws of Ethelbert, king of Kent. From the Title of these Laws, we learn that "they were established in the days of Augustine*," that is, between A.D. 507, when Ethelbert was baptised, and the death of Augustine in 604. The most probable date is 599. From this time to the present, we have our written Laws; and we are told that Bede, just before his death in 735, had finished the translation of St. John's Gospel into his native tongue, called English [Englisc] in the early Laws. The Germans have the first written specimen of a Germanic language in Ulphilas, and we the next specimen in our Anglo-Saxon Laws, and at a later date in the Gospels. The English philologist will now be able to trace many words and phrases from the present time, 1865, to the translation of Tyndale in 1526, of Wycliffe in 1389, of the Saxon about 995, and of the Gothic about 360, a space of more than 1500 years. The Gothic is a language of Low German origint, as well as the Anglo-Saxon and English, we are, therefore, not surprised to find many phrases apparently identical in Gothic, in Anglo-Saxon, and in modern English.

THE GOTHIC translation of Ulphilas is the first, in date and importance, which claims attention in a brief notice of these four versions, and of their celebrated translators.

The heathen Goths settled in Dacia, on the north-west of the Black Sea, at an early period. While resident there they became Christians, and before the Council of Nice in A.D. 325, the Christian Goths were so numerous as to elect their own Bishop, Theophilus, whose signature appears in the records of that Council. The most celebrated of their Bishops was Ulphilast, born in A.D. 318 amongst the Goths in Dacia. His eminent talents, learning, and benevolence gave him unbounded influence over his countrymen. It, therefore, became a proverb among the Goths, "Whatever is done by Ulphilas, is well done." This favourable impression prepares us to hear of his consecration, at the age of 30, as Bishop of the Goths in A.D. 348 by Eusebius Bishop of Nicomedia. He continued to discharge his episcopal duties with great fidelity for forty years, and in A.D. 388 went to Constantinople to promote the interest of his Church, where he died at the age of 70. Ulphilas wrote in Latin, Greek, and Gothic, and was full of energy in the practical application of his learning. No difficulty or literary labour deterred him when he had in view the cherished desire of his heart, the translation of the New Testament from the original Greek, and part of the Old from the Septuagint into Gothic, that every one of his countrymen might read the word of God in his own tongue. It is most likely that this great literary work was completed before A.D. 360; because, as a faithful and zealous preacher of the Gospel, anxious for the instruction and edification of the people, he had been accustomed to translate into their own language the passages of the Scriptures which he quoted. Ulphilas drew the water of life from the pure fountain, and delivered it to his people uncontaminated. He imbibed the doctrines of the Gospel at the fountain head, the original Greek, and preached those doctrines to the Goths in their own nervous and expressive Germanic tongue.

Ulphilas had always taken the greatest interest in the welfare of the Goths. When, in the year 376, he saw they were grievously oppressed by the Huns, he hesitated not to implore the protection of the Emperor Valens, and pleaded their cause with such success, that the province of Mœsia was assigned to them. Their innumerable tribes then passed over the Danube into Mœsia, now Servia and Bulgaria: it was from the residence of these Visigoths, or West Goths in Mœsia that they have been called Mœso-Goths, and their language Mœso-Gothic.

Zealous Arians have always been anxious to claim Ulphilas, as belonging to them. Valens and his Arian bishops would naturally use all their influence with Ulphilas, and he would be disposed to concede as much as possible for the sake of peace and the welfare of his people. Further, as a man of principle, he could not go. In the strife, contention, and bitter persecution of the times, it is difficult to arrive at the exact truth. We know that Ulphilas was not only a man of great learning, but of honest principles, and practical wisdom; he was, therefore, with his cautious and judicious antecedents—his early and extensive knowledge of the Scriptures-not very likely to fall into fatal errors. We are certain of this, that so far as the translation of Ulphilas has been recovered, there is not a trace of Arianism to be found. On the contrary, in passages clearly unfavourable to the doctrine of Arius, Ulphilas has honestly and plainly given the literal meaning of the Greek. The chief point in which we are now concerned, is this, that those who read the Gothic version of Ulphilas are not likely to be led into error, as it is a faithful representation of the Greek. was the opinion of the learned Junius and Dr. Marshall, the first editors of the Gothic Gospels, and of Cardinal Mai, and the great body of learned men in the past age, as well as the present.

Codex Argenteus. — We gladly leave this subject to speak of the principal MS. and the chief editions of the Gothic Gospels. The most celebrated MS. is The Codex Argenteus, or Silver Book, so called from being transmitted to us in letters of a silvery hue, though the letters of a few words in the beginning of each paragraph are in gold. I once thought with Ihre, Meerman*, and others, that the words of this splendid Codex were not written on the vellum, which is of a reddish purple colour, but that each word was formed letter after letter by metallic characters heated, and then impressed on silver or gold leaf which was made to adhere to the vellum by some glutinous substance, in the manner that bookbinders now letter and ornament the backs of books. On showing the facsimile to Henry Latham, Esq., M.A., of Brasenose College, and of the Oxford University Press, he observed the letters were not so uniform as they would be if made by the impression of metallic characters, and suggested that the form of each letter was more probably drawn with some glutinous preparation, and the silver or gold leaf pressed upon it. On looking minutely at our accurate facsimile, I saw variations which could not have occurred if metallic letters had been used. The word at the end of the third line of our facsimile is abbreviated, to make it accord with the preceding line. In the 10th line of Dr. Uppström's larger facsimile, to prevent a confused junction of the long stem of ψ with the long stem of \mathbf{t} in the preceding line, the top of $\mathbf{\psi}$ is bent to the left in such a manner as could only be done by a pen or pencil.

Being anxious to obtain the most accurate information, even as to the colour of this invaluable MS., I wrote to Professor Uppström. Not receiving an answer with that promptitude, which his liberality and kindness of heart always induced him to give, I presumed he had not received my letter, and wrote again. The answer came, not from the learned editor of the Codex Argenteus, but from a mutual friend, A. Diedrich Wackerbarth, whom I had known long ago, as graduating in honours at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge. I may add that he has proved himself to be one of our best Teutonic scholars by his accurate and spirited translation of Beowulf, from the Anglo-Saxon into English verse, published in 1849. His letter gives the last sad tidings of one of Sweden's most learned men, and contains so minute a description of the MS. that I feel assured my readers will thank me for introducing the substance of it.

"Uppsala, May 6th, 1865.

"Your two letters were unfortunately too late to reach Professor Uppström. Our good friend died on the 21st of January last. His death was very unexpected, and was caused by inflammation of the lungs. Your letter of the 6th ult. was accordingly placed in the hands of the Professor of Ancient Northern Literature, Prof. Save, who went, in company with me, to the library two or three days ago, where I endeavoured by mixing water-colours to get a few approximations to the colour of the vellum of the Codex Argenteus. Since then your second letter has arrived, that of the 28th ult. Professor Save is at the present moment exceedingly busy; but, being desirous not to keep you waiting for an answer, he this morning requested me to go up to the library, re-examine the Codex with reference to your questions, and make my report This I have done and herewith communicate the result."—After an unsuccessful attempt to give the colour with greater precision, he sent me five specimens of the purple shades of the vellum taken from five different parts of Our facsimile is the medium colour. My friend then proceeds,— "The vellum is still somewhat glossy. The colour varies very greatly in different parts of the Codex, in some parts indeed it may be said to have disappeared altogether or very nearly so, whereas in others it is even slightly darker than the darkest of my imitations, and has much the appearance of ripe mulberries. The leaves seem to have been coloured on one side only, the colour of the back of the sheet being that of the front showing through. Calling the highly coloured side of a sheet the front, and the other side the back, the leaves seem to have been so arranged that fronts are turned to fronts and backs to backs, so as to present uniformity of colour on both pages of the same opening of the book.

"I now turn to your other question, namely the probability of Ihre's conjecture that the letters are stamped; or, in other words, that the book is in fact printed, only letter by letter instead of sheet by sheet. To this conjecture I cannot assent, and I may add that Professor Uppström held the same opinion as myself, so does also Prof. Save. The Codex is certainly very beautifully written and the letters are remarkably uniform, but strictly uniform they are not. . . . The breadth of the letter N is usually about 43 millimetres : similarly the letter n: when the writer has been a little pressed for room the n and N are reduced in breadth each to about 31 millimetres. Now had the writer formed his letters by means of a stamp, he could only have contracted the spaces between the letters, not the letters themselves, unless indeed we suppose he had several stamps of different breadths for each letter, which I do not think probable. It appears then, that the Codex has not been formed by stamping the letters but is throughout manuscript: a most beautiful and uniform manuscript it must have been, worthy of the pen of Brother Sintram of St. Gall himself, but written, not stamped.

"Another circumstance, which I think may be worth mentioning, is the following: On comparing Uppström's facsimile page with the original, I observe that in the Codex the tail of the silver G, which forms the first letter of the 12th line, goes quite over the arc of the golden n, which begins the next following line. From this I presume we may infer, that the gilding was done before the silvering.

"I may mention that the upper part of the ψ is not unfrequently slightly bent to the left, as in the example cited by you, even when there is no letter with which it would otherwise interfere. Indeed all the letters, though quite sufficiently uniform to present to the eye that regularity which constitutes so important a portion of what we call beauty in writing, present, when examined with a magnifying glass and a fine scale, differences of form and dimensions greater than I think would exist had they been formed with a stamp.

"Prof. Uppström, during his last journey in Italy, carefully collated the MSS. in the Ambrosian and Vatican Libraries as well as that of Wolfenbüttel. These he prepared for the press and had even just commenced printing when death put an end to his labours. The work will however not be lost to the world, as it has been placed in able hands. In fact, it will be edited by Prof. Säve.

"I may add that the Codex has evidently been ruled throughout with double lines for writing: single lines would have been sufficient for stamping."

The Codex Argenteus, containing fragments of the four Gospels, is supposed to be the work of Italians in their own country at the close of the fifth century, or the beginning of the sixth. The only MS. in exactly the same style of writing, is the celebrated Gallican Psalter* now in the Abbey of St. Germain des Près. It is of the sixth century and is said to have belonged to St. Germain, Bishop of Paris, who died May 28, 576. The vellum is stained of a purple-violet colour, and the writing is in silver letters, and a few particular words in gold. This description would serve for the Codex Argenteus, the vellum of which, however, is purple, exactly as in our facsimile, of a reddish rather than a violet tint.

The Codex Argenteus was preserved for many centuries in the monastery of Werden on the river Rhur, in Westphalia. In the 17th century it was transmitted for safety to Prague; but, Count Königsmark taking that city in 1648, the Codex Argenteus came into the possession of the Swedes, who deposited it in the Library at Stockholm. Vossius in 1655, when visiting Sweden, became possessed of it, and brought it to Holland. Puffendorf, as he travelled through Holland in 1662, found it in the custody of Vossius, and purchased it for Count de la Gardie; who, after having it bound in silver, presented it to the Royal Library at Uppsala, where it is still preserved.

I. This imperfect copy of the Four Gospels, beginning Matt. v. 15, was first printed from a beautiful facsimile made by Derrer; and, with the Gothic Glossary of Junius, published by Junius and Marshall, in 2 vols. 4to., at ^{*} A most beautiful facsimile of this MS. was published by Count Bastard, 1843, in his splendid and expensive work on this subject. Another is given, with a minute description of Plate CX. vol. i. p. 296 in Universal Palæography, by M. J. B. Silvestre, translated from the French and edited by Sir Frederic Madden: Folio Plates, and descriptions in 2 vols. 8vo. H. G. Bohn, London, 1850. I am indebted for the sight of these facsimiles to Professor J. O. Westwood, M.A., F.L.S., author of the very beautiful work, Palæographia Sacra Pictoria, &c.

Dordrecht, 1665. There are two columns in each page, the Gothic on the left column, and the Anglo-Saxon on the right; both in their original characters, the types for which were cast in Holland, at the expense of Junius. The same book, apparently published with new titles, and a reprint of the first sheet in Vol. II, the Glossary by Junius, appeared again at Amsterdam in 1684.

II. Stiernhielm, a Swede, republished Ulphilas, with additions, entitled,—Evangelia ab Ulphila Gothice translata, cum versionibus Sueo-Gothica Norræna seu Islandica, et Vulgata Latina, Stockholmiæ, 4to. 1671. Sometimes there is bound up with it—Glossarium Ulphila-Gothicum per F. Junium, nunc Sueo-Gothica auctum, etc. per Georg. Stiernhielm, ib. 1670.

III. The Gothic Gospels were again prepared for the Press by Dr. Eric Benzelius, and published by Lye, 4to. Oxford, 1750, with a Latin translation, and notes below the Gothic: a short Gothic Grammar, written by Lye, is prefixed. This handsome 4to. of the Clarendon Press was printed with the type which Junius had presented to the University of Oxford after it had been used at Dordrecht in the Edition of 1665.

IV. A learned Swede, Ihre, a native of Uppsala, and afterwards professor, favoured the literati in 1753 with his remarks upon the editions of Junius, Stiernhielm, and Lye. He had constant access to the Codex, and his criticisms and remarks upon the editors' deviations from it are very valuable. All Professor Ihre's treatises on the Gothic version, and other tracts connected with the subject, were published under the following title: J. ab Ihre scripta versionem Ulphilanam et linguam Meso-Gothicam illustrantia, edita ab Anton. Frid. Büsching, Berolini, 4to. 1773.

V. The Codex was again prepared and printed in Roman characters without accents, after the corrected text of Ihre, with a literal interlinear Latin translation, and a more free Latin version in the margin, with a Grammar and Glossary by F. K. Fulda. The Glossary revised and the text corrected by W. F. H. Reinwald, published by J. C. Zahn, Weissenfels and Leipsic, 4to. 1805.

VI. A commentary on parts of the Gospel of St. John, with the following title: — Skeireins Aiwaggelyons thairh Iohannen. — Auslegung des Evangelii Johannis in gothischer Sprache von H. F. Massmann, Doctor der Philosophie, Professor der älteren deutschen Sprache etc. 4to. München, 1834. — It contains an account of the manuscript, p. ix—xvii: — the Commentary in Gothic, printed in facsimile types, p. 3-34: — the same Gothic text, in Roman and Italic type accented, in one column, and a literal Latin version in the other, with notes at the foot, p. 37-52: — an account of the MS. and a short notice of Ulphilas and the Goths, p. 53-118: — a complete Glossary of the Gothic words with explanations in Latin, and the Greek equivalents, p. 121-182: — a facsimile of Skeireins, and other MSS. p. 183.

VII. Ulfilas:—Veteris et Novi Testamenti versionis Gothicæ fragmenta, quæ supersunt, ad fidem codd. castigata, Latinitate donata, adnotatione critica instructa, cum Glossario et Grammatica linguæ Gothicæ, conjunctis curis ediderunt H. C. de Gabelentz et Dr. J. Lœbe. Lipsiæ, apud F. A. Brockhaus, 1836 et 1846.—This is a very valuable work in 2 vols. 4to. Vol. I. contains Prolegomena, p. ix-xxxvii: the Gothic text of the Gospels and Epistles, as far as they have been discovered, with fragments of the Old Testament, printed in Roman type, without accents; below is a Latin translation, and under this are very useful notes in Latin, in 2 cols. small type, p. 1-359.—Vol. II. contains Vorwort, p. vi-xi: Skeir. p. xii-xvi: Calend. Goth. p. xvii, xviii: Gloss. p. 1-214: Griechisch-gothisches Wörterbuch, p. 215-241: Gram. der Goth. p. 1-298.

VIII. Ulphilas von Gaugengigl: Vol. I. Sprachlehre und Wörterbuch: Vol. II. Gothic New Testament, 2 vols. in 1, royal 8vo., with a plate of Gothic Alphabets. Passau, 1849.

IX. Uppström's Codex Argenteus, 4to. 1854-1857: v. Notes, p. 570, Matt. i. 21; xi. 10.

X. Massmann's Ulfilas*, Stuttgart, 1857, 1 vol. 8vo. The Gothic text is printed entirely in Roman letters, of a good legible size, and fills the left hand pages. Parts of the Septuagint and of the original Greek text and the Vulgate Latin Version, both in smaller type than the Gothic, fill the right hand pages. They are in two columns, and the verses, both of the Greek and Latin, are parallel with the Gothic. The Gothic text is accented according to the system introduced by the celebrated Professor, Dr. James Grimm. Many very valuable notes, a Glossary, and a brief Gothic Grammar are appended to the Text. It is a most useful and comprehensive book, containing, in one moderate 8vo. volume, the whole of the Gothic translation of the Old and New Testaments hitherto discovered, and all that is known on the subject.

XI. Ulfila oder die uns erhaltenen Denkmäler der Gothischen Sprache. Text, Grammatik und Wörterbuch. Bearbeitet und herausgegeben von Friedrich Ludwig Stamm, Pastor zu St. Ludgeri, in Helmstedt. Paderborn, 1858.—A plain, good sized, readable text, in Roman type, without accents. The b is used.

ANGLO-SAXON.—Before Gregory the Great planted Christianity in England by his missionaries, the energetic and warlike Anglo-Saxons had scarcely any facilities for intellectual improvement. A gradual preparation for the public reception of the Christian faith had been made by the marriage of Ethelbert, king of Kent, with Bertha, a Frankish princess. Bertha and her attendants continued their Christian worship in England, under the direction of the Bishop who accompanied her from France. The exemplary conduct of the Queen impressed the mind of Ethelbert and his court with a favourable opinion of Christianity. The way being opened by Bertha, Ethelbert in A.D. 507 gave a friendly reception to Augustine, the leader of the Christian messengers of peace, and assigned them a residence in Canterbury. As Christian doctrines and discipline expand the mind, and produce a love of learning and intellectual pursuits, these results were seen by the establishment of the first school in Kent by Ethelbert, and by his written Laws, as well as by the thirst for knowledge raised among his subjects. Those, who applied themselves to literature, manifested the strength of their intellectual powers, by a success which could not have been expected, and can scarcely be surpassed. That within a hundred years after the dawn of Christianity and literature upon the Anglo-Saxons, two such men as Bede and Bonifacius should have arisen, the one from the most northerly and the other from the southerly part of England,—from Durham and Devonshire,—is an adequate proof that the previous absence of literary knowledge did not arise from the want of intellect, but of opportunity for its cultivation. a European reputation as a Scholar, and Bonifacius as a Christian Missionary. Bonifacius, a native Saxon, and like all the Angles and Saxons of Germanic origin, speaking a Germanic dialect, was a most successful herald of peace to his kindred race on the Continent. His talents, and his heart glowing with benevolence and Christian zeal, made him the missionary Bishop over the numerous tribes to whom he had preached with such success, that he is said to have been the means of converting to the Christian faith more than a hundred thousand Germans.—Bede was born in 672, and died in 735. His works were spread over Europe, and so highly esteemed. that his Ecclesiastical History, written in Latin, was printed about the year 1474, among the early works that issued from the German press. It was translated into Anglo-Saxon by King Alfred, and is still a well-known and popular book, though tinged with the credulity of the age in which it was written. Bede was a diligent student and translator of the Scriptures, as will soon appear; but, we must first observe, that among the many books sent by Gregory the Great to Augustine, two copies of the Gospels in Latin, of the same size, and written in the same Roman uncials, are now extant. After being safely kept in the Bibliotheca Gregoriana in St. Augustine's Abbey, Canterbury, Archbishop Parker, at the dissolution of religious houses, took charge of these precious MSS.; one of these he presented, with his other MSS. and books, to the Library of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, where it still remains in perfect safety. The other copy we know from the following entry in the margin fol. 2a, "Robertus" Cotton Cuningtonensis 1602," was among the manuscript treasures of Sir Robert Cotton. It is now in the safe custody of the Bodleian, Oxford. This Oxford Codex appears, from its history, as well as from its internal evidence, to have been the original from which numerous copies were made and spread over England as far north as the residence of Bede in the Monastery of Wearmouth, Durham. The internal evidence is this, that all the Anglo-Saxon MSS. have the large interpolation given in the note upon Matt. xx. 28, with others which will shortly be mentioned. This MS. of the Gospels, sent by Gregory the Great, is not the Vulgate, but the old Latin Version, the Vetus Italica, in constant use till the time of Jerome, who guided by it, finished his Vulgate translation of the Gospels in A.D. 384. As the Anglo-Saxon Version was made from the Vetus Italica, it may be useful in ascertaining the readings of this oldest Latin Version. We may cite one or two examples more in proof that the Anglo-Saxon was from the Vetus Italica, and not from the Vulgate of Jerome.

In St. Matt. xxvii. 32, the Vulgate has Invenerunt hominem Cyrenæum, and omits venientem obviam illis. The Anglo-Saxon is word for word from the Vetus Italica, as will be seen below. In this instance the Anglo-Saxon. was evidently translated from the Vetus Italica.

Invenerunt hominem Cyrenæum, venientem obviam illis. Vet. Ital. Då gemétton hig ænne Cyreniscne man, cumende heom togénes. Ang.-Sax.

A clause is also omitted in the Vulgate of St. Matt. xxiv. 41, when it is both in the Vetus Italica and Anglo-Saxon.

Duo in lecto, unus assumetur, et unus relinquetur. Vet. Ital.
Twegen beob on bedde, án byb genumen, and óder byb læfed. Ang.-Sax.

Sometimes a word is different in the Vulgate and in the Italic Version, and the Anglo-Saxon then follows the Italic, as in St. Luke xv. 8.

Et evertit domum. Vet. Ital.
And awent hyre hus. Ang.-Sax.
Et everrit domum. Vulg.

The Vetus Italica sometimes omits a whole verse, and the same omission is observed in the Codex Augustinius and in the Anglo-Saxon, when it is contained in the Vulgate, as in St. Matt. xxiii. 14. This affords further evidence, that the Anglo-Saxon was translated from the Vetus Italica, and also that the Bodleian Codex Augustinius is the Italic, and not the Vulgate Version. See the note upon Matt. xxiii. 14, p. 577.

It is then an interesting fact, that we still possess, in the Bodleian, one of the copies which Gregory the Great sent to England,—that it is not a copy of the Vulgate, but of the Vetus Italica, and that it may be the very copy from which the Anglo-Saxon Version was made.

We are not certain as to the names of those patriotic Anglo-Saxons, who devoted their time, talents, and learning to the translating of the Scriptures into Anglo-Saxon, that they might be read by the people, and in their churches; but we have an indisputable evidence in the Rubrics, printed in our notes from the MS, that they were constantly read in Anglo-Saxon churches, as the rubrical directions declare what part of the Scriptures was appointed for successive seasons. We have no more knowledge of the exact date when the Gospels were first translated into Anglo-Saxon, than we have of the translators. We are, however, assured by Cuthbert*, a pupil of the learned Venerable Bede, the glory of the Anglo-Saxon Church, that he was finishing his translation of St. John's Gospel immediately before his death on the 27th of May, 725. As St. John is the last of the Gospels, the three preceding had most likely been previously translated. Cuthbert describes the last day of Bede's life with Christian simplicity and feeling. 'When the morning dawned he told us to write diligently what we had begun. This being done, one of us said,—There is yet, beloved Master, one chapter wanting; will it be unpleasant to be asked any more questions? He answered, Not at all. Take your pen and write with speed.-He did so. At the ninth hour he said to me, I have some valuables in my little chest; fetch them that I may distribute my small presents. He addressed each and exhorted to prayer. We wept. In the evening when his pupil said, Dear Master, one sentence is still wanting. Write it quickly, exclaimed Bede. When it was finished, he said, Support me while I go to the holy place, where I can pray to my Father. When he was placed there he repeated the Gloria Patri, and expired in the effort.'

We have no satisfactory evidence to prove that this was the first translation of the Gospels, nor that Bede's version has come down to us. The Scriptures, in their own tongue, were revered by the Anglo-Saxons, for Alfred the Great placed the Commandments at the head of his Laws, and incorporated many passages from the Gospels. Subsequent translators would naturally avail themselves of the versions made by their predecessors, and write them in the orthography, the language, and the style of the time in which they lived. From these distinguishing features, the age of a MS. may be ascertained with tolerable accuracy. Sometimes persons and places are named, which aid in fixing the date.

Anglo-Saxon MSS. of the Gospels.—Our Anglo-Saxon text* is based upon the MS. No. CXL. in Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, denoted by B; and the MS. Ii. 2.11. in the University Library, Cambridge, designated by C; collated with Cot. or the Cotton Otho C. I. the MS. in the British Museum, and with the Hatton MS. No. 38 in the Bodleian, Oxford, referred to in the notes, by the signature H, compared with Rl. or the MS. of nearly the same form and date I. A. XIV. in the Royal Library, British Museum:—collated also with the Oxford MS. in the Bodleian No. 441, to which a reference is made in the notes by O.—Also Rush. or the Rushworth Gloss, in the Bodleian, No. 3946; and the Lindisfarne in the British Museum, Nero D. IV.

The value of these MSS and the text formed upon their authority will be best ascertained from a short account of each, chiefly in the alphabetical order of the letters by which they are designated.

- I. B. is described in Wanley's Catal. p. 116, and by Nasmith, p. 213; it is said to be copied from an older MS. before the Conquest. I think between A.D. 990 and 1030. Many vowels are accented. At the end of St. Matthew's Gospel is the following note, written in the same form of letter as the MS. but of a somewhat later date:—Ego Ælfricus scripsi hunc librum in Monasterio Badonio, et dedi Brihtwoldo Preposito†.—Dr. Marshall, speaking of this MS. in 1664, says,—Hunc Codicem et Oxoniensem, rarius reperi ab invicem dissentientes; superioremque eos vetustatem spirare existimo. (p. 490.)
- II. C. denotes the MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels, in the University of Cambridge, marked Ii. 2. 11. This MS. in small folio, written in a good clear hand about the time of the ‡Norman Conquest, if not earlier, is very valuable for its accuracy in grammatical forms, and orthography as adopted in the best West-Saxon; and because it is the only copy which has the Rubrics complete, and written in the same hand and just after the other parts of the MS. Many vowels are accented. In 1704, when Wanley wrote his Catalogus Historico-Criticus Manuscriptorum Septentrionalium, the leaf, containing the following note, stood among the waste leaves at the beginning of this MS.: it is now (1865) placed at the end§:—Hunc textum Euangeliorum dedit Leofricus

[§] I might merely state the fact, but I may add, that Mr. Bradshaw of King's College, who has the care of the MSS. and examines them most minutely, is satisfied, from the size and the cutting of the parchment, with other concurring circumstances, that, when the MS. was originally written, this was the last leaf; he has, therefore, restored it to what, he is assured, was its first position.

episcopus ecclesise Sancti Petri Apostoli in Exonia ad utilitatem successorum suorum. Then immediately follows in the same Anglo-Saxon hand as the Codex, but of a little later date,—Das boc Leofric biscop gef Sancto Petro and eallum his æftergengum into Exancestre Gode mid to đenienne.

At the foot of a waste leaf, placed before the MS. is this note:—Hunc Codicem Evangeliorum Gregorius Dodde, Decanus Ecclesiæ Exoniensis, cum assensu fratrum suorum Canonicorum dono dedit Matthæo Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo, qui illum in hanc novam formam redigi et ornari curavit. 1566.

On the upper margin of page 1 of this MS. is written in the bold, clear hand of Archbishop Parker,-" Matthæus Cantuar: 1574." At the foot of this page in the same clear hand, "Continet pag. 401," i. e. The entire MS. contains The Gospels occupy p. 1-343.—Pseudo-Evangelium Nichodemi, p. 344-383, published by Thwaites at the end of his Heptateuchus in 8vo. 1698.— Nathanis Judæi Legatio Fabulosa ad Tiberium Cæsarem, p. 383-401. All the 401 pages of the MS. are written in the same bold and distinct Anglo-Saxon hand. The Rubrics are in faded, dark red letters of the same form as the MS., but written after the text was finished, as they often extend far into the margin, the latter words being placed at the end of one or more consecutive lines of the MS.: for example in Matt. xi., MS. p. 37, line 14-17. The letters of the Rubrics were most likely formed, when the Capital letters were coloured. The Gospels are divided into paragraphs, denoted by large plain Capital letters of different colours, some of which, especially the green and light blue, are as bright as if recently coloured. There is generally, but not always, a Rubric at the head of each paragraph. Three or four paragraphs are often included in a Chapter; and the chapters of our modern versions sometimes begin in the middle or other parts of the paragraphs of this MS., in which there was not originally the least indication of such a division.

III. This is what remains of the once fine MS. written on vellum before the Norman Conquest, and denoted by Cot. because it is in the Cotton Library, British Museum, Otho C. I. A minute description is given of it by Wanley in A.D. 1704*, when it was in a perfect state from Matt. xxvii. 6. It was so much injured by the fire, which destroyed many of Sir Robert Cotton's MSS. on the 23rd of Oct. 1731, that, what was defective only as far as Matt. xxvii. 6 before that calamity, afterwards looked like a charred mass. Planta, in his Catalogue of the Cotton MSS., describes it as "once consisting of 290 leaves, but now (1802) so much burnt and contracted as to render the binding of it impracticable." It was fortunately kept in a case; and what was found impracticable by Mr. Planta, has been effected under the careful superintendence of Sir Frederic Madden, by whose judicious arrangements many MSS. have been restored, and made accessible to the public. The smallest part of this burnt mass has been carefully mounted on thick folio paper, which is cut away in the middle to fit the injured vellum, and made fast by transparent paper, gummed to the edges of the paper and the vellum; the MS. can, therefore, be easily read on both sides. It is now bound in two large folio vols. Sir Frederic Madden tells us—that twenty-five folios are lost since Wanley described it. The first small fragment of this MS. now remaining is from folio 26, which Sir F. Madden has marked as part of St. Mark vii. 22. Such a note deserves the best thanks of all who consult the MS. as it saves much of their time. The fragments increase a little in size from folio 26 to 38. St. Luke is nearly complete, and occupies fol. 39-93. St. John fills fol. 95-135, and is nearly perfect, especially in the latter part. There are not any rubrical directions, and only a few badly formed capital letters of a dingy red colour in this MS. The accents are neither numerous nor carefully applied.

IV. H. The Hatton MS. No. 38 in the Bodleian*, Oxford, is the size of a large 8vo. and written on vellum, in a very uniform and beautiful, but late hand, about the time of Henry II. The letters are so uniform, upright, and near together, as to appear like printing in facsimile types. It formerly belonged to the Rev. John Parker, son of Matthew Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, who wrote his name in red chalk, "Iohës parker," on the verso and top of the first fly-leaf. Wanley tells us that the missing leaf Lk. xvi. was neatly written and inserted by Mr. Parker. The four Gospels are arranged not in the usual order, but St. Matt. is placed after St. Luke; thus, Mark, Luke, Matthew, and John. The only Rubric in Anglo-Saxon is this at the beginning of St. John,—Her ongine det god spell de Johannes se godspellere gewrat on Pathmos dem eiglande.—The accents are few, and capriciously applied.

V. This MS. denoted by Rl. is in the Royal Library, British Museum, I. A. XIV. It is very similar to the Hatton in the 8vo. size, but a little smaller. The writing is somewhat earlier in date, and less regular than the Hatton. The Rubrics are very few, and of a brighter red than the Hatton. There are scarcely any accents; yet Ysaac is found in fol. 33, 5. The four Gospels are placed in this order, -Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John. -St. Mark begins, Initium Sci Euangelii secundum Marcum. Her ys Godspelles angin, Halendes Cristes Godes sune, swa awriten is on has witegan bec Isaiam.—Her ongind Matheus boc has halga Godspelleres.—Begins, Soblice wel is to understanden $ æfter Matheus gerecednysse her his oncneornysse boc Hælendes Cristes Dauides suna.—St. Luke, Nu we willad her eow areccen Lucas boc des halgan Godspelleres. - Begins, Fordam de wytodlice manega bohte bare binge wace ge endebyrden de on us gefylde sint, swa us betahten ha he hit of frimde gesawon, and bare spræce be nas wæron.—Then follows the Rubric to St. John precisely as in the Hatton MS.—This Royal MS. belonged to St. Augustine's Abbey †, Canterbury. It was also in possession of Thomas Cranmer, Archbishop of Canterbury, whose name is written on the upper margin of the first leaf.

VI. O. The Oxford MS. in the Bodleian, No. 441, is closely allied to the best MSS. B, C, and Cot.; namely to I, II, and III.—This Oxford MS. of the four Anglo-Saxon Gospels is in small folio, written before the Norman Conquest*, in a fine bold Anglo-Saxon character, and has some vowels accented. The Rubrics are written in a small and recent hand, between the paragraphs; or, for want of room, in the margin. The first six leaves of St. Mark, fol. 57-62, fol. 90, fol. 131, and fol. 150, also the last three leaves of St. John, fol. 192-194, are written in a small and recent hand upon new parchment, with few accents. —The first edition of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels by John Foxe, in 1571, was printed from this Oxford MS. No. 441. It was also the basis of the edition by Junius and Marshall in 1665.

VII. The Latin of the Lindisfarne Gospels, or the Durham Book, is said to have been written about A.D. 687 by Eadfrith, a monk, and the interlinear and verbal Anglo-Saxon Gloss, by Aldred a Priest, between 946 and 968. Both Eadfrith and Aldred became Bishops of Durham. It is one of our finest MSS.

VIII. The Latin of the Rushworth Gospels appears to be written about the end of the 7th century; and the interlinear and verbal Anglo-Saxon Gloss of the 10th. The first three Gospels have been published by the Surtees Society. St. Matthew, edited by the Rev. Joseph Stevenson, M.A., 8vo. 1854. St. Mark in 1861, and St. Luke in 1863, both edited by Geo. Waring, Esq., M.A.

Printed editions.—I. The Anglo-Saxon Gospels were first printed, at the suggestion and expense of Matthew Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, under the care of John Foxe, the Martyrologist, with this title :- "The Gospels of the fower Euangelistes translated in the olde Saxons tyme out of Latin into the vulgare toung of the Saxons, newly collected out of Auncient Monumentes of the sayd Saxons, and now published for testimonie of the same at London. Printed by John Daye dwelling ouer Aldersgate. 1571. Cum Privilegio Regiæ Maiestatis per Decennium." The text is in the clear and readable Anglo-Saxon type, used by Daye in Ælfric's "Sermon on Easter day," 1567†, the first book printed in Anglo-Saxon. The Anglo-Saxon occupies two-thirds the width of the page, and the remaining third is filled with the English Version of the Bishops' Bible in small old English. Foxe wrote the long dedication to Queen The chief object for the publication of these Gospels is thus stated in the Preface :-- "We have published especially to this end, that the said boke imprinted thus in the Saxons letters, may remaine in the Church as a profitable example, and president of olde antiquitie, to the more confirmation of your gratious procedinges now in the Church agreable to the same. Wherin as we have to see how much we are beholden to the reuerend and learned father in God. Matthew Archbishop of Cant. a cheefe and a famous trauailler in thys Church of England, by whose industrious diligence and learned labours, this booke, with others moe, hath bene collected and searched out of the Saxons Monumëtes: so likewise haue we to vnderstand and conceaue, by the edition hereof, how the religion presently taught and professed in the Church at thys present, is no new reformation of thinges lately begonne, which were not before, but rather a reduction of the Church to the Pristine state of olde conformitie, which once it had." (p. 9.)

II. A much improved edition of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels* was published, with the Gothic by Junius and Marshall, in 1665, with the following ample title,—Quatuor D. N. Jesu Christi Euangeliorum Versiones perantiquæ duæ, Gothica scil. et Anglo-Saxonica: quarum illam ex celeberrimo Codice Argenteo nunc primum depromsit Franciscus Junius, Francisci filius. Hanc autem ex Codicibus MSS. collatis emendatiùs recudi curavit Thomas Mareschallus, Anglus: cujus etiam Observationes in utramque Versionem subnectuntur.—Accessit et Glossarium Gothicum: cui præmittitur Alphabetum Gothicum, Runicum, etc. operâ ejusdem Francisci Junii.—Dordrechti. Typis et sumptibus Junianis.—Excudebant Henricus et Joannes Essæi, Urbis Typographi Ordinarii. Cioloclav.

III. A very neat and handy edition of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels appeared in 12mo, London 1842, with this title—Da Halgan Godspel on Englisc.—The Anglo-Saxon Version of the holy Gospels, edited from the original manuscripts, by Benjamin Thorpe, F.S.A. London, Rivington: Oxford, Parker: 1842.

One peculiar feature of the Anglo-Saxon version may be noticed, before we speak of the next translation. Those terms, which are adopted in other versions from the Hebrew, Greek, and Latin, are generally translated by indigenous Anglo-Saxon compounds, so descriptive as to be intelligible to every reader. A very few examples will be sufficient to show this principle, and the compositive power of the Anglo-Saxon language. For Centurion they used hundred-man, similar to the Lat. Centurio:—Disciple, leorning-cniht, a learning youth:—Dropsy, a man with the dropsy was called wæter-seoc-man:—Parable, bigspel, a near example:—Repentance, dæd-bót, an amends-deed:—Resurrection, ærist, a rising again:—Sabbath, reste-dæg, a day of rest:—Scribe, bóc-ere, bóc-wer, a book man:—Synagogue, gesamnung, a congregation:—Treasury, gold-hórd, gold-hoard.

WYCLIFFE.—Till the discovery of printing in the 15th century, the Holy Scriptures and other writings could only be published, or made generally known, by Lectures and by the slow process of manuscripts. Between forty and fifty years, Wycliffe was more or less closely connected with the University of Oxford. As Tutor, Head of a College, and Professor of Divinity, he had great facilities for making the Gospel generally known. In addition to the members of noble families, and men educated for lay professions, those especially preparing for the Church attended his Lectures, and were educated under his superintendence; taking with them into every parish throughout the whole country, the learning and impressions they had received in the University, giving lectures upon his principles, and often becoming his willing agents in transcribing his works. The important part, taken by Wycliffe in preparing for the Reformation by the translation of the Scriptures, will be best seen by a short notice of the chief incidents of his life.

John Wycliffe is said to have been born in 1324 at a small village of that name, near Richmond, in Yorkshire; and, at the age of sixteen, to have become one of the first members of Queen's College, founded He was a fellow of Merton College in 1356. With much natural talent, unwearied assiduity, and a facility in acquiring knowledge, this diligent and unobtrusive student gained in the University great reputation for his learning, and faithful friends by his decision of character, combined with kindness of heart and unassuming manners. He was deservedly popular, and was much attached to Oxford for the literary facilities and the uninterrupted quietude which he could not find anywhere so perfect as in the University. During more than twenty years he gratified his insatiable desire for knowledge on all subjects, never neglecting to devote a specified time for reading the Bible, making all other knowledge subservient to the great object he ever kept in view, a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures. He read the Latin Fathers with great care, and studied Aristotle, the profound reasoner of the Greeks. As the Greek language and literature were little known and almost forgotten in England before the taking of Constantinople by the Turks in A.D. 1453, when the Greeks fled for refuge to other countries, where they introduced and interpreted the ancient Greek authors, Wycliffe had not the means of acquiring a knowledge of Greek. He could, therefore, study Aristotle only in the Latin translations and commentaries. Even with such inadequate assistance he became a most subtle reasoner, and an unrivalled disputant, able to encounter the intricacies of scholastic divinity. His great opponent, the Chronicler Knighton, admits that, while Wycliffe was generally esteemed a most eminent theologian, he had no equal in the employment of the scholastic art of disputation.

About the year 1360, circumstances occurred which called forth

Wycliffe's extraordinary talents. Oxford was so celebrated as a seat of learning in the reign of Henry III. that an immense number of students came to the University from all parts of England and from the Continent. Anthony Wood, in his Annals*, tells us they amounted to thirty thousand. When all allowance is made for this almost incredible estimate of the students by one of Oxford's most partial friends, it at least indicates the popularity of the University. the undue influence of the mendicant Friars, the younger students were tempted to leave the Colleges for the Convent, till they are said to have been reduced to six thousand. The Church of Rome, to revive the monastic institutions, established the four orders of Mendicants, the Augustines, Carmelites, Dominicans and Franciscans. establishment of the Dominicans was at Oxford in 1221. With other privileges, the Popes had allowed the Friars the liberty of superintending education. They had their own exempt jurisdiction; and, in their unremitted endeavours to gain converts by trespassing on the statutes of the University, they were involved in continual disputes with the Chancellor and Scholars. The University and the Church suffered so much by this interference, that a Convocation was assembled, and a decree passed, that no youth, under the age of eighteen, should be received by the Friars into their orders. The contest became so warm and exasperating, that Wycliffe entered into the defence of his beloved University with such zeal, energy and success, as to confound the They could not resist his plain and honest reasoning. overwhelmed them by his arguments and learning, and brought them into popular disgrace by his pamphlets on the "able beggary" absurdly advocated by the Friars.

The whole University was gratified by this display of Wycliffe's energy, talents and learning; and, in testimony of respect and gratitude, elected him Warden or Master of Balliol College or Hall, as it was then called. In the early part of 1361, he was presented by his College to the valuable Rectory of Fillingham in Lincolnshire, which he afterwards exchanged for Ludgershall in Buckinghamshire, that he might be within a few miles of his numerous friends in the University. In the year 1365 Simon de Islip, Archbishop of Canterbury, appointed him Warden of Canterbury Hall, now occupied by the Canterbury Quadrangle of Christ Church. In 1367 he defended Edward III. in refusing to pay Pope Urban the tribute which had been claimed ever since it was exacted from the weak King John. Wycliffe wrote with such ability, and used such convincing arguments, as to prove, beyond any future doubt, the illegality of the claim. The See of Rome was silent but indignant, looking upon Wycliffe with a jealous eye, as the cause of the defeat. In England this defence increased the fame of its author, and procured for him the favourable regard of the Duke of Lancaster and both Houses of Parliament. Edward III. had previously made him one of his Chaplains.

In 1372 Wycliffe was gratified by obtaining the chief desire of his heart, the election to the Professorship of Divinity. His whole life had been spent in preparing himself for the faithful discharge of the duties devolving on the Divinity Professor. Being elevated to a Professorship, which enabled him to diffuse with authority that light which had already beamed on his own mind, he used great judgment in his lectures and in the theological discussions over which he presided. His experience taught him that deep-rooted principles and old customs must be treated with a gentle hand. His heart was filled with piety towards God and love to man, which were always manifested by his unaffected simplicity of manner, in language as plain and expressive as it was elegant. His lectures always attracted a large audience, as he was ever more desirous of correcting error by the statement of truth, than by direct and personal attacks. When he had felt his way, and had obtained numerous supporters in the University, the majority of whom read and studied the Scriptures not only critically but practically; with such friends, he threw off all reserve and spoke of vital religion, the religion of the heart with its practical results, and the best means of promoting them amongst the people. His lectures and sermons were full of the Scriptures, forming short treatises on Divinity, worthy of the Oxford Professor. He entertained a deep conviction, that the only way of promoting vital and practical religion in the mass of the population, was by giving them the Word of God in their own tongue. He had, therefore, for some time been engaged in translating the Scriptures into English, from the Latin Vulgate, the authorised version of the Church of that day. Many of his most able and faithful friends assisted him in this holy work. While he was increasing in Christian knowledge, and imparting it to the common people, as well as to those numerous students of the University who attended his Lectures for the acquisition of that scriptural knowledge, which would enable them to discharge faithfully the duties of parish Priests throughout the whole land,—his reputation, his piety and worldly prosperity went hand in hand. nest services to the crown were rewarded in 1374, by his being presented to the valuable Rectory of Lutterworth. As ecclesiastics were generally the best educated men of that time, and therefore well prepared to assist in state affairs, Wycliffe was employed by the Government as a Diplomatist in several embassies. The See of Rome could not forget the rebuke and victory of Wycliffe. Though silent, Rome was ever watchful for an opportunity of crushing the successful opponent. Wycliffe and his friends went on, with great zeal and energy, in their work of translating and disseminating the Scriptures. As his knowledge of revelation increased, and his view of divine truth was cleared, he manifested greater decision and fully declared his religious opinions. When his friends, who had supported him from motives of state policy, saw that his governing principle was scriptural truth, they forsook him. The See of Rome seized the opportunity, and annoyed and persecuted him; but opposition could not retard his work.

This brief notice must not be lengthened by entering into details: it is only necessary to state, that Courtney, Archbishop of Canterbury, under the influence of the Church of Rome, with the aid of the Aristocracy and the sanction of the timid Richard II., brought a bill into the House of Lords to arrest Wycliffe and his followers, "and hold them in "strong prison till they justify themselves according to the law and " reason of Holy Church*." As soon as the Bill had passed the Lords, Courtney endeavoured to carry it into effect. The House of Commons remonstrated upon its illegality, not having passed their house. The Chancellor of the University excused himself by declaring, that his own life and the peace of the University would be endangered, if Wycliffe were taken. To allay the fury of the storm, Wycliffe thought it prudent, in Nov. 1382, to retire to the country. But persecution was so severe and unrelenting, that he was compelled to descend from what had been his throne—his professorial chair, and to leave the University for ever. He sought retirement at Lutterworth, where, despite all opposition and persecution, he fearlessly wrote in defence of his doctrines, and proceeded in his work of completing and revising the translation of the Scriptures, till his death, on the last day of Dec. 1384.

The bitter feeling and hostility of the See of Rome did not end with Wycliffe's death, but by a decree of the Council of Constance his remains were disinterred in 1428, then burnt and the ashes cast into the Swift, a streamlet which runs by Lutterworth†. But Wycliffe lives, and ever will live in the hearts and affections of the Anglo-Saxon race, as the first translator of the whole of the Scriptures into English.

As Oxford was the chief scene of Wycliffe's literary enjoyment and fame, the home of his heart, a retreat which he always sought with pleasure and left with regret, it is gratifying to know that Oxford has raised an imperishable monument to Wycliffe's memory by publishing, at its own expense, the splendid edition in 4 vols. 4to. of

"The Holy Bible, containing the Old and New Testaments, with the Apocryphal Books, in the earliest English Versions made from the Latin Vulgate by John Wycliffe and his Followers; edited by the Rev. Josiah Forshall, F.R.S. etc., late Fellow of Exeter College, and Sir Frederic Madden, K.H. F.R.S. etc., Keeper of the MSS. in the British Museum. Oxford, at the University Press 1850."

This is one of the best, most laborious, and accurate editions of any early English author I have ever seen. The editors have examined and described 170 MSS., and selected and most carefully printed two of the best in parallel columns, the first written before 1390, and the second before 1420. The Prologues and every available and desirable information have been given. A very excellent and ample Glossary is appended to the 4th vol. Altogether, this edition is the work of sound and ripe scholars,—an honour to the University of Oxford and their press, as well as to the literary veterans, the editors. All must acknowledge with them, that "they have spared neither time nor pains to render their work complete;" especially when it is known, that "A considerable portion of their time, during nearly twenty-two years, has been spent in accomplishing their task."—Pref. p. xxxviii.

Our text of Wycliffe's Gospels is founded upon the first version given in this Oxford edition of 1850, collated with the original MS. in the Bodleian, No. 369 of the Douce Collection. This MS. is written on vellum, in large fol. 2 cols. ff. 486 [429 bis], consisting of two distinct MSS., both imperfect. The first is written with marginal corrections throughout, in three different hands, all before 1390*. The second part of the volume, from fol. 251 to the end, containing the Text of our Gospels, is written about the same time as the former, that is before 1390, say the preceding year 1389, the date I have adopted. A facsimile of this MS., Matt. vi. 14, 15, is given in the plate facing the Title. Sir F. Madden says, in Pref. p. xxi., that "the version described.... is to a greater or less degree the work of Wycliffe; that it is the earliest translation of the whole Bible in the English language, admits of no reasonable doubt."

Editions of Wycliffe.—The numbers I. II. and III. were from the text before 1420, adopted as the later text in the Oxford edition of 1850.

I. The New Testament of Wycliffe was first printed in folio, London 1731, by the Rev. John Lewis, Minister of Margate, Kent, with a short Glossary or Explanation of the old and obsolete words in Dr. Wycliffe's Translation. The text was taken from two MSS., one of which was his own [now, 1850, Sir F. Madden states, in the Bodleian, Gough, Eccl. Top. 5] and the other the property of Sir Edward Deering, Bart., now, 1850, of the Very Rev. Wm. Conybeare, dean of Llandaff.

II. The Rev. Henry Baber, M. A., republished in 4to., London 1810, a reprint of the preceding with the following additions, which are very valuable, and deserve the attention of every scholar. "A short memoir of the Life, Opinions and Writings of Dr. Wycliffe: an historical account of the Saxon and English versions of the Scriptures which have been made previous to the fifteenth Century. The Glossary of Lewis at the end of the vol. is corrected and considerably enlarged." (p. v.)

III. The New Testament in the same version as that published by the Rev. John Lewis was again published in 1841, from a MS. then belonging to H.R.H. the Duke of Sussex, [now, 1850, in the collection of the earl of Ashburnham,] by Messrs. Bagster, in the English Hexapla, 4to. Lond. 1841.

IV. When the 4to. edition of 1850 was commenced, Sir F. Madden says,—Pref. p. i. note a,—"No part of the earlier of the two versions before 1390 had ever been printed, with the exception of the Song of Solomon, given by Dr. Adam Clarke in his commentary on the Bible, [8 vols. 4to. Lond. 1810-25,] from a MS. in his own library," [now Brit. Mus. Eg. 618, 619].

V. In 1848, the New Testament in the earlier version, was printed by Mr. Lea Wilson, from a MS. in his own possession, [now, 1850, in the hands of the earl of Ashburnham,] under the title The New Testament in English, translated by John Wycliffe, circa MCCCLXXX. etc. 4to. Lond.

TYNDALE.—The mind cannot be fettered by man, however powerful. We yearn for freedom of heart and soul. All the gifts of God are as free as the light of the sun. So is the light of his divine revelation free to all. By the light of the divine word man sees and knows the truth, and the truth makes him free*. Free from the thraldom of evil—and to do good. His freedom is not for selfishness, dissension and strife, but for order, harmony and truth. At particular times, we see a man raised up, whose love for truth is so great, that it frees him from all fear of evil and even from the fear of death, when put in competition with truth. Such was William Tyndale, as will be seen by a few particulars of his life. William Tyndale, the second of three sons of John Tyndale of Hunt's Court, in the parish of North Nibley, in Gloucestershire, is said to have been born there about the year 1484. He descended from Hugh Baron de Tyndale. At an early age he was sent to Oxford. John Foxe tells us, Wm. Tyndale "was brought up from a child in the University of Oxford, where he by long continuance grew up and increased, as well in the knowledge of tongues and other liberal arts; as specially in the knowledge of the Scriptures, whereunto his mind was singularly addicted; insomuch that he read privily to certain students and fellows of Magdalen College some parcel of divinity. His manners and conversation were such that all, who knew him, reputed and esteemed him to be a man of most virtuous disposition and of life unspotted. Thus he in the University of Oxford, increasing more and more in learning, and proceeding in degrees of the schools, spying his time, removed from thence to the University of Cambridge." He probably went to Cambridge with the view of profiting by the instruction of Erasmus, who lectured on the Greek language in that University, from 1500 till the beginning of 1514. At Cambridge he formed an acquaintance with a young and diligent student, John Frith, who afterwards assisted him in his translation of the New Testament. It must have been about 1518, in his thirty-fourth year, when, as Foxe tells us, Tyndale "had made his abode a certain space now further ripened in the knowledge of God's word, leaving that University also, he resorted to one Maister Welch, a knight of Gloucestershire, and was there schoolmaister to his children, and in good favour with his maister." This was Sir John Welch, of Little Sodbury, at whose house Tyndale held many disputes on religious subjects with the clerical dignitaries of the neighbourhood, who frequented Sir John's table. This brought him into so much danger, that he deemed it prudent to leave the country and go to London.

It is difficult to fix the time of his ordination; we only know that, after preaching at St. Dunstan's in the West the same earnest and practical sermons delivered in the country, he attempted to obtain the patronage of Tonstall, Bishop of London, by sending his translation of the Attic Greek Orator, Isocrates. He was unsuccessful, as the Bishop's palace was full; but an eminent merchant, Humfrey Monmouth, a favourer of Luther, admitted him into his house; and when Tyndale "understode at the laste, not only that there was no rowme in my lorde of london's palace to translate the new testament, but also that there was no place to do it in all englonde," [Prol. to Pentateuch, 1530,] he determined to go to Germany. His friend Monmouth settled upon him an annuity of ten pounds, about £150 of our money, and paid his passage that he might live abroad and finish his translation of the New Testament from Greek into English. He is said to have gone to Wittenberg to confer with Luther, who published in 1522 his first edition of his New Testament in German. Tyndale and his friend John Frith were driven from place to place, till at last they settled in the free imperial city of Worms on the Rhine, where Tyndale's first edition of the New Testament was printed at the end of 1525 or in the early part of 1526, in very small octavo.

The beautiful facsimile edition of Mr. Francis Fry, F.S.A., has been noticed and the full title given in the notes on Tyndale's translation*. He has taken so much pains to acquire accurate information, as to the printer, the place and the date of this first edition of Tyndale's New Testament, that I gladly refer to his satisfactory introduction, illustrated by facsimiles. I have only room for a very brief summary. Peter Schöffer on becoming a Lutheran, found it necessary to leave Mayence, and to settle in the free city of Worms in 1512. Fourteen works printed by Schöffer from 1518 to 1520, seven of which have the imprint Worms, have been carefully compared with the capital letters, the three sizes of type, the woodcut of St. Paul, and the numerals used in the New Testament of Tyndale, and they perfectly accord. Not only the type, but the length of the lines and their number in each page, are exactly the same in the two German editions of the Prophets as in Tyndale's Testament. The water-marks in the paper are also the same. If then the same type, the length and the number of lines in a page, the same woodcut and water-mark are found in the other works of Schöffer, printed at Worms, as in Tyndale's New Testament of 1526, can there be any reasonable doubt that it was printed at Worms by Peter Schöffer, corroborated as this inference is by the Lutheran profession of Schöffer, and the residence of Tyndale at Worms ? There is not any date in the Testament; but, as Cochleus caused Tyndale to flee to Worms in the middle of 1525, and the Testament was printed there immediately after, we may conclude it was published by the end of that year, or the beginning of the next, as it was sold in Oxford "before the 7th of Feb. 1526†."

There is an imperfect copy of Tyndale's New Testament of 1526 in the Library of St. Paul's Cathedral. The only copy known to exist, perfect from the beginning of St. Matt. to the end of Revelation, is in the Baptist's College, Bristol. Of this Bristol copy, Mr. Fry has taken a very correct facsimile, which was made on tracing paper, transferred to stone, and printed. The whole lithographic impression consists of one hundred and seventy-seven copies, of which twenty-six are in 4to.

Our gratitude is due to the free city of Worms, for the protection of Tyndale, while printing the first edition of his New Testament. England's days of darkness and persecution, on the false plea of religion, which, when pure, and under the mild and sympathizing influence of the Gospel, abhors tyranny, we are deeply indebted to Hamburg and other free cities of Germany; and, in after times of still greater gloom, to Holland and Switzerland for their friendly reception and protection of our refugee countrymen, when their lives were imperilled at home, for conscientiously adhering to those truths which they had learned from the Scriptures. In these free cities and states, our countrymen were received as brethren, with honour,—their talents and learning acknowledged, and their works printed and published. Though Tyndale had the reputation of being well versed in modern as well as ancient languages, we should not have known the extent of his lingual acquirements, nor whether the first impression of his New Testament was large or small, if the following facts in the year 1526 had not been recorded, by the friendly hand of a foreigner, in the diary of Spalatinus, secretary of Frederic, the elector of Saxony, and supporter of Luther. Von Busche, Professor of Hebrew in the University of Marburg, a personal friend of Tyndale, "told us that six thousand copies of the New Testament in the English language had been printed at Worms; and that this translation had been made by an Englishman, sojourning there with two other natives of England, who was so skilled in seven languages, Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Italian, Spanish, English, and German. that whichever he might be speaking, you would think it to be his native tongue*."

The quarto translation with notes, partly printed at Cologne, was finished at Worms in 1526, as well as the very small octavo already described. The Dutch booksellers found such ready sale for Tyndale's translation, that they issued several editions, without any correction or supervision of the translator, who is supposed to have gone to Hamburg after 1526 to obtain the best Hebrew criticism, from the learned Jews in that city, and to correct what he had translated of the Old Testament by the original Hebrew. There he met with Miles Coverdale, who assisted him in translating the five books of Moses into English, printed by the Hamburg press in 1530. Tyndale's English version of Jonah issued from the same press in 1531. We next hear of Tyndale at Antwerp, where he found a faithful friend in Thomas Poyntz, an English merchant, who cordially received him into his house. While residing in this respected family, besides preaching to the English residents, he most carefully revised his translation of the New Testament, and in 1534, after the lapse of eight years, published it with this title:—

The Newe Testament, dylygently corrected and compared with the Greke by Willyam Tindale: and fynesshed in the yere of oure Lorde God anno M.D. and XXXIIII. in the moneth of Nouember.—Then follows. "W. T. vnto the Reader. Here thou hast (moost deare reader) the New Testament, or covenaunt made wyth us of God in Christes bloude. Which I have looked over agayne (now at the last), with all dylygence, and compared it vnto the Greke, and have weded oute of it many fautes, which lacke of helpe at the begynninge and oversyght dyd sowe therin."

Tyndale's translation of the Scriptures had been denounced by public authority in England; and, by an imperial decree promulgated at the diet of Augsburg in 1530, persons accused of heresy could be seized and Those who opposed the reading of the Scriptures in cast into prison. the language of the people were enraged when they saw the increased supply of the English version; and, availing themselves of the imperial decree, they employed secret influence and agency for the capture of Tyndale. Henry Philips was sent to Antwerp, who, under the guise of friendship, inveigled him from the house of Poyntz in August 1535, and then delivered him into the hands of the officers, sent to apprehend him as a denounced heretic. Tyndale was at once conveyed to the Castle of Vilvoord, about eighteen miles from Antwerp. Though great efforts were made for his liberation, they were all ineffectual; for, after being confined in prison more than a year, he was brought to trial; and "at last," says Foxe, "he was condemned by virtue of the Emperor's decree, made in the assembly at Augsburg; and upon the same brought forth to the place of execution; was there tied to a stake; and then first strangled by the hangman, and afterward with fire consumed, in the morning [*of October 6th], at the town of Vilvoord, in the year 1536, when he was about the age of fifty-two. Thus much of William Tyndale, who, for his notable pains and travail, may be worthily called an apostle of England."

Though Henry VIII did not appear to have any connection with carrying into effect this arbitrary, unjust and cruel decree, Tyndale earnestly and with a loud voice prayed at the stake-"Lord! open the King of England's eyes!"—The prayer of the dying martyr was heard; for, before the close of 1536, the first volume of the Holy Scriptures in English ever printed in this country, the folio edition of the *New Testament, issued from the press of the king's own printer, with the name of William Tyndale on the title. Nay more, when what is generally called Matthew's Bible was published in 1537, the king gave his royal "Licence that the same may be sold, and read of every person, without "danger of any act, proclamation, or ordinance heretofore granted to "the contrary." This Bible received its designation from the name of Thomas Matthew being given on the title-page. It was chiefly a republication of Tyndale's version; but those parts of the Old Testament, which he did not live to translate, were taken from Coverdale's Bible of 1535. The New Testament of Tyndale had been in circulation for eleven years; and it was the best translation and popular, because the language was familiar to the people. Some of the Prologues and notes of Tyndale had been introduced into Matthew's Bible, and given offence and raised opposition. To remove these objections Archbishop Cranmer, with the king's sanction, proposed the publication of the whole Bible without note or comment. He had the translation of Tyndale copied, and sent in portions to the Bishops for their correction, and then to be returned to him for his final revision. This version was published in 1539, and is known as Cranmer's, or the Great Bible, the first that was authorized " to be sett up in summe convenyent place within the churche, whereat the parishners may rede yt." The Great Bible was the authorized version in the reign of Henry and Edward; and, after the death of Mary, it was authorized by Elizabeth, and continued in general use till superseded by the revised edition of 1568 under the superintendence of Archbishop Parker, assisted by the most learned Bishops, hence called the Bishops' Bible. The first rule, recommended by King James I. in the preparation of our present authorized version of 1611, was this,-"The ordinary Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops' "Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the original will permit." From this very brief detail, it appears that our present English Version was based upon the Bishops' Bible of 1568, and that upon Cranmer's of 1539, which was a new edition of Matthew's Bible of 1537, partly from Coverdale of 1535, but chiefly from Tyndale; in other words, that our * A copy is in the Bodleian.

present authorized translation is mainly that of Tyndale, made from the original Hebrew and Greek. It has stood the test of the severest criticism, from his last revision to the present time, without material alteration; because Tyndale, having a critical knowledge of Hebrew and Greek and deep Christian experience, caught the very spirit of the original, and gave the impression of it in plain, idiomatic English. style is easy, correct and vigorous. His translation of the New Testament is a fine specimen of our language, in what may be called the first stage of maturity. It is the foundation of our standard translation, which is also the standard of our language. He avoids Latin derivatives, and generally uses indigenous words, the strong and expressive Saxon terms, known by all the people. In this respect our version happily follows Tyndale translates την αγάπην τοῦ Θεοῦ, Lk. xi. 42, the love of God, which our established version has adopted; but Wycliffe has the charite of God, from the Vulgate charitatem Dei. Our translators seldom depart from Tyndale, but when they do, in a particular word, the spirit of the passage is often lost; for instance, in I Cor. xiii. 13, Tyndale has, -Nowe abideth fayth, hope and love, even these thre; but the chefe of these is love [ή ἀγάπη]. Love is divine affection in the soul, for God is love ίστι ὁ Θεὸς ἀγάπη ἐστίν].. Faith in the Saviour is the foundation of good works, hope raises the superstructure, and love completes and crowns it in eternity. Faith works by love, and love is the fulfilling of the law [πλήρωμα νόμου ἡ ἀγάπη]. The perfection of a good work is, that it springs from love. Every Christian knows this to be his ruling principle. We have an illustration of it in filial love. How different is the feeling and conduct of an affectionate child from that of a servant! The child, influenced by love, is unwearied in attention, and the only hope is an increase of mutual affection; while the servant's constraining principle is naturally the hope of material wages. Thus, while Christian love is the constraining principle of action here, and the fulfilling of the law, when our present faith is lost in sight, and hope in enjoyment, this ἀγάπη will continue, and increase throughout eternity.—Now, if this be the literal and true meaning of St. Paul's Greek, let love be substituted for charity, wherever it occurs in I Cor. xiii., as it is in Tyndale 1526, followed by Coverdale 1535, Matthew 1537, Archbishop Cranmer 1539, and Parker 1568,—and there can be little doubt that love is more in accordance with the scope of the chapter than charity, and that Tyndale's last clause,—the chefe of these is love, is far better than the Vulgate major horum est charitas, or than Wycliffe's,—the moost of thes is charite, or even than our version,—the greatest of these is charity.

Before I close my Preface, I must have the pleasure of alluding to the friendly assistance I have received in the preparation and printing of these Gospels. First, and most of all, I am deeply indebted to George Waring, Esq., M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, and Magdalen Hall, Oxford, whose contributions to Anglo-Saxon philology as editor, for the Surtees Society, of the Lindisfarne and Rushworth Glosses, are already before the public. Many years ago the text of the Gothic and Anglo-Saxon Gospels had been very carefully transcribed, and the Anglo-Saxon collated with the oldest and best MSS. The final revision had been long deferred in consequence of other pressing engagements and failing sight, till all impediments were removed in the early part of 1864 by my friend, who made an arrangement with the Publisher to take the responsibility of preparing my transcript for the press, and seeing it accurately printed: ----of harmonizing the division of verses. and the punctuation of the Gothic, Anglo-Saxon, and the translation of Tyndale with Wycliffe and our authorized version: and of regulating, as far as possible, the accents, which indicate the long sound of the Anglo-Saxon vowels over which they are placed. The accent on diphthongs is here omitted, except when found in the MSS., as it was not employed by Dr. Grimm and others to denote the length of the vowel, but merely to indicate the etymological origin of the accented vowel. Every accent in the Anglo-Saxon text, therefore, denotes the long sound of the vowel over which it is placed, and the diphthones eo, ea, etc. are accented exactly as in B. or in C.

As the simplicity of Anglo-Saxon accentuation has frequently been overlooked, or involved in a complicated system, it will tend to remove false impressions, and to make the matter clear, by recollecting that the Anglo-Saxons only used one accent, which always indicated the long sound of the vowel over which it was placed. Our complicated system of English vowels arose from the Norman scribes, who first confused the Anglo-Saxon accents, and then attempted to supply their place by a multiplicity of vowels, which we have adopted, as will be seen by the following examples: - Cwen a cween, fet feet, gés geese, etc. :- Dic a dike, lic like, lim lime, win wine, etc. :- Bôc a book, fôr fore, before, god good, gos a goose, etc. :- Đú thou, hú how, hús a house, mús a mouse, etc. :- Brýd a bride, fýr fire, mýs mice. In all these instances the Anglo-Saxon is quite plain and consistent, expressing the same sound by the same accented vowel, while the English employs different vowels for the same purpose, as in cween, geese ;-good, goose, fore ;-thou, how, house, and mouse. The greatest complication of vowels is seen in our expression of the long open sound of o, heard in no and bone. We use oe, oa, and o with a silent final e, while the Anglo-Saxons, in all cases, merely accented the á, as,—Dá a doe, fá a foe, tá a toe, etc.—Bát a boat, ác an oak, fám foam, etc.—Bán a bone, stán a stone, etc. This superabundant employment of English vowels is troublesome to natives, and most perplexing to foreigners. On the contrary, the Anglo-Saxon system of accenting the long vowels is plain and definite. Mr. Waring has been guided by these general principles in accenting the Anglo-Saxon, but Gothic words have not been accented, because not a single accent has been found in Cod. Arg. Every possible care has, however, been taken to secure the greatest verbal accuracy in the Gothic and Anglo-Saxon texts, as well as in the other two.

I believe Mr. Waring has exerted himself to the uttermost to fulfil his engagement, and I have devoted a far longer time to the work than I anticipated would be at my disposal. Neither labour nor expense has been spared, when either could be profitably employed to benefit the work. I have, therefore, not only willingly assisted in preparing the MS. for the press, collated the B text with the C, but I have carefully read over every proof twice and the revise once, after being read in the same manner by Mr. Waring, and by a friend; every sheet has, therefore, been carefully read over at least nine times.

Mr. Waring suggested and superintended the placing of b and d, or the hard and soft sound of our modern th, as they are used in all parts of England at the present day. Though in our numerous provincial Dialects almost every letter has a diversity of sounds, I believe there is greater uniformity in the hard and soft sound of our th,—the Anglo-Saxon b and d,—than in any other letters. As the true archaism of our good old English and its nervous energy are retained in the provincial Dialects of our Island*, I have no doubt the original and genuine hard and soft sounds of the Anglo-Saxon b and d have been transmitted to us by the secluded peasantry of our rural districts, and confirmed by those educated in our Universities and towns. The only way then of recovering the right sound of b and d, and of correctly applying these characters in writing and printing Anglo-Saxon, is to adopt the true English sound of these letters. If the two distinct sounds of our modern th have been faithfully conveyed to us, we only ascend to Anglo-Saxon times and re-adopt their rational system by using their two distinct characters for these two distinct sounds. The Norman scribes could not distinguish between the hard and soft sound of b and d; they therefore, in writing Anglo-Saxon, confounded them, using the one or the other without any apparent distinction. Some scribes only employed of or d, which is the same letter in a modified form, as in the Rushworth Gloss, which discards the use of p altogether in St. Mark, Luke, and John. Hence the th for both sounds in modern English, to the confusion of foreigners. Our present printed Anglo-Saxon text, indicating the true, the distinct hard and soft sound of th by p and d, will be a great assistance to foreigners, in showing the correct pronunciation of th, in English words cognate with the Anglo-Saxon.

The hard, sharp, or acute sound of the English th in thin and sooth, is represented by the Anglo-Saxon \mathcal{P} and \mathcal{P} ; the soft, flat, or grave sound of TH in THine and sooTHe is represented by \mathcal{P} , \mathcal{P} or \mathcal{P} .

For ascertaining the hard and soft sound of th, equally applicable to English and Anglo-Saxon, are given the following general RULES.

- I. The hard, sharp or acute P or p, is used in the beginning of all words, not pronominal, as pincan to think, pin thin.
- a. And at the end of radical and inflectional terminations, as beep a bath, clap cloth, sop sooth, pinch thinketh. Except wid with, etc.
- b. And sometimes when th is preceded or followed by a consonant, as emblencan to think about; épnes easiness; pritig thirty.
- II. The soft, flat or grave D, d or o is used in the beginning of all pronouns and of all words derived from pronouns, as det that; de the; deslic like this, danonne thence, dérdér there.
- a. Also often between two vowels, as badu baths, badian to bathe, cladum with clothes.

These Rules are in perfect accordance with those given in our best works on orthoepy.

In the printing department, we have had the most willing assistance and co-operation from all engaged in the work at the University Press, to whom our thanks are due.

To the Master of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, Dr. Pulling, to the Rev. Henry Octavius Coxe, M. A., Librarian, and to the Assistant-Librarians of the Bodleian, Oxford, I am greatly indebted, for the most ready and friendly assistance, in the consultation and use of MSS. under their care. Though I had carefully collated the whole of the Bene't, or Corpus MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels, with my own copy, in 1832, and examined it again in 1841, I have frequently had to consult it since 1850. While the stringent regulations, made by Archbishop Parker, for the preservation of the MSS. and printed books left to Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, have been observed, the Master, Dr. Pulling, and the Fellows of the College, have had the happy art of giving every facility, in so friendly a manner as to avoid the least appearance of conferring a favour. The same may be said of Dr. Guest, Master of Caius College, who has most kindly removed doubts by consulting the MS. My best and most willing acknowledgments are due to the Rev. J. E. B. Mayor, M.A., Librarian of the University of Cambridge, and to Henry Bradshaw, Esq., M.A., Fellow of King's College, for their ready assistance in procuring a Grace of the Senate to take out of the Library one of their treasures, the MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels. I have, therefore, had the great advantage of the unrestrained possession and use of this MS. for reference, during the time the Anglo-Saxon text has been passing through the Oxford University Press.

* Most of the Gothic letters have the same sound as their English representatives; but, as in Greek so in Gothic, g has always a hard sound, as in give; and g before another g, or before k, has the sound of n: thus, Lk. i. II, aggilus, an angel, is pronounced angilus, as the Grk. angel. Lk. v. 21, bagkyan, to think, is pronounced thankyan.

⁸ Is represented by our q sounded as kw, thus qens a wife, Lk. i. 18, is pronounced kweens.

As ya yea, yuk a yoke.

As oy between two consonants.
The hard cb as the Grk. χ.

⁸ As in wheila wbile, whan wben; hw could not be used, as hw occur as separate letters in hwssopo, pronounced boyssopo, Skeir. p. 179.

'Ιλ=11: Κλ=21: ΝΓ= 53: ΚΠh=188: Էλζ=537.

b D, d, b have the sound of ib in ibine

k p, b have the sound of th in thin and sooth. See p. xxxii.

Note—The accent, in Anglo-Saxon, indicates the long vowels [see notes b-s and p. xxx] and must not be confounded with syllabic emphasis, or the stress of the voice, which falls upon the chief syllable in a word. This emphasis, in Gothic and Anglo-Saxon, is always upon the first rate syllable of a word, and never upon prefixes, such as a, be, ge, etc.

- CHAP. II. I WHEN Jesus was borne in Bethleem a toune of Jury, in the tyme of king Herode, beholde! there cam wyse men from the est to Jerusalem,
- 2 Saynge, Where is he, that is borne kynge of the Jues? we have sene his starre in the est, and are come to worship hym.
- 3 Herode the kynge after he hadd herde thys was troubled, and all Jerusalem with hym.
- 4 And he sent for all the chefe prestes, and scribes off the people, and demaunded off them, where Christ shulde be borne.
- 5 They sayde vnto hym, In Bethleem a toune of Jury; for thus it is written be the prophet,
- 6 And thou, Bethleem, in the londe of Jury, shalt not be the leest as perteyninge to the princes of Juda; for out of the shal come a captaine, whych shall govern my people Israhel.

7 Then Herod prevely called the wyse men, and dyligently enquyred of them the tyme of the starre that appered.

- 8 And sent them to Bethleem, saynge, When ye be come thyder, searche dyligentily for the childe, and when ye have founde hym, bringe me worde, that Y maye come and worshippe hym also.
- 9 When they had herde the kynge, they departed. And lo! the starre, whych they sawe in the este, went before them, vntyll it cam and stod over the place, where the chylde was.
- 10 When they sawe the starre, they were marveylously gladd.
- 11 And entred into the house, and founde the childe with Mary, hys mother; and kneled doune and worshipped hym. And opened there treaseures, and offred unto him gyftes, gold, franckynsence, and myr.
- 12 And after they were warned in ther slepe, that they shulde not go ageyne to Herod, they retourned into ther awne countre another way.

19 Sothely Erode dead, loo! the angel of the Lord apeeride in sleep to Joseph in Egipt, 20 Sayinge, Ryse vp, and take the childe and his modir, and go in to the lond of Yrael; for thei that souzten the lijf of the chyld ben dead.

21 The whiche Joseph, rysynge vp, toke the child and his modir, and cam in to the lond of Yrael.

- 22 Forsothe he heerynge that Archelaus regnede in Jude for Eroude, his fadir, dred for to go thidir. And he, monestid in sleep, wente in to the parties of Galilee;
- 23 And he cummynge dwelte in a citee, that is clepid Nazareth, that it shulde be fulfillid, that thing that is said by prophetis, For whi he shal be clepid of Nazareth.

the angell of the Lorde apered to Joseph in his slepe, saynge, Aryse, and take the childe and his mother, and flye in to Egipte, and abyde there, tyll Y bringe the worde; for Herod wyll seke the chylde, to destroye hym.

14 Then he arose, and toke the chylde and his mother by night, and departed in to Egipte,

15 And was there vnto the deeth of Herod; to fulfill that which was spoken of the Lorde by the prophet, which sayeth, Out of Egipte have Y called my sonne.

16 Then Herod perceavynge that he was moocked off the wyse men, was exceedynge wroth; and sent forth and slue all the chyldren, that were in Bethleem, and in all the costes there of, as many as were two yere old and vnder, accordynge to the tyme which he had diligently searched oute of the wyse men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken be the prophet, Jeremi, saynge, 18 On the hilles was a voyce herde, mournynge wepynge and greate lamentacion, Rachel wepynge ffor her chyldren, and wolde nott be comforted, because they were not.

19 When Herod was deed, lo! an angell off the Lorde apered vnto Joseph in

Egipte,

20 Saynge, Arise, and take the chylde and his mother, and go in to the londe of Israhel; for they are deed which sought the chyldes deeth.

21 Then he arose vp, and toke the chylde and his mother, and cam into the londe of Israhel.

22 But when he herde that Archelaus did raygne in Jury in the roume off hys father, Herode, he was afrayde to goo thether. Notwithstondynge, after he was warned in his slepe, he tourned a syde into the parties off Galile;

23 And went and dwelt in a cite called Nazareth, to ffulfill that which was spoken be the prophetes, He shalbe called hym.

14 Soothly Joon forbeed hym, sayinge,

- CHAP. III. I In those dayes Jhon the Baptiser cam, and preached in the wildernes off Jury,
- 2 Saynge, Repent, the kyngdome of heven is at honde.
- 3 This is he, of whom it is spoken be the prophet, Esay, which sayeth, The voyce off a cryer in wyldernes, Prepare the Lordes way; and make hys pathes strayght.

4 This Jhon had hys garment off camels heer, and a gerdell off a skynne aboute his loynes; hys meate was locustes, and wylde hony.

5 Then went oute to hym Jerusalem, and all Jury, and all the region rounde aboute Jordan;

6 And were baptised of hym in Jordan, knoledging their synnes.

7 When he sawe many off the Pharises and off the Saduces come to hys baptism, he sayde vnto them, O generacion of vipers, who hath taught you to fle from the vengeaunce to come?

8 Brynge forth therefore the frutes belongynge to repentaunce.

9 And se that ye ons thinke not to saye in yourselves, We have Abraham to oure father; for I say vnto you, that God is able off these stones to rayse vp chyldren vnto Abraham.

10 Even nowe is the ax put vnto the rote of the trees; soo that every tree which bringeth not fforthe goode frute, shalbe hewne doune, and cast into the fyre.

- 11 I baptise you in water, in token of repentaunce; but he that cometh after me is myghtier then I, whose shues I am not worthy to beare; he shall baptise you with the Holy Gost and with fyre.
- 12 Which hath also his fan in his hond, and will pourge his floore, and gadre the wheet into his garner; and will burne the chaffe with everlastynge

- 9 Blessid be pesible men, for thei shuln be clepid the sonys of God.
- 10 Blessid be thei that suffren persecucioun for riztwisnesse, for the kyngdam of heuenes is herun.
- t i 3ee shulen be blessid, when men shulen curse 3ou, and shulen pursue 3ou, and shulen say al yuel azeins 3ou leezing, for me.
- 12 Ioye 3ee with yn forth, and glade 3ee with out forth, for 3oure meede is plenteuouse in heuenes; forsothe so thei han pursued and prophetis that weren before 3ou.
- 13 3ee ben salt of the erthe; that 3if the salt shal vanyshe awey, wherynne shal it be saltid? To no thing it is vnto hym all sicke people, that were taken with divers diseases and gripinges, and them that were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatyke, and those that had the palscy, and he healed them.

25 And there followed hym a greate nombre off people from Galile, and from the ten cites, and from Jerusalem, and from Jury, and from the regions that lye beyonde Jordan.

- CHAP. V. I When he sawe the people, he went vp into a mountayne; and when he was set, his disciples cam vnto hym.
- 2 And he openned his mought, and taught them, saynge,

3 Blessed are the poore in sprete, for theirs is the kyngdome off heven.

- 4 Blessed are they that morne, for they shalbe comforted.
- 5 Blessed are the meke, for they shall inheret the erth.
- 6 Blessed are they which honger and thurst for rightewesnes, for they shalbe filled.
- 7 Blessed are the mercifull, for they shall obteyne mercy.
- 8 Blessed are the pure in herte, for they shall se God.
- 9 Blessed are the maynteyners of peace, for they shalbe called the chyldren of God
- 10 Blessed are they which suffre persecucion for rightewesnes sake, for theirs ys the kyngdome off heven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revyle you, and persecute you, and shall falsly say all manner of yvell saynges agaynst you, ffor my sake.

12 Reioyce, and be glad, for greate is youre rewarde in heven; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before youre dayes.

13 Ye are the salt of the erthe; but and if the salt be once vnsavery, what can be salted ther with? It is thence-

- 40 And yff eny man will sue the at the lawe, and take thy coote from the, lett hym have thy cloocke also;
- 41 And whosoever wyll compell the to goo a myle, goo wyth him twayne.
- 42 Geve to him that axeth, and from him that wolde borowe tourne not awaye.
- 43 Ye have herde howe it is sayde, Thou shalt love thyne neghbour, and hate thine enemy.
- 44 But Y saye vnto you, love youre enemies, blesse them that course you, do good to them that hate you, praye ffor them which doo you wronge, and persecute you;
- 45 That ye maye be the chyldren of youre hevenly father, ffor he maketh his sunne to aryse on the yvell and on the good, and sendeth his reyne on the iuste and on the iniuste.
- 46 For yf ye shall love them which love you, what rewarde shall ye have? doo not the publicans even so?
- 47 And if ye be frendly to youre brethren onli, what singuler thynge doo ye? doo nott the publicans lykewyse?
- 48 Ye shall therfore be perfecte, even as youre hevenly father is perfecte.

- 18 That thou be nat seen fastynge to men, but to thi fadir that is in hidlis, and thi fadir that seeth in hidlis, shal zeelde to thee.
- 19 Nyle 3e tresoure to 3ou tresours in erthe, wher rust and mousthe distruyeth, and wher theeues deluen out and stelen;
- 20 But tresoure 3ee to 3ou tresouris in heuene, wher neither rust ne mou3the distruyeth, and wher theues deluen nat out, ne stelen.
- 21 Forsothe wher thi tresour is, there and thin herte is.
- 22 The lanterne of thi body is thin e3e; 3if thin ei3e be symple, al thi body shal be li3tful;
- 23 Bot 3if thyn eize be weyward, al thi body shal be derkful. Therfore 3if the list that is in thee be derknessis, how grete shulen thilk derknessis be?
- 24 No man may serue to two lordis, forsothe ethir he shal haat the toon, and loue the tother; other he shal susteyn the toon, and dispise the tothir. 3e mown nat serue to God and richessis.
- 25 Therfore Y say to 30u, that 3e ben nat besie to 30ure lijf, what 3e shulen ete; othir to 30ure body, with what 3e shuln be clothid. Wher 30ure lijf is nat more than mete, and the body more than clothe?

- 18 That it appeare nott vnto men howe that thou fastest, but vnto thy father which is in secrete, and thy father which seith in secret, shall rewarde the openly.
- 19 Gaddre not treasure together on erth, where rust and mothes corrupte, and where theves breake through and steale:
- 20 But gaddre ye treasure togedder in heven, where nether rust nor mothes corrupte, and wher theves nether breake vp, nor yet steale.
- 21 For whearesoever youre treasure ys, there are youre hertes also.
- 22 The light off thy body is thyne eye; wherfore if thyne eye be single, all thy body vs full of light;
- 23 But and if thyne eye be wycked, then is all thy body full of dercknes. Wherefore yf the light that is in the be dercknes, howe greate ys that dercknes?
- 24 No man can serve two masters, for other he shall hate the one, and love the other; or els he shall lene the one, and despise the other. Ye can nott serve God and mammon.
- 25 Therefore I saye vnto you, be not carefull for youre lyfe, what ye shall eate, or what ye shall dryncke; nor yet for youre boddy, what rayment ye shall weare. Ys not the lyfe more worth then meate, and the boddy more off value then rayment?
- 26 Beholde the foules of the aier, for they sowe not, neder reepe, nor yet cary into the barnes; and yett youre hevenly father fedeth them. Are ye not better then they?
- 27 Whiche off you though he toke tought therefore coulde put one cubit vnto his stature?
- 28 And why care ye then for rayment? Beholds the lyles off the felde, howe thy grows. They labour not, nether spynn;
- 29 And yet for all that I saie vnto you, that even Solomon in all his royalte was nott arayed lyke vnto one of these.

- 17 Even soo evry good tree bryngethe forthe good frute; butt a corrupte tree bryngethe forthe evyll frute.

18 A good tree cannott brynge forthe bad frute, nor yett a bad tree can brynge forthe good frute.

- 19 Every tree that bryngethe not forthe good frute, shalbe hewne doune, and cast into the fyre.
- 20 Wherfore by there frutes ye shall knowe them.
- 21 Not all they thatt say vnto me, Master, Master, shall enter into the kyngdome off heven; but he that fulfilleth my fathers will which ys in heven.

24 Therfore eche man that herith these my wordis, and doth hem, shal be mand liche to a wijse man, that hath bildid his hous vpon a stoon.

25 And rayn came doun, and flodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and rusheden in to that hous; and it felle nat doun, for it was founded on a stoon.

26 And every man that herith these my wordis, and doth hem nat, is liche to a man fool, that hath bildid his hous on gravel.[†]

27 And rayn came doun, and floodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and thei hurliden in to that hous; and it felle doun, and the fallyng doun therof was grete.

28 And it is maad, when Jhesus hadde eendid these wordis, the cumpanyes wondreden on his techyng;

29 Sothely he was techynge hem, as a man hauynge power, and nat as the scribis of hem, and Pharisees.

CHAP. VIII. I Forsothe when Jhesus hadde comen down fro the hil, many cumpanyes folewiden hym.

2 And loo! a leprouse man cummynge worshipide hym, sayinge, Lord, 3if thou wolt, thou maist make me clene.

3 And Jhesus, holdynge forthe the hond, touchide hym, sayinge, I wole, be thou mand clene. And anoon the lepre of hym was clensid.

4 And Jhesus saith to hym, See, say thou to no man; but go, shewe thee to prestis, and offre that gifte that Moyses commandide, in to witnessing to hem.

5 Sothely when he hadde entride in to Capharnaum, centurio neiside to hym, preyinge hym,

6 And saide, Lord, my child lyeth in the hous sike on the palsie, and is yuel tourmentid. 23 And then will I knowlege vnto them, That I never knewe them; depart from me, ye workers of iniquite.

24 Whosoever hearethe off me these saynges, and doethe the same, I wyll lyken hyme vnto a wyseman, which byllt his housse on a rocke.

25 And aboundance off rayne descended, and the fluddes cam, and the wynddes blewe, and bett vppon that same housse; and it was not over throwen, because it was grounded on the rocke.

26 And whosoever heareth of me these sainges, and doth not the same, shalbe lykened vnto a folysh man, which bilt his housse apon the sonde.

27 Andabundaunce of rayne descended, and the fluddes cam, and the wynddes blewe, and beet vppon that housse; and it was over throwen, and great was the fall off it.

28 And it cam to passe, that when Jesus had ended these saynges, the peple were astonnied at his doctryne;

29 For he taught them, as one havynge power, and not as the scribes.

CHAP. VIII. I When Jesus was come downe from the mountayne, moch people followed him.

- 2 And lo! there cam a lepre and worsheped him, saynge, Master, if thou wylt, thou canst make me clene.
- 3 He putt forthe his hond, and touched him, saynge, I wyll, be clene. And immediatly his leprosy was clensed.
- 4 And Jesus said vnto him, Se, thou tell no man; but go, and shewe thysilf to the preste, and offer the gyfte that Moses commaunded to be offred, in witnes to them.

5 When Jesus was entred in to Capernaum, there cam vnto him a certayne Centurion, besechyng him,

6 And saynge, Master, my servaunt lyeth sicke att home off the palsye, and is grevously payned.

- 9 For whi and I am a man ordeynd vnder power, hauynge vndir me kni3tis; and I say to this, Go, and he goth; and to an other, Come thou, and he cometh; and to my seruaunt, Do thou this thing, and he doth.
- 10 Sothely Jhesus, heerynge these thingis, wondride, and saide to men suynge hym, Trewly I saye to 30u, I fonde nat so grete feith in Yrael.
- 11 Sothely Y say to 30u, that manye shulen come fro the est and west, and shulen rest with Abraham and Ysaac and Jacob in the kyngdam of heuenes;
- 12 Forsothe the sonys of the rewme shulen be cast out in to vttremest derknessis; there shal be weepynge, and beetynge togidre of teeth.
- 13 And Jhesus saide to centurio, Go, and as thou hast bileeued, be it don to thee. And the child was helid fro that houre.
- 14 And when Jhesus hadde comen in to the hous of Symond Petre, he say his wyues moder liggynge, and shakun with feueris.
- 15 And he touchide hir hond, and the feuer lefte hir; and she roose, and seruyde hem.
- 16 Sothely whan the euenyng was mand, thei brouzte to hym many hauynge deuelys, and he castide out spiritis by word, and helide alle hauynge yuel;

- 18 Sothely Jhesus seeynge many cumpanyes about hym, bad his disciplis go ouer the water.
- 19 And oo scribe† commynge to, saide to hym, Maistre, I shal sue thee, whidir euer thou shalt go.

- 7 And Jesus sayd vnto him, I wyll come, and cure him.
- 8 The Centurion answered and saide, Syr, I am not worthy, that thou shuldest com vnder the rofe of my housse; but speake the worde only, and my servaunt shalbe healed.
- 9 For Y also my selfe am a man vndre power, and have sowdeeres vndre me; and Y saye to one, Go, and he goeth; and to anothre, Come, and he cometh; and to my servaunt, Do this, and he doeth it.
- 10 When Jesus herde these saynges, he marveyled, and said to them that followed him, Verely Y say vnto you, I have not founde so great fayth, no, not in Israell.
- 11 I say therfore vnto you, that many shall come from the eest and weest, and shall rest with Abraham Ysaac and Jacob in the kyngdom of heven;
- 12 And the children of the kingdom shalbe cast out in to the vtmoost dercknes; there shalbe wepinge, and gnasshing of tethe.
- 13 Then Jesus said vnto the Centurion, Go thy waye, and as thou hast beleued, so be it vnto the. And his servaunt was healed that same houre.
- 14 And Jesus went into Peters housse, and sawe his wyves mother lyinge sicke of a fevre.
- 15 And he thouched her hande, and the fevre leeft her; and she arose, and ministred vnto them.
- 16 When the even was come, they brought vnto him many that were possessed with devylles, and he cast out the spirites with a worde, and healed all that were sicke:
- 17 To fulfill that whiche was spoken by Esay, the prophet, sainge, He toke on him oure infirmytes, and bare oure sicknesses.
- 18 When Jesus saw moche people about him, he commaunded to go over the water.
- 19 And there cam a scribe, and said vnto him, Master, I woll followe the, whythersumever thou goest.

- 2 And lo! they brought vnto him a man sicke off the palsey, lyinge in his bed. And when Jesus sawe there faith, he said to the secke off the palsey, Sonne, be off good chere; thy sinnes are foryeven the.
- 3 And lo! certeyne of the scribes said in them selves, He blasphemeth.
- 4 And when Jesus sawe there thoughtes, he said, Wherfore thinke ye evyll in your herttes?
- 5 Whether ys esyer to saye, Thi sinnes ar foryeven the, or to saye, Arise, and walke?
- 6 That ye may knowe, that the sonne of man hathe power to foryeve synnes in erth, then sayd he vnto the sicke of the palsey, Aryse; take vppe thi beed, and go home to thyne housse.
- 7 And he arose, and departed to his housse.
- 8 The people that sawe it marveylled, and glorified God, which had geven suche power to men.
- 9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he sawe a man sytt at the receyte off custume, named Matheu. And said to him, Folowe me. And he arose, and folowed him.

- 8 Oder what went ye out for to se went ye to se a man clothed in soofte rayment? Beholde! they that weare soofte clothing are in kynges howses.
- 9 Butt what went ye oute for to se? went ye outt to se a prophet? Ye, I saye vnto you, and more then a prophet.

To For this is he, off whom it is wrytten, Beholde! I sende my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy waye before the.

11 Verely Y saye vnto you, amonge the chyldren off women arose there not a gretter then Jhon Baptist; not with stondinge he that ys lesse in the kyngdom off heven, ys gretter then he.

12 From the tyme off Jhon Baptist hytherto the kyngdom of heven suffreth violence, and they that make vyolence pull it vnto them.

13 For all the prophetes and the lawe prophesyed vnto to tyme of Jhon;

14 Also yf ye wyll receave it, thys ys Helyas which shuld come.

24 Netheles Y saye to 30u, for to the lond of Sodom it shal be softer in the day of dome, than to thee.

25 In the ilk tyme Jhesus answerynge saide, I knowleche to thee, fadir, lord of heuen and erthe, for thoù hast hid these thingis fro wijse men and ware,† and hast shewid hem to litil men;

26 So, fadir, for whi so it was plesynge tofore thee.

- 27 Alle thingis ben taken to me of my fadir; and no man knewe the sone, no but the fadir, neither eny man knewe the fadir, no but the sone, and to whom the sone wolde shewe.
- 28 Alle 3e that traueilen, and ben chargid, come to me, and I shal refreshe[†] 3ou.

16 But wheare vnto shall Y lyken this generacion? It ys lyke vnto chyldren which syt in the markett, and call vnto there felowes, and saye,

17 We have pyped vnto you, and ye have not daunsed; we have morned vnto you, and ye have not sorowd.

18 For Jhon cam nether eatynge nor drinkinge, and they saye, He hath the devyll.

- 19 The sonne of man cam eatynge and drinkynge, and they saye, Beholde! a glutton, and a drynker of wyne, and a frend vnto publicans and synners. And wysdome ys iustified off her chyldren.
- 20 Then began he to vpbraid the cites, in which most of his miracles were don, because they did not repent.
- 21 Wo be to the! Chorasin, wo be to the! Betzaida; for if the miracles which wer shewd in you had bene done in Tiyre and Sidon, they had repented longe agon in sack cloth and asshes.

22 Neverthelesse Y say to you, it shall be esier for Tyre and Sidon at the day of iudgment, then for you.

- 23 And thou, Capernaum, which art lift vp vnto heven, shalt be thrust doune to hell. Ffor if the miracles which have bene done in the, had bene shewed in Zodom, they had remayned to this daye.
- 24 Neverthelesse I say vnto you, it shall be easiar for Zodom in the day of iudgement, then for the.
- '25 Then Jesus answered and sayd, I prayse the, o father, lorde of heven and erth, because thou hast hid these thynges from the wyse and prudent, and hast opened them vnto babes;

26 Even so, father, for so it pleased the.

27 All thynges are geven vnto me of my father; and no man knoweth the sonne, but the father, nether knoweth eny man the father, save the sonne, and he to whome the sonne will open hym.

28 Come vnto me, all ye that labour, and ar laden, and Y will ese you.

CHAP. XII. I In that tyme went Jesus on the sabot day thorow the corn; and his disciples wer anhongred, and began to plucke the eares off coorne, and to eate.

2 When the Pharises had sene that, they sayde vnto him, Behold! thy disciples do that which is not lawfull to do apon the saboth day.

3 He sayde vnto them, Have ye nott reed, whatt David did, when he was anhoungered, and they alsoo which were with hym?

4 Howe he entred into the house of God, and ate the halowed loves, whiche wernot lawfull ffor hym to eate, nether ffor them which were with hym, but only for the prestes?

5 Or have ye not reed in the lawe, howe that the prestes in the temple breake the saboth daye, and yet are blamlesse?

6 But I saye vnto you, that here is one greater then the temple.

- 7 Wherfore if ye had wist, what this saynge meneth, I requyre mercy, and not sacrifice, ye wold never have condemned inocentes.
- 8 For the sonne off man is lord even off the saboth daye.

9 And he departed thence, and went into their sinagogge.

ro And beholde! there was a man whiche had his hande dryed vp. And they axed hym, saynge, Ys yt lawfull to heale apon the saboth daye? because they myght acuse him.

rr And he sayde vnto them, Whyche ys he a monge you, iff he had a shepe, fallen into a pitt on the saboth daye, that wolde not take hym, and lyft hym out?

12 And howe moche ys a man better

- 13 Thanne he seide to the man, Streeche forth thin hond. And he streizte forth; and it is restorid to helthe as the tother.
- 14 Forsothe Pharisees goynge out, maden a counsel ageins hym, hou thei shulden leese hym.
- 15 Sothely Jhesus witynge, wente awey thennes; and many sueden hym, and he helide hem alle.
- 16 And he comaundide to hem, that thei shulden nat make hym opyn;
- 17 That that thing shulde be fulfilled, that was said by Ysay, the prophete, seyinge,

- 18 Loo! my chosen child, whom I have chosen, my derlyng, in whom it hath wel plesid to my soule; I shal putte my spirit on hym, and he shal telle dome to heithen men.
- 19 He shal nat stryue, ne crye, nether eny man shal here his voice in stretis.
- 20 He shal nat breke to gidre a schaken reed, and he shal nat quenche smokynge flax, til that he cast out dome to victorie;
- 21 And hethen men shulen hope in his name.
- 22 Thanne a blynd man and doumb, hauynge a deuel, was offrid vp to hym; and he helide hym, so that he spac, and say.
- 23 And alle the cumpanyes wondreden, and saiden, Wher this be the sone of Dauith?
- 24 But the Pharisees, herynge, seiden, He this castith not out feendis, no but in Belzabub, prince of fendis.
- 25 Sothely Jhesus, witynge her thoustis, seide to hem, Eche kyngdam departid ageins hym self, shal be desolat, and eche citee, or hous, departid ageins it self, shal nat stonde.
- 26 And 3if Sathanas castith out Sathanas, he is departid azeins hym self; therfore hou shal his kyngdam stonde?
 - 27 And 3if I in Belzabub cast out then a shepe? Wherfore it ys lefull to do a good dede on the saboth daye.

- 13 Then sayde he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forthe; and yt was agayne made even as whole as the other.
- 14 Then the Faryses went forthe, and toke counsell agaynst hym, howe they myght destroye hym.
- 15 When Jesus knewe that, he departed thence; and moche people followed him, and he healed them all.
- 16 And charged them, that they shulde not make him knowne;
- 17 To fulfyll that which was spoken by Esay, the prophet, which sayeth,
- 18 Beholde! my sonne, whom I have chosen, my derlinge, in whom my soule hath had delite; I wyll put my sprete on him, and he shall shewe iudgement to te gentyls.
- 19 He shall not stryve, he shall not crye, nether shall eny man heare hys voyce in te streetes.
- 20 A brosed rede shall he not breacke, and flaxe that begynneth to burne he shall not quenche, tyll he sende forth iudgement vnto victory;
- 21 And in hys name shall the gentyls truste.
- 22 Then was brought to hym, won possessed with a devyll, whych was both blynde and domne; and he healed him, insomuch that he which was blynd and domne both spake, and sawe.
- 23 And all the people were amased, and sayde, Ys not this the sonne of David?
- 24 When the Pharises herde that, they sayde, He dryveth the devyls no nother wise oute, but by the helppe off Belsebub, the chefe of the devylls.
- 25 But Jesus knewe their thoughtes, and sayde to them, Every kyngdom devided with in it sylfe, shalbe desolate, nether shall eny cite, or housholde, devyded ayenst it sylfe, contynue.
- 26 So if Satan cast out Satan, then ys he devyded ayenst him sylfe; howe shall then hys kyngdom endure?

- 32 And who euere shal seie a word ageins mannys sone, it shal be forgouen to hym; forsothe he that shall seye a word ageins the Holy Goost, it shal nat be forgouen to hym, nether in this world, ne in the tother.
- 33 Ether make 3e the tree good, and his fruyt good; ether make 3e the tree yuel, and his fruyt euyl; forsothe a tree is knowen of the fruyt.

35 A good man brengith forth good thingis of good tresoure, and an yuel man bryngith forth yuel thingis of yuel tresour.

36 Forsothe Y seie to 30u, for whi of euery ydel word that men speken, thei shul 3elde resoun therof in the day of dome;

37 For of thi wordis thou shalt be instified, and of thi wordis thou shalt be dampnyd.

- 38 Thanne sume of the scribes and Pharisees answereden to hym, seyinge, Maistre, we wolden se a tokne of thee.
- 39 The whiche answerynge seith to hem, An iuel generacioun and auoutrere sekith a tokne, and tokne shal nat be bub cast out devyls, by whose helppe do youre children cast them out? Therfore thei shalbe youre iudges.

28 But if I cast out the devyls by the Sprete of God, then ys the kyngdom of God come on you.

- 29 Other howe can a man enter into a mighty mannes housse, and violently take awaye his godes, excepte he fyrst bynde the stronge man, and then spoyle hys housse?
- 30 He thatt ys not with me, ys agaynst me; and he that gaddereth not with me, scattereth abrode.
- 31 Wherfore I say vnto you, all maner off synne and blasphemy shalbe forgeven vnto men, but the blasphemy against the Holy Goost shall not be forgeven vnto men.
- 32 And whosoever speaketh a worde agaynst the sonne off man, it shalbe forgeven him; but whosoever speaketh agaynst the Holy Goost, yt shall not be fforgeven hym, no, nether in this worlde, nether in the worlde to come.
- 33 Other make the tree good, and his frute good also; or els make the tree evyll, and his frute evyll also; for the tree ys knowen by hys frute.

34 O generacion of vipers, howe can ye saye well, when ye youre selves are evyll? For of the aboundance of the hert the mouthe speaketh.

35 A good man oute of the good treasure of hys hert bryngeth forth good thynges, and an evyll man out off his thinges.

36 But I say vnto you, that of every ydell worde that men shall have spoken, they shall geve a countes at the daye off iudgement;

evyll treasure bryngeth forthe evyll

37 For by thy wordes thou shalt be iustifyed, and by thy wordes thou shalt be condemned.

- 38 Then answered certayne off the scribes and off the Pharises, saynge, Master, we wolde fayne se a sygne of the.

CHAP. XIII. I In that day Jhesus goynge out of the hous, sat besidis the see.

2 And manye cumpanyes of peple ben gedrid to hym, so that he steyinge vp in to a boot sat; and al the cumpanye stode in the brynke.

3 And he spak to hem many thingis in parablis, seiynge, Loo! he that sowith, goth out to sowe his seed.

- 4 And the while he soweth, sum felden byside the weye, and briddis of the eyre camen, and eeten hem.
- 5 Sothely other seedis felden into stoony placis, wher thei hadden nat moche erthe; and anoon thei ben sprungen vp, for thei hadde nat depnesse of erthe.
- 6 Sothely the sunne sprung vp, thei swaliden, and for thei hadden nat roote, thei drieden vp.
- 7 Forsothe other seedis felden amonge thornis; and the thornis wexen vp, and strangliden hem.

- 9 He that hath eris of heerynge, heere he.
- to And disciplis cummynge to seiden to hym, Whi spekist thou in parablis to hem?
- 11 The whiche answerynge seith to hem, For to 30u it is 30uen for to knowe the mysterie[†] of the kyngdam of heuenes; but it is nat 30uen to hem.
- 12 For it shal be 30uen to hym that hath, and he shal have plentee; trewly who that hath nat, that thing that he is seen to haue shal be taken awey fro hym.
- I. Therfore I speke to hem in parablis, for thei seeynge see nat, and thei heer-ynge heeren nat, nether vndirstonden;
- 14 That the prophecie of Ysay seiynge be fulfillid in hem, With heerynge 36 shulen heere, and 3ee shulen nat vnderstonde; and 3ee seeynge shulen see, and 3ee shulen nat see;
- 15 For the herte of this peple is enfattid, and thei herden greuously with

CHAP. XIII. I The same days went Jesus out off the house, and sat by the see syde.

- 2 And moch people resorted vnto him, so gretly that he went and sat in a shyppe; and all the people stode on the shoore.
- 3 And he spake many thynges to them in similitudes, sayinge, Beholde! the sower wentt forth to sowe.
- 4 And as he sowed, some fell by the wayes syde, and the fowlles cam, and devoured it vppe.
- 5 Some fell apon stony grounde, where it had not moche erth; and a non it spronge vppe, because it had no depht off erth.
- 6 And when the sun was vppe, hitt cauth heet, and for lake off rotynge, wyddred awaye.
- 7 Some fell amonge thornes; and the thornes arose, and chooked it.
- 8 Parte fell in goode grunde, and broght forth good frute; some an hundred fold, some fifty fold, some thyrty folde.
- 9 Whosoever hath eares to heare, let him heare.
- ro And hys disciples cam and sayde to him, Why speakest thou to them in parables?
- 11 He answered and sayde vnto them, Hit is geven vnto you to knowe the secrettes off the kyngdom of heven; but to them it is not geven.
- 12 For whosumever hath to him shall hit be geven, and he shall have aboundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shalbe takyn awaye even that same that he hath.
- 13 Therfore speake Y to them in similitudes, for though they se, they se not, and hearinge they heare not, nether vnderstonde;
- 14 And in them ys fulfylled the prophesy of Esay which prophesi sayth, With youre eares ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstonde; and with youre eyes ye shall se, and shall not perceave;

- 16 Forsothe zoure eezen that seen ben blessid, and zoure eris that heeren.
- 17 Forsothe I saye trewthe to 30u, for many prophetis and iuste men coueitiden to see thoo thingus that 3ee seen, and thei saien nat, and to heeren thoo thingis that 3ee heeren, and thei herden nat.
- 18 Therfore heere 3e the parable of the sowynge man.
- 19 Eche that heerith the word of rewme, and vndirstondith nat, the yuel spirit cometh, and rauyschith that that is sowyn in his herte; this is that is sowen besidis the weye.
- 20 Sothely he that is sowen on the stoon, this it is, that heerith the word of God, and anoon with ioye takith it.
- 21 Forsothe he hath nat roote in hym self, but it is temporal. Forsothe tribulacioun and persecucioune mand for the word, anoon he is sclaundrid.
- 22 Bot he that is sowen in thornys, is this that herith the word, and the bysynesse of this world, and the falsnessis of ritchessis stranglith the word, and it is mad with outen fruyt.
- 23 Bot he that is sowen in to good lond, is this that herith the word, and vndirstondith, and bryngthe forth fruyt. And sothely sume makith an hundrefold, treuly another sixtyfold, forsothe another thrittifold.
- 24 Another parable Jhesus putte forth to hem, seyinge, The kyngdam of heuenes is maad liche to a man, that sew good seed in his feeld.
- 25 But, when men slepten, his enmye came, and sew aboue dernel[†] in the midil of whete, and wente awey.
 - 26 Sothely when the herbe hadde herynge, and their eyes have they closed, lest they shulde se with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and shuld vnderstonde with their hertes, and shulde tourne, that Y myght heale them.

- 16 But blessed are youre eyes for they se, and youre eares for they heare.
- 17 Verely Y say vnto you, that many prophetes and perfaicte men have desired to se tho thinges which ye se, and have not sene them, and to heare tho thinges which ye heare, and have not herde them.
- 18 Heare ye therfore the similitude off the sower.
- 19 When a man heareth the worde of the kingdom, and vnderstondeth it not, there cometh the evyll man, and catcheth awaye that which was sowne in hys hert; and thys is he which was sowne by the waye syde.

20 But he that was sowne in the stony grunde, ys he, which heareth the worde of God, and anon with ioye receaveth itt.

- 21 Yet hath he no rottes in him selfe, and therefore he dureth but a season. For as sone as tribulation or persecucion aryseth because of the worde, by and by he falleth.
- 22 He that was sowne amonge thornes, ys he that heareth the worde off God, but the care off this worlde, and the dissaytfulnes off ryches choke the worde, and so ys he made vnfrutfull.
- 23 He which is sowne in the good grounde, ys he that heareth the worde, and vnderstondeth it, which also bereth frute. And bringeth forth, some an hundred folde, some fyfty folde, and some thyrty folde.

24 Another similitude put he forth vnto them, saynge, The kyngdom off heven ys lyke vnto a man, which sowed good seede in his felde.

25 Butt, whyll men shlepte, ther cam his foo, and sowed tares amonge the wheate, and went his waye.

27 Forsothe the seruauntis of the husbondeman comynge ni3, seiden to hym, Lord, wher thou hast nat sowen good seed in thi feeld? wher of than hath it dernel?

28 And he seith to hem, The man enmye hath don this thing. Trewly the seruauntis seiden to him, Wolt thou we go, and gedren hem?

29 And he saith, Nay, lest perauenture 3e gedrynge dernels that vp by the roote togidre with hem and the whete.

30 Suffre 3e hem bothe wexe til to rype corne; and in tyme of rype corn I shal seie to reperis, First gedre 3ee to gedre dernels,† and byndeth hem to gidre in knytchis† for to be brent, but gedere 3e whete in to my berne.

31 An other parable Jhesus putte forth to hem, seiynge, The kyngdam of heuenes is like to a corn of seneuey, the whiche a man takynge sewe in his feeld.

- 32 The whiche trewly is feest of alle seedis, but when it hath wexen, it is most of alle wortis, and is maad a tree; so that briddis of the eyre cummen, and dwellen in bowis[†] therof.
- 33 An other parable Jhesus spac to hem, The kyngdam of heuenes is lic to soure dows, the whiche taken, a womman hidde in three mesuris of meele, til it were al sowrdowid.
- 34 Jhesus spac alle these thingis in parablis to the cumpanyes of peple, and he spac nat to hem with outen parablis,
- 35 That it shulde be fulfillid, that thing that is seid by the prophete, seyinge, I shal opyn my mouth in parablis; I shal bolke out[†] hid thingus fro makyng of the world.
- 36 Thanne the cumpanyes laft, he came into an hous; and his disciplis camen ni3 to hym, seiynge, Expoune to vs the parable of dernelis† of the feeld.

had brought forth frute, then appered the tares also.

27 The servauntes cam to the householder, and sayde vnto him, Syr, sowedest not thou good seed in thy closse? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He sayde to them, The envious man hath done this. Then the servauntes sayde vnto hym, Wylt thou then that we go, and gader it?

29 And he sayde, Nay, lest whyll ye go aboute to wede out the tares ye plucke vppe also with them the wheate by the rottes.

30 Let bothe growe to gether tyll harvest come; and in time of harvest I wyll saye vnto my repers, Gadther ye fyrst the tares, and bynd them in sheves to be brent, but gadther the wheete in to my barne.

31 Another parable he putt forthe vnto them, saynge, The kyngedom of heven ys lyke vnto a grayne of mustard seede, whych a man taketh and soweth in his felde.

32 Whych ys the leest of all seedes, but when it is growne, it is the greatest amonge yerbes, and is a tree; so that the bryddes of the aier come, and bylde in te braunches of it.

33 Anothere similitude sayde he to them, The kyngdome of heven ys lyke vnto leven, which a woman toke, and hyd in iij peckes off meele, tyll all was levended.

34 All these thynges spake Jesus vnto the people by similitudes, and withoute similitudes spake he nothinge to them,

- 35 To fulfyll, that which was spoken by the prophet, sayinge, I wyll open my mouth in similitudes; and wyll speake forth thinges whych have bene kepte secrete from the begynnynge off the worlde.
- 36 Then sent Jesus the people awaye, and cam to housse; and hys disciples cam vnto him, saynge, Declare vnto vs the similitude of the tares off the felde.

- 37 Đấ andswarude he him, Se đe seow đượt góde sæd se is mannes sunu;
- 38 Sóplice se æcyr is des middangeard; dæt góde sæd, dæt synt dæs heofonlican rices bearn, se coccel synt sóplice da mánfullan bearn;

50 And aworpab hig on đes fýres ofen; đer byb wop and toba gristbitung.

51 Ongyte ge ealle das bing? Da cwædon hig, Witodlice we hit ongytab.

- 37 The whiche answerynge saith, He that sowith good seed is mannes sone;
- 38 Sothely the feld is the world; bot the good seed, these ben sonys of the kyngdam, dernels, forsothe these ben yuel sonys;
- 39 But the enmye that soweth hem is the feend; but the ripe corn is the eendyng of the world, sothely the repers ben angelis.
- 40 Therfore as dernels ben gedrid to gidre, and brent in figr, so it shal be in the eendyng of the world.

- 41 Mannes sone shal sende his angels, and thei shulden gedre of his rewme alle sclaundris, and hem that don wickidnesse;
- 42 And thei shulen sende hem into the chymney of fijr, there shal be weepynge and betynge togidre of teeth.
- 43 Thanne iust men shulen shyine as the sunne, in the rewme of her fadir. He that hath eris of heerynge, heere he.
- 44 The kyngdame of heuenes is lijk to tresour hid in a feeld, the whiche a man that fyndith, hidith; and for ioye of it he goth, and sellith alle thingis that hath, and bieth the ilk feeld.
- 45 Eftsones the kyngdam of heuenes is lic to a man marchaunt, seekyng good margarytis;
- 46 Sothely oo preciouse margarite founden, he wente, and solde alle thingis that he hadde, and bouzte it.
- 47 Eft the kingdam of heuenes is lic to a nette sent in to the see, and of alle kynd of fishis gedrynge;
- 48 The whiche whan it was fulfillid, men ledynge out, and sittynge bysidis the brynke, cheesiden the good into her vessels, but thei senten out the yuel.
- 49 So it shal be in the eending of the Angelis shulen gon out, and shulen departe yuel men fro the mydil of juste men.
- 50 And thei shulen sende hem into the chymney of fijr; there shall be weepynge and betynge togidre of teeth.
- 51 Han zee vnderstonden alle these thingis? Thei seien to hym, 3he.

- 37 Then answered he and sayds to . them, He that soweth the good seed, ys the sonne of man;
- 38 The felde ys the worlde; the children off the kyngdom are the good seed, the evyll mans children are the tares;
- 39 But the enemy which soweth them is the devill; the harvest is the end of the world, and the repers be the angels.
- 40 For even as the tares are gaddred, and brent in the fyre, so shall it be in the ende off this worlde.
- 41 The sonne off man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gadther out off his kyngdom all thinges that do hurte, and all them which do iniquite;
- 42 And shall cast them into a furnes of fyre, there shalbe waylynge and gnasshyng off teth.
- 43 Then shall the juste men shyne as bryght as the sun, in the kyngdom of their father. Wosoever hath eares to heare, let him heare.
- 44 Agayne the kyngdom off heven is lyke wnto treasure hidde in the felde, the which a man founde, and hidde it; and ffor ioy there of goeth, and selleth all that he hath, and byeth that felde.
- 45 Agayne the kyngdom off heven is lyke vnto a marchaunt, sekynge after good pearles;
- 46 Which when he had founde one precious pearle, wentt, and solde all that he had, and bought it.
- 47 Agayne the kyngdome off heven is lyke vnto a neet cast in to the see, that gadereth off all kyndes of fysshes;
- 48 Which when it is full, men drawe to londe, and sitt, and gadre the good in to their vessels, and caste the bad
- 49 So shall it be at the ende of the The angels shall come, and worlde. sever the bad from the good.
- 50 And shall cast them into a furnes of fyre; there shalbe waylinge and gnasshynge of teth.
- 51 Jesus sayde vnto them, Have ye vnderstonde all these thynges? They sayde, Ye, Syr.

- 52 Đá sæde he him, Fordam is ælc gelæred böcere on heofenan rîce gelîc dam hîredes ealdre, de forp-bringp of his gold-horde niwe ping and ealde.

- 53 And it is don, whanne Jhesus hadde cendid these parables, he passide fro thennis.
- 54 And he, cummynge in to his cuntree, taust hem in her synagogis, so that thei wondriden, and seiden, Wherof to hym this wisdam and vertues?
- 55 Wher is nat this the sone of a smyth?† Wher his modir be nat seid Marie? and his brethren, Jamys, and Joseph, and Symount, and Judas?

56 And his sistris, wher thei alle ben nat at vs ! Therfore wherof to hym alle these thingis?

- 57 And so thei weren sclaundrid in hym. Forsothe Jhesus seide to hem, A prophete is nat with outen wirshipe, no but in his owne cuntree, and in his owne hous.
- 58 And he dide nat there manye vertues, for the vnbyleue of hem.

CHAP. XIV. 1 In that tyme Eroude tetrarcha[†] herde the fame of Jhesu;

- 2 And seide to his children, This is Jon Baptist, he hath risen fro dead, and therfore vertues worchen in hym.
- 3 Forsothe Eroude helde Joon, and bounde hym, and putte him in to prisoun for Erodias, the wif of his brother.
- 4 For Joon saide to hym, It is nat leful to thee for to haue hir.
- 5 And he willynge to slea hym, drede the peple; for thei hadden hym as a prophete.

6 Forsothe in the day of Eroudis birthe, the dougter of Erodias leepte in the mydil, and pleside to Eroude.

7 Wherfore with an ooth he byhiste for to seue to hir, what euer thinge she hadde axid of hym.

52 Then sayde he vnto them, Therfore every scrybe which is coninge vnto the kyngdom of heven, is lyke an housholder, which bryngeth forth out of hys treasure thynges bothe newe and olde.

53 And hyt cam to passe, when Jesus had fynnesshed these similitudes, that he departed thence.

- 54 And cam into his awne countre, and taught in there synagogges, in so moche that they were astunyed, and saide, Whence cam all thys wysdon and power vnto him?
- 55 Is not thys the carpenters sonne? Is not hys mother called Mary? and hys brethren be called, James, and Joses, and Symon, and Judas?

56 And are not hys systers all here with vs? Whence hath he all these thynges?

- 57 And they wer hurte by him. Then Jesus sayde vnto them, There is no prophet with out honoure, save in hys awne countre, and amonge his awne kynne.
- 58 And he dyd not many myracles there, for there vnbelefes sake.

CHAP. XIV. I In that tyme Herod the tetrarcha herde off the fame of Jesu;

- 2 And sayde vnto his servauntes, This is Jhon Baptist, he is risen agayne from deeth, and therfore hys power ys so greate.
- 3 For Herod toke Jhon, and bounde hym, and put hym in preson ffor Herodias sake, hys brother Phips wyfe.
- 4 For Jhon sayde vnto hym, Hit ys not lawfull for the to have her.
- 5 And when he wold have put hym to deeth, he feared the people; because they counted hym as a prophet.

6 When Herodes birth daye was come, the doughter off Herodias daunsed before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Wherfor he promysed with an oth that he wolde geve her, whatsoever she wolde axe.

- 31 Who of the two dide the fadris will? Thei seien to hym, The firste. Jhesus seith to hem, Trewly I seie to 30u, for puplicanys and hooris shulen go before 30u in to the kyngdam of God.
- 32 Forsothe Joon cam to 30u in the weye of riztwisnesse, and 3e bileeueden nat to hym; but puplicanys and hooris beleueden to hym. Sothely 3ee seeynge nether hadde don penaunce afterward, that 3e bileeuyden to hym.
- 33 Heere 3e an other parable. Ther was an husbondman, that plantide a vyne 3erd, and 3aue an hegge aboute, and dalue a pressour therynne, and bildide a toure, and hiride† it to erthe tiliers, and wente ferre in pilgrimage.

34 Forsothe whenne the tyme of fruytis neizide, he sente his seruauntis to the erthe tiliers, that thei token fruytis of it.

- 35 And, his servauntis taken, the erthe tiliers beeten the toon, an other thei slewen, but another thei stoonyden to deth.
- 36 Eftsones he sente other seruauntis, mo than the firste, and liche maner thei diden to hem.
 - 37 Forsothe at the laste he sent his vnto vs, Why dyd ye not then beleve hym?

26 But and iff we shall saye of men, then feare we the people, for all men helde Jhon as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus and sayde, We cannot tell. He lyke wyse sayd vnto them, Nether tell I you, by what auctorite Y do these thinges.

28 What saye ye to thys? A certayne man had ij sonnes; and cam to the elder sayinge; Go and worke to daye in my vyneyarde.

- 29 He answered and sayd, I wyll not; but afterwarde repented, and went.
- 30 Then cam he to the seconde, and sayde lyke wyse. And he answered and sayde, I wyll, Syr; yet went he not.
- 31 Whedder of these ij fulfylled there fathers wyll? And they sayde vnto hym, The fyrst. Jesus sayde vnto them, Verely I saye vnto you, that the publicans and the harlotes shal come into the kyngdome off God before you.

32 For Jhon cam vnto you in the waye of righte wesnes, and ye beleved hym not; but the publicans and the whoores beleved hym. But ye though ye sawe it, yet were not moved with repentaunce, that ye myght afterwarde have beleved hym.

33 Herken another similitude. There was a certayne housholder, whych set a vyneyarde, and hedged it rounde about, and made a wynpresse in it, and bilt a tower, and lett it out to husbandmen, and went in to a straunge countre.

34 And when the tyme of the frute drewe neare, he sent his servauntes to the husbandmen, to receave the frutes of it.

- 35 And the husbandmen caught his servauntes, and bet won, kylled another, and stoned another.
- 36 Againe he sent other servauntes, moo then the fyrst, and they served them lyke wyse.

37 But last of all he sent vnto them

- 39 And, hym taken, thei kesten out of the vyngerd, and slewen.
- 40 Therfore whenne the lord of the vynezerd shal cume, what shal he do to the ilk erthe tiliers?
- 41 Thei seien to hym, He shal lese yuele the yuel men, and sette to hire his vynezerd to other erthe tiliers, the whiche shulen zelde to hym fruytis in her tymes.
- 42 Jhesus seith to hem, Redden 3e neuer in scripturis, The stoon the whiche beldynge men reproueden, this is maad in to the heued of the corner? Of the Lord this thing is maad, and it is merueilous in oure eigen.
- 43 Therfore I seie to 30u, for the kyngdam of God shal be taken fro 30u, and shal be 30uen to a folk doinge fruytis of it.
- 44 And he that shal falle on this stoon, shal be broken togidre; forsothe vpon whom it shal falle, it shal togidre poune hym.
- 45 And when the princis of prestis and Pharisees hadden herde his parablis, thei knewen that he seide of hem.
- 46 And thei, seekynge to holde hym, dreden the cumpanyes of peple, for thei hadden hym as a prophete.

CHAP. XXII. 1 And Jhesus answerynge seide eftsone in parablis to hem, seiynge,

- 2 The kyngdam of heuenes is maad lic to a man kyng that made weddingus to his sone.
- 3 And he sente his scruauntis for to clepe men beden to the weddyngis, and thei wolden nat cume.
 - 4 Eftsoone he sente other seruauntis, hys awne sonne, sayinge, They wyll feare my sonne.

- 38 When the husbandmen sawe his sonne, they sayde amonge them selves, Thys ys the heyre; come on, lett vs kyll hym, and lett vs take hys inherytaunce to oure selves.
- 39 And they caught hym, and thrust him out of the vyneyarde, and shlewe him.
- 40 When the lorde of the vyneyarde commeth, what wyll he do with those husbandmen?
- 41 They sayde vnto hym, He will evyll destroye those evyll persons, and wyll lett out hys vyneyarde vnto other husbandmen, whych shall delyver hym his frute att tymes convenient.
- 42 Jesus saide vnto them, Dyd ye never redde in the scriptures, The same stone which the bylders refused, is set in the princypall parte of the corner? This was the Lordes doinge, and yt is mervelous in oure eyes.
- 43 Therfore saye I vnto you, the kingdome of God shalbe taken from you, and shalbe geven to the gentyls which shall brynge forth the frutes off it.
- 44 And whosoever shall fall on thys stone, shalbe alto broken; and whomsoever thys stone shall fall oppon, he shall grynde him to powder.

45 And when the chefe prestes and Pharyses herde his similitudes, they perceaved that he spake of them.

46 And they went about to laye hondes on hym, but they feared the people, because they counted hym as a prophet.

CHAP. XXII. 1 And Jesus answered and spake vnto them agayne in similitudes, sayinge,

2 The kyngdome of heven is lyke vnto a certayne kinge which maryed his sonne.

3 And sent forth his servauntes to call them that were byd to the weddinge, and they wolde nott come.

4 Ageyne he sentt forth other ser-

5 Sothely thei dispisiden, and thei wenten awey, oon in to his vynezerd, forsothe an other to his marchaundise.

6 But the other helden his seruauntis, and slowen hem, ponished with contek.

- 7 Forsothe the kyng, whenne he hadde herde, was wroth; and, his hoostis sente, he loste† the man quellers, and brente her citee.
- 8 Thanne he seith to his seruauntis, Sothely the weddyngis ben redy, but thei that weren clepid to the feeste, weren nat worthi.
- 9 Therfore go 3ee to the outgoyngis of weyes, and whom euere 3e shulen fynde, clepe to the weddyngis.
- To And his seruauntis, gon out in to the weyes, gedreden togidre alle that thei founden, good and yuel; and the weddyngis of men sittynge at mete ben fulfillid.
- 11 Forsothe the kyng entride, that he shulde see men sittynge at mete; and he see; there a man nat clothid with brijd clothis.
- 12 And he seith to hym, Frend, hou entridist thou hidir, nat hauynge brijd clothe? And he was doumbe.
- 13 Thanne the kyng seide to the mynystris, His hondis and feet bounden, sende 3ee hym into vttermore derknessis; there shal be weepyng and betyng to gidre of teeth.

14 Forsothe many ben clepid, but fewe chosen.

- 15 Thanne Pharisees, goynge awey, token a counseile, that thei shulden take Jhesus in word.
- 16 And thei senden to hym her disciplis, with Erodyanys, seiynge, Maister, we witen, that thou art sothfast, and thou techist in trewthe the weye of God, and there is no cure to thee of eny man, for thou beholdist nat the persoone of men.

vauntes, sayinge, Tell them which are bydden, Lo! I have prepared my dynner, myne oxen and my fatlinges are kylled, and all thinges are redy; come vnto the mariage.

5 They made light of it, and went their wayes, won to his ferme place, another about his merchandyse.

6 The remnaunt toke his servauntes, and intreated them vngoodly, and slewe them.

7 When the kinge herde that, he was wroth; and sent forth his warryers, and distroyed those murtheres, and brent vppe theire cite.

8 Then sayde he to hys servauntes, The weddinge was prepared, butt they which were bydden there to, were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore out in to the hye ways, and as many as ye fynde, byd them to the mariage.

- 10 The servauntes went out in to the wayes, and gaddered togedder as many as they coulde fynde, booth good and bad; and the weddinge was furnysshed with gestes.
- 11 The kinge cam in, to viset hys gestes; and spyed there a man which had not on a weddinge garment.
- 12 And sayde vnto hym, Frende, howe camyst thou in hydder, and hast not on a weddyng garment? And he was even spechlesse.
- 13 Then sayde the kynge to hys ministers, Take and bynde hym hande and fote, and caste hym into vtter dercknes; there shalbe wepinde and gnassinge of teth
- 14 For many are called, and feawe be chosen.
- 15 Then went the Farises, and toke counsell, howe they myght tangle him in his wordes.
- 16 And sent vnto him there disciples, with Herodes servauntes, sayinge, Master, we knowe, that thou arte true, and that thou teachest the waye of God trueli, nether carest for eny man, for thou consydrest nott mennes estate.

- 25 Forsothe seuen bretheren weren at vs; and the first, a wijf weddid, is dead. And he nat hauynge seed, left his wijf to his brother;
- 26 Also the secounde, and the thridde, til to the secenthe.
- 27 Forsothe the laste of alle, and the womman is dead.
- 28 Therefore in the rysynge agein, whos wijf of the seuene shal she be? for alle hadden hir.
- 29 Sothely Jhesus answerynge seith to hem, 3ee erren, nether knowynge the scripturis, nether the vertu of God.
- 30 Forsothe in the rysyng ageyn, neither thei wedden, nether ben weddid; but thei ben as the aungelis of God in heuene.
- 31 Sothely of the rysynge agein of dead men, see han nat rad, that it is seid of the Lord, seyinge to sou,
- 32 I am God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob? he is nat God of deed men, but of lyuynge men.

- 17 Tell vs there fore, howe thynkeste thou. Is it lawfull to yeve tribute vnto Cesar, or not?
- 18 Jesus perceaved there wylynes, and sayde, Why tempte ye me, ye ypocrytes?
- 19 Lett me se the tribute money. And they toke hym a peny.
- 20 And he sayde vnto them, Whose ys thys ymage, and superscription?
- 21 They sayde vnto hym, Cesars. Then sayde he vnto them, Geve therefore to Cesar that which is Cesars, and geve vnto God that which is Goddes.
- 22 When they herde that they marvelled; and lefte hym, and went there wave.

23 The same daye the Saduces cam vnto hym, which saye that there is no resurreccion, and they axed hym,

- 24 Saynge, Master, Moses bade, if a man dye, havinge no chyldren, that the brother mary his wyfe, and reyse vppe seed vnto his brother.
- 25 There were with vs seven brethren; the fyrst maried, and dyed with out ysshewe. And lefte hys wyfe vnto hys brother;

- 27 Laste of all, the woman dyed also.
- 28 Nowe in the resurrection, whose wyfe shall she be of the vij? for all had her.
- 29 Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, Ye are deceaved, and knowe not what the scripture meaneth, nor yett the vertue of God.
- 30 For in the resurreccion, they nether mary, nor are maryed; but are as the angels of God in heven.
- 31 As touchynge the resurreccion off the deed, have ye nott redde, what ys sayde vnto you off God, which sayeth,

- 33 And when the people herde that, they were astonyed at hys doctrine.
- 34 When the Pharises had herde howe that he had put the Saduces to silence, they drewe togedder.
- 35 And won of them, whych was a doctour off lawe, axed him a question, temptinge him, and sayinge,
- 36 Master, whych is the grett commaundment in the lawe?
- 37 Jesus sayde vnto him, Thou shalt love thy Lorde God, with all thyne herte, wyth all thy soule, and with all thy mynde.
- 38 This is the fyrst and that grett commaundment.
- 39 And there ys another lyke vnto thys; Thou shalt love thyne neghbour as thy selfe.
- 40 In these two commaundmentes hange all the lawe and the prophettes.
- 41 Whyll the Pharises were gaddered togedder, Jesus axed them,
- 42 Saynge, What thinke ye of Christ, whose sonne is he? They sayde vnto hym, The sonne of David.
- 43 He sayde vnto them, Howe then doeth David in spirite call him Lorde, saynge,

- 5 Therfore thei don alle her werkis, that thei be seen of men; forsothe thei alargen her filateries, and magnyfie hemmys.
- 6 Sothely thei louen the first sittyng placis in sopers, and the first chaiers in synagogis;

7 And salutaciouns in the chepyng, and to ben clepid of men maistirs.

- 8 Sothely nyl 3ee ben clepid maistir; for oon is 3oure maistir, forsothe alle 3e ben brethren.
- 9 And nyl 3e clepe to 30u a fadir on erthe, for oon is 30ure fadir, that is in heuenes.
- 10 Nether be 3e clepid maistirs, for oon is 30ur maistre, Crist.
 - 11 He that is more of 30u, shal be 30ure mynystre.
 - 12 Forsothe he that shal hie hym self, shal be mekid; and he that shal meeke hym self, shal ben enhaunsid.
 - 13 Sothely woo to 30u, scribis and Pharisees, ypocritis, for 3e closen the kyngdam of heuenes before men; sothely 3e entren nat, ne suffre men entrynge for to entre.
 - 14 Woo to 30u, scribis and Pharisees, ypocritis, that eten the housis of widues, in longe preier preyinge; for this thing 3e shulen take the more dom.
 - 15 Woo to 30u, scribis and Pharisees, ypocritis, that cumpasen the se and the lond, that 3ee maken o proselite; and whanne he shal be maad, 3e maken hym a sone of helle, double more than 3ou.
 - 16 Woo to 30u, blynde lederis, that seien, Who euere shal swere by the temple of God, no thing is; sothely he that shal swere in the gold of the temple, owith.
 - 17 3ee folis and blynde, forsothe what is more, the gold, or the temple that halowith the gold?
 - 18 And who euer shal swere in the auter, no thing is; but he that shal on mennes shulders; but they them sylfe wyl not move them with one fynger.

5 All there workes they do, for to be sene of men; they sett abroade there philateris, and make large borders on there garmenttes.

6 And love to sytt vppermooste at feastes, and to have the chefe seates in the synagogges;

7 And gretynges in the marketes, and to be called of men rabi.

8 But ye shall nott suffre youre selves to be called rabi; for one ys youre master, that is to wytt Christ, and all ye are brethren.

- 9 And call ye no man youre father on the erth, for one is youre father, and he is in heven.
- 10 Be ye not called masters, for one ys youre master, and he is Christ.
- 11 He that is greateste amonge you, shalbe youre servaunte.
- 12 But whosoever exalteth hym silfe, shalbe brought lowe; and he that submitteth him silfe, shalbe exalted.
- 13 Wo be vnto you, scribs and Pharises, dissemblers, for ye sheet vp the kyngdom of heven before men; ye youre selves goo nott in, nether suffre ye them that come to enter in.
- 14 Wo be vnto you, scribes and Pharises, for ye devoure widdowes houses, and that vnder a coloure of praying longe prayers; wherfore ye shall receave greater damnacion.
- 15 Wo be vnto you, scribes and Pharises, ypocrites, for ye compasse see and londe, to brynge one in to youre belefe; and when ye have brought him, ye make hym two folde more the chylde off hell, then ye youre selves are.

16 Wo be vnto you, blynd gides, for ye saye, Whosoever sweare by the temple, yt ys nothinge; but whosoever sweare by the golde of the temple, he is detter.

17 Ye foles and blinde, whether is greater, the golde, or the temple that sanctifyeth the golde?

18 And whosoever sweareth by the aulter, it is nothinge; but whosoever

- 23 Wo be to you, scrybes and Pharises, desemblers, for ye tythe mynt, annys, and commen, and leave the waygthtyer mattres of the lawe ondone, iudgement, mercy, and fayth. These ought ye to have done, and not to have lefte the othre ondone.
- 24 Ye blinde gydes, which strayne out a gnat, and swalowe a cammyll.
- 25 Wo be to you, scrybes and Pharises, ypocrites, for ye make clene the vtter side off the cuppe and off the platter; but with in they are full of brybery and excesse.
- 26 Thou blynde Pharise, clense fyrst that which is with in the cuppe and the platter, that the outsyde maye also be clene.
- 27 Wo be to you, scrybes and Pharises, ypocrites, for ye are lyke vnto paynted tombes, which appere beautyfull outwardes; but are with in full off deed mens bones, and of all fylthynes.
- 28 So are ye, for outwardes ye appere rightous vnto men; when with in ye are full of dissimulacion and iniquite.
- 29 Wo be vnto you, scribes and Pharises, ypocrytes, ffor ye bilde the tombes off the prophetes, and garnisshe the sepulchres off iuste men,
- 30 And saye, Yf we had bene in oure fathers tyme, we wolde not have bene partners with them in the bloud of the prophetes.
- 31 So are ye witnesses vnto youre selves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophetes.

- 13 Verely I saye vnto you, wheresoever this gospell shalbe preached throughoute all the worlde, there shall also thys thatt she hath done be tolde, for a memorial of her.
- 14 Then won of the twelve, called Judas Iscarioth, went vnto the chefe prestes,
- 15 And sayd, Whatt wyll ye geve me, and I wyll delyver hym vnto you? And they apoynted vnto hym thirty peces of sylver.

16 And from that tyme he sought oportunite, to betraye hym.

- 17 The fyrst daye of vnlevended breed the disciples cam to Jesus, sayinge vnto hym, Where wylt thou that we prepare for the, to eate the ester lambe?
- 18 And he said, Go into the cite vnto souche a man, and saye to hym, The master sayeth, My tyme ys almoste come; I wyll kepe myne ester att thy housse with my disciples.
- 19 And the disciples dyd, as Jesus had appyred them; and made redy the ester lambe.
- 20 When the even was come, he sate doune with the xij.
- 21 And as they dyd eate, he sayde, Verely I saie vnto you, that won of you shall betraye me.
- 22 And they were excedinge sorofull and began every man to saye vnto hym, Ys hit I, master?
- 23 He answerede and sayde, He that depeth his honde with me in the disshe, shall betraye me.

25 Then Judas which betrayed him, answerede, and sayde, Ys yt I, master? He sayde vnto hym, Thou haste saide.

- 26 As they ate, Jesus toke breed, and gave thankes, brake it, and gave it to his disciples, and sayde, Take, eate; thys ys my body.
- 27 And toke the cuppe, and gave thankes, and gave it them, sayinge, Drinke of it every won;

28 This ys my bloudde of the newe testament, which shalbe shedde for many,

for the foryevenes of synnes.

29 I saye vnto you, I wyll not drynke hence foorth, of this frute of the vyne tree, vntyll that daye when I shall drynke it newe with you, in my faders kyngdom.

30 And when they had sayd grace, they went out into mounte Olyvete.

- 31 Then sayd Jesus vnto them, All ye shall fall this nyght, because of me; for yt ys wrytten, I wyll smyte the shepherde, and the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroode.
- 32 But after I am rysen ageyne, I wyll goo before you into Galile.
- 33 Peter answered, and sayde vnto him, Though all men shulde be hurte by the, yett wyll not I be hurte.
- 34 Jesus sayde vnto hym, Verely I saye vnto the, that thys same night before the cocke crowe, thou shalt denye me thryse.
- 35 Peter sayde vnto hym, Yff I shulde dye with the, yet wyll I not denye the. Lyke wyse also sayde all the disciples.
- 36 Then went Jesus with them in to a place, which ys called Gethsemane. And sayde vnto hys disciples, Sitt ye here, whyll I go, and praye yonder.
- 37 And he toke with hym Peter, and the two sonnes of Zebede, and began to wexe sorofull and to be in an agony.

- 32 And as they cam out, they founde a man of Cyren, named Simon; him they compelled, to beare his crosse.
- 33 And cam vnto the place which is called Golgotha, that is to saye, a place of deed mens sculles.
- 34 And they gave him veneger to drynke myxte with gall; and when he had tasted there of, he wolde not drinke.
- 35 When they had crucified hym, they parted his garmentes, and did cast lottes, to fulfyll that was spoken by the prophet, They have parted my garmentes amonge them, and apon my vesture have cast loottes.
- 36 And they sate and watched hym there;
- 37 And they set vppe over his heed the cause of his deeth written, This is Jesus, the kynge of the Iewes.
- 38 And there were two theves crucified with hym, won on the right honde, and another on the lyfte honde.
- 39 They that passed by revyled hym, waggynge ther heeddes,
- 40 And sayinge, Thou, that destroyest the temple off God, and byldest it in thre dayes; save thy sylfe; if thou be the sonne of God, come downe from the crosse.
- 41 Lykwyse also the prelates mockinge hym, with the scribes and seniours, sayde,
- 42 He saved other, hym sylfe he can not save; yff he be the kynge off Israhell, let hym nowe come doune from the crosse, and we woll beleve hym;
- 43 He trusted in God, lett God delyver hym nowe, yf he will have hym; for he sayde, I am the sonne off God.
- 44 That same also the theves, which were crucified with hym, cast in his tethe.
- 45 From the sixte houre was ther dercknes over all the londe, vnto the nynth houre.

Who can forgeve synnes, but God only?

- 8 And immediatly when Jesus perceaved in his sprete, that they so reasoned in them selves, he sayde vnto them, Why thynke ye soche thinges in youre hertes?
- 9 Whether ys it easyer to saye to the sicke of the palsey, Thy synnes ar forgeven the, or to saye, Aryse, take vppe thy beed, and walke?

to That ye maye knowe that the sonne of man hath power in erth to forgeve sinnes, he spake vnto the sicke of the palsey,

II I saye vnto the, aryse, and take vp thy beed, and get the hens in to thyne awne housse.

12 And by and by he arose, toke vp hys beed, and went forth before them all, in so moche that they were all amased, and glorified God, sayinge, We never sawe it on thys fassion.

13 And he went out agayne vnto the see, and all the people resorted vnto hym; and he taught them.

- 14 And as Jesus passed by, he sawe Levy the sonne of Alphey sytt att the receyte of custome, and sayde vnto him, Folowe me. And he arose and followed hym.
- 15 And yt cam to passe, as Jesus sate att meate in his housse, many pubplicans and synners sate att meate also with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many that followed him.
- 16 And when the scribs and Pharises sawe him eate with publicans and synners, they sayde vnto his disciples, Howe is it that he eateth and drynketh with publicans and synners?
- 17 When Jesus had herde that, he sayd vnto them, The whole have no nede of the visicion, but the sicke; I cam to cal the sinners to repentaunce, and not the iuste.
- 18 And the disciples of Jhon and of the Pharises did faste; and they cam, and sayde vnto him, Why do the disciples of Jhon and off the Pharises faste, and thy disciples fast nott?

- 23 And it is don eftsoone, whanne the Lord walkide in the sabothis by the cornes, and his disciplis bigunnyn to passe forth, and plucke eris.
- 24 Sothly the Pharysees seiden, Loo! what don thi disciplis in sabotis, that is nat leeueful.
- 25 And he seith to hem, Radde 3ee neuere what Dauyth dide, whanne he hadde neede, and he hungride, and thei that weren with hym?
- 26 Hou he wente in into the hous of God, vndir Abiathar, prince of prestis, and eete loouys of proposicioun, the whiche it was nat leeful to ete, no but to prestis alone, and he 3aue to hem that weren with hym.
- 27 And he seide to hem, The sabote is mand for man, and nat a man for the sabote;
- 28 And so mannys sone is lord also of the saboth.

CHAP. III. I And he entride eftsoone in to the synagoge, and ther was a man hauynge a drye hond.

2 And thei aspieden hym, 3if he helide in sabothis, for to accuse hym. 19 And Jesus sayde vnto them, Can the chyldren of a weddinge faste, whils the brydgrome is with them? As longe as they have the brydgrome with them, they cannot faste.

20 Butt the dayes wyll come, when the bryde grome shalbe taken from them, and then shall they faste in thoose dayes.

21 Also no man soweth a pece of newe cloth vnto an olde garment, for then taketh he awaye the newe pece from the olde, and so is the rent worsse.

22 In lyke wyse no man poureth newe wyne in to olde vesselles, for yf he do the newe wyne breaketh the vesselles, and the wyne runneth out, and the vessels are marde. Butt newe wyne must be poured in to newe vesselles.

23 And it chaunsed, that he went thorowe the corne feldes on the sabboth daye, and his disciples as they went on their waye, began to plucke the eares of corne.

24 And the Pharises sayde vnto him, Take hede! why do they on the sabboth daye, that which is vnlaufull.

25 And he sayde vnto them, Have ye never redde what David did, when he had nede, and was anhongred, bothe he and they that were with him?

- 26 Howe they went into the housse of God, in the dayes of Abiathar, the hye preste, and ate the halowed loves, which is not laufull, but for the prestes only, to eate, and gave also to them which were with him.
- 27 And he sayde to them, The saboth daye was made for man, and nott man for the saboth daye:

28 Wherfore is the sonne of man lorde even of the saboth daye.

CHAP. III. I And he entred agayne into the synagog, and there was a man which had a widdred honde.

- 34 And biholdynge hem aboute, that saten in the cumpas of hym, he seith, Lo! my modir and my bretheren.
- 35 Forsoth who that doth the will of God, he is my brother, and my sister, and modir.

CHAP. IV. I And eft Jhesus bigan for to teche at the see; and myche cumpany of peple is gedrid to hym, so that he styinge in to a boot, sat in the see, and al the cumpany of peple was aboute the see, on the lond.

- 2 And he tau;te hem in parablis many thingis. And he seide to hem in his techynge,
- 3 Heere 3ee. Loo! a man sowynge goth out for to sowe.
- 4 And the while he sowith, an other seed felde aboute the wey, and briddis of heuene[†] camen, and eeten it.
- 5 Forsothe an other felde down on stony placis, wher it had nat myche erthe; and anoon it sprong vp, for it hadde nat depnesse of erthe.
- 6 And whenne the sunne rose vp, it welwide for heete, and it dried vp, for it hadde not roote.
- 7 And an other felde down into thornes, and thornes stieden vp, and strangliden it, and it saue not fruyt.
- 8 And an other felde down in to good lond, and saue fruyt, styinge vp, and wexinge; and oon brouste thritty fold, and oon sixtyfold, and oon an hundridfold.
- 9 And he seide, He that hath eris of heeryng, heere.
- 10 And whenne he was singuler,† the twelue that weren with hym axiden hym for to expowne the parable.

- and sayde vnto hym, Beholde! thy mother, and thy brethren seke for the with out.
- 33 And he answered them saynge, Who ys my mother and my brethren?
- 34 And he loked rounde about on his disciples, which sate in compasse about hym, and sayde, Beholde! my mother and my brethren.
- 35 For who soever doeth the will off God, he is my brother, my syster, and mother.
- CHAP. IV. I And he began agayne to teache then by the see syde; and there gadered to gedder vnto hym moche people, so greatly that he entred in to a shippe, and sate in the see, and all the people was by the see syde, on the shoore.
- 2 And he taught them many thynges in similitudes. And sayde vnto them in his doctrine,
- 3 Herken to. Beholde! the sower. went forth to sowe.
- 4 And it fortuned as he sowed, that some fell by the waye syde, and the fowles off the ayre cam, and devoured it vppe.
- 5 Some fell on a stony grounde, where it had not moche erth; and by and by sprange vppe, because it had not deepth of erth.
- 6. And as sone as the sun was vppe, it caught heet, and because it had nott rotynge, it wyddred awaye.

7 And some fell amonge the thornes, and the thornes grewe vppe, and choked it, so that it gave no frute.

- 8 And some fell apon good grounde, and did yelde frute, that spronge, and grewe; and brought forthe some thirty folde, some fourty folde, and some an hundred folde.
- 9 And he sayde vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, lett hym heare.
- 10 When he was alone, they that were aboute hym with the twelve axed hym of the similitude.

- 16 And also these ben that ben sown on a stoon, the whiche whanne thei han herd the word, anoon taken it with ioye;
- 17 And thei han nat roote in hem silf, but thei ben temporal; † afterward tribulacioun sprongen vp, and persecucioun for the word, anoon thei ben sclaundrid.
- 18 And there ben other that ben sowun in thornis; these it ben, that heeren the word,
- 19 And myseiste of the world, and disseit of richessis, and other charge of coueitise entrynge ynne, strangulen the word, and it is maad with outen fruyt.
- 20 And these it ben that ben sowun on good lond, the whiche heren the word, and taken, and maken fruyt, oon thritti fold, oon sixti fold, and oon an hundrid.
- 21 And he seide to hem, Wher a lanterne come, that it be put vndir a bushel? wher not, that it be put vpon a candil stike?
- 22 Forsothe ther is no thing hid, that shal not be maad opyn; nether ony thing is preuy, the whiche shal not come in to apert.

- 11 And he saide vnto them, To you it is geven to knowe the mistery of the kyngdom of God. But vnto them that are with out, shall all thinges be done in similitudes.
- 12 That when they se they shall se, and not discerne, and when they heare they shall heare, and not vnderstonde; leste at any tyme they shulde tourne, and their synnes shulde be foryeven them.
- 13 And he sayde vnto them, Perceave ye not this similitude? and howe ye shall knowe all similitudes?
 - 14 The sower soweth the worde.
- 15 These be they whiche are by the wayes syde, where the worde is sowen; to whom as sone as they have herde itt, commeth the devyll, and takith awaye the worde that was sowen in their hertes.
- 16 And these also are they that are sowen on the stony grounde, which when they have herde the worde, att once they receave it with ioye;
- 17 Yett have no rote in themselves, and so endure but for a season; afterwarde as sone as eny trouble or persecucion ariseth, for the wordes sake, anon they fall.
- 18 And these are they that are sowen amonge the thornes; which heare the worde of God.
- 19 And the care of this worlde, and the disseytfulnes of ryches, and the lustes of other thynges entre in, and choocke the worde, and it is made vnfrutfull.
- 20 And these are they that are sowen in good grounde, which heare the worde, and receave it, and brynge forth frute, some thirty folde, some sixty folde, some an hundred folde.
- 21 And he sayde vnto them, Is the candle lighted, to be put vnder a busshell, or vnder the borde? ys it not therfore lighted, that it shulde be put on a candelsticke?

- 25 And vnto you that have shall more be geven, for vnto hym that hath shall it be geven, and from hym that hath nott, shall be taken awaye, even that he hathe.
- 26 And he sayd, So is the kyngdom of God, even as yf a man shulde sowe seede in the grounde,
- 27 And shuld slepe, and rise vp night and daye, and the seede shulde springe, and growe vppe, whyll he is not ware.
- 28 For the erth bryngeth forthe frute off her silfe, first the blad, then the eares, after that full corne in the eares.
- 29 As sone as the frute is brought forth, anon he throusteth in the sykell, be cause that hervest is come.
- 30 And he sayde, Where vnto shall we lyken the kyngdom off God? or with what compareson shall we compare it?
- 31 It is lyke a grayne off mustardseed, which when it is sowen in the erth, is the leest of all seedes that be in the erth;
- 32 And after that it is sowen, it groweth vppe, and is greatest of all yerbes; and bereth greate braunches, so that the fowles off the ayre maye dwell vnder the shadowe of it.
- 33 And with many soche similitudes he preached the worde vnto them, after as they myght heare it;
- 34 And with out similitude spake he nothinge vnto them. But when they were a parte he expounded all thinges to his disciples.
- 35 And the same daye, when even was come, he sayde vnto them, Lett vs passe over into the other syde.

- II Forsothe there was there aboute the hill a flock of hoggis lesewynge in feeldis.
- 12 And the spiritis preieden Jhesu, seyinge, Sende vs into hoggis, that we entre into hem.
- 13 And anoon Jhesus grauntide to hem. And the vnclene spiritis entriden in to the hoggis, and with greet bire[†] the floc was cast down in to the see, to tweyne thousynde, and thei ben strangelid in the see.
- 14 Sothely thei that fedden hem, fledden, and tolden in to the citee, and in to the feeldis; and thei wenten out, for to see what was don.
- 15 And thei camen to Jhesu, and thei seen hym that was traueilid of the fend, sittynge clothid, and of hoole mynde; and thei dreden.
- 16 And thei tolden to hem, that sayen, hou it was don to hym that hadde a fend, and of the hoggis.
- 17 And thei bygunnen for to preie hym, that he shulde go awey fro her coostis.
- 18 And when he stiede in to a boot, he that was traueilid of the deuel, bygan to preye hym, that he shulde be with hym.
- 19 Sothly Jhesus resceyued hym nat, but seith to hym, Go thou in to thin hous to thine, and telle to hem, hou many thingis the Lord hath don to thee, and hadde mercy of thee.
- 20 And he wente forth, and bigan for to preche in Decapoly, hou manye thingis Jhesus hadde don to hym; and alle men wondriden.
- 21 And whanne Jhesus hadde stiede in to the boot eftsoone ouer the see, myche cumpanye of peple cam togidre to hym, and was aboute the see.
- 22 And oon of the princis of synagogis, by name Jayrus, cam, and seyinge hym, fel doun at his feet,

- 10 And he prayd hym instantly, that he wolde nott sende them awaye out of that region.
- 11 There was there nye vnto the mountayns a greate heerd of swyne fedinge.
- 12 And all the devyls besought hym, saynge, Sende vs in to the heerde off swyne, that we maye enter in to them.
- 13 And anon Jesus gave them leave. And the vnclene spretes went out and entred in to the swyne, and the heerd starteled and ran hedlyng into the see, they were a bout ij M. swyne, and they were drouned in the see.
- 14 And the swyne heerdes fleed, and tolde it in the cite, and in the countre; and they cam out, for to see what had hapened.
- 15 And they cam out to Jesus, and they sawe hym that was vexed with the fende and had the legion, sytt both clothed, and in his right mynde; and were a frayed.
- 16 And they that sawe it, tolde them, howe it had hapened vnto hym that was possessed off the devyll, and also of the swyne.
- 17 And they began to praye hym, that he wolde departe from their coostes.
- 18 And when he was come in to the shippe, he that had the devyll, prayed hym, that he myght be with hym.
- 19 Jesus wolde not soffre him, but sayde vnto him, Goo home in to thyne awne housse and to thy frendes, and shewe them, what thinges the Lorde hath done vnto the, and howe he had compassion on the.
- 20 And he departed, and began to publisshe in the ten cites, what thinges Jesus had done vnto hym; and all men did merveyle.
- 21 And when Jesus was come over agayne in the shippe vnto the other syde, moche people gaddered vnto hym, and he was nye vnto the see.
- 22 And beholde, there cam vnto hym won of the rulers of the sinagogge, whose name was Jairus, and when he sawe hym, he fell doune att his fete,

- 20 For Herode feared Jhon, knowynge that he was juste and holy, and gave him reverence. And when he herde him, he did many thinges, and herde him gladly.
- 21 And when a convenyent daye was come, Herode on hys birth daye made a supper to the lordes, captayns, and chefe estates of Galile.
- 22 And the doughter of the same Herodias cam in, and daunsed, and pleased Herode, and them that sate att bourde also, then the kinge sayd vnto the mayden, Axe of me what thou wilt, and I will geve it the.
- 23 And he sware vnto her, What soever thou shalt axe of me, I will geve it the, even vnto the one halfe of my kyngdom.
- 24 And she went forth, and sayde to her mother, What shall I axe? And she sayde, Jhon Baptistes heed.
- 25 And she cam in streigth waye with haste vnto the kinge, and axed, sayinge, I wyll that thou geve me by and by in a charger the heed of Jhon Baptist.

26 And the kinge was sorye, yet for hys othes sake, and for their sakes which sate att supper also he wolde not put her besyde her purpost;

27 And immediatly the kynge sent the hangman, and commaunded his heed to be brought in. And he went and beheeded him in the preson, 28 And brought his heedde in a charger, and gave hit to the mayden, and the mayden gave it to her mother.

- 29 When his disciples herde of it, they cam, and toke vppe his body, and put it in a toumbe.
- 30 And the apostles gaddered them selves to geddre to Jesus, and tolde him all thynges, booth what they had done, and what they had taught.
- 31 And he sayd vnto them, Come ye aparte in to the wyldernes; and rest a whyle. For there were many commers, and goers, and they had no leasur wons for to eate.

- 28 And there cam won off the scrybes, and when he had herde them disputynge to gedder, and perceaved that he had answered them well, he axed hym, which is the fyrste of all the commaundementes.
- 29 Jesus answered hym, The fyrste of all the commaundementes is, Heare, Israhel, oure Lorde God is wone Lorde;
- 30 And thou shaltt love thy Lorde God with all thy hert, and with all thy soule, and with all thy mynde, and with all thy strengthe. This is the fyrste commaundement.
- 31 And the seconde is lyke vnto this, Thou shalt love thy neghbour as thy silfe. There is none other commaundement greater then these.
- 32 And the scribe sayde vnto hym, Well, master, thou hast sayde the truthe; thatt there ys one God, and that there is none but he;
- 33 And to love hym with all the herte, and with all the mynde, and with all the soule, and with all the strengthe, and to love a mans nehbour as hym silfe, ys a greater thynge then all holocaustes and sacrifises.
- 34 And when Jesus sawe howe that he answered discretly, he sayd vnto hym, Thou arte nott farre from the kyngdome of God. And no man after that durst axe hym eny question.
- 35 And Jesus answered and sayd, teachynge in the temple, Howe saye the scribes, that Christ is the sonne off David?
- 36 For David hym silfe inspyred with the Holy Goost sayd, The Lorde sayde to my lorde, Sytt on my right honde, tyll I make thyne enemys thy fote stole.
- 37 Then David hym silfe calleth hym lorde, and by what meanes ys he then his sonne? And moche people herde hym gladly.
- 38 And he sayd vnto them in his doctrine, Be ware off the scribes, which love to goo in longe clothynge, and love salutacions in the market places, CHAP. XIII. I And whanne he wente out of the temple, oon of his disciples seith to him, Maistir, bihold, what maner stoones, and what manere bildingis.

- 2 And he answeringe seith to him, Seeste thou alle thes greete bildings ? ther schal not be left a stoon vpon a stoon, the which schal not be distroyed.
- 3 And whanne he sat in the mount of Olyuete azens the temple, thei axiden hym by hem silue, Petre, and James, and John, and Andrew,
- 4 Seie thou to vs, whanne thes thingis schulen be mand, and what tokene, whanne alle thes thingis schulen bigynne for to be endid.
- 5 And Jhesus answeringe bigan for to seie to hem, Se 3e, that no man disceyue 20u:
- 6 For many schulen come in my name, seiynge, For I am; and thei schulen disceyue manye.
- 7 Sothli whanne 3e schulen heere batels and opyniouns of bateils, drede 3e not; forsothe it bihoueth these thingis for to be don, but not 3it anon the end.

- 39 And the chefe seates in the sinagoges, and to sit in the vppermost roumes att feastes;
- 40 And devoure widowes houses, and vnder a colour praye longe prayers; these shall have greater damnacion.
- 41 And Jesus sat over agaynst the treasury, and behelde howe the people putt money into the treasury; and many that were ryche cast in moch.
- 42 And there cam a certayne povre widowe, and she threwe in two mytes, whiche make a farthynge.
- 43 And he called vnto hym his disciples, and sayd vnto them, Verely I saye vnto you, that thys pover widowe hath cast moare in then all they which have caste into the treasury.
- 44 For they all putt in off their superfluite; but she off her poverte cast in all that she had, even all her livynge.

CHAP. XIII. I And as he went out of the temple, won of his disciples sayd vnto hym, Master, se, what stones, and what bildynges are here.

- 2 And Jesus answered and sayde vnto hym, Seist thou these greate byldynges? there shall not be leefte one stone apon a nother, that shall not be throwen doune.
- 3 And as he sate on mounte Olivete over ayenst the temple, Peter, and James, and Jhon, and Andrew, axed hym secretly,
- 4 Tell vs, when these thinges shalbe, and what is the signe, when all these thinges shalbe fulfilled.
- 5 And Jesus answered them and began to saye, Take hede, lest eny man deceave you;

6 For many shall come in my name, sayinge, I am Christ; and shall deceave many.

- 16 And he that schalbe in the feeld, turne not agen byhynde for to take his cloth.
- 17 Sothli wo to hem that ben with childe, and norischinge in the dayes.
- 18 Therfore preie 3e, that thei ben not don in wyntir.
- 19 Forsoth the ilke dayes of tribulacioun schulen be suche, whiche manere weren not fro the bygynnynge of creature, the which God made, til now, neither schulen be.

- 8 For there shall nacion aryse agaynste nacion, and realme agaynste realme, and there shalbe erthquakes in all quarters and famysshment and troubles; these are the begynnynge off sorowes.
- 9 Butt take ye hede to youre selves, for they shall brynge you vppe to the counsels, and into the synagogges, and ye shalbe beeten; and ye shalbe brought before rulers and kynges for my sake, for a testimonial vnto them.
- 10 And the gospell muste fyrste be publysshed amonge all nacions.
- II Butt when they leade you and present you, take noo thought afore honde what ye shall saye, nether ymagion, butt whatsoever is geven you att the same tyme, that speake; for it shall nott be ye that shall speake, butt the Holy Goost.
- 12 Ye and the brother shall delyvre the brother to deeth, and the father the sonne, and the chyldren shall ryse agaynste their fathers and mothers, and shall putt them to deeth.
- 13 And ye shalbe hated off all men for my names sake; butt whosoever shall endure vnto the ende, shalbe safe.
- 14 Moreover when ye se the abominable desolacion, where off is spoken by Daniel the prophete, stonde were itt ought nott; let hym that redeth it vnderstonde itt; then let them which be in Iewry, fle to the mountaynes.
- 15 And let hym that is on the housse toppe, nott descende doune into the housse, nether entre there in, to fetche eny thynge oute off his housse;
- 16 And lett hym that is in the felde, not tourne backe agayne vnto tho thynges which he leefte behynde hym, for to take his cloothes with hym.
- 17 Butt woo is then to them that are with chylde, and to them that geve soucke in thoose dayes.
- 18 But praye, that youre flyght be not in the wynter.
- 19 For there shalbe in those dayes suche tribulacion, as was not from the begynnynge off creatures, which God created, vnto this tyme, nether shalbe.

20 And no but the Lord hadde breiggid the dayes, al fleisch hadde not be saf; but for the chosene whom he chees, the Lord hath breiggid dayes.

21 And thanne if ony man schulde seie to 3ou, Lo! here is Crist, loo! there, beleue ze not.

22 For fals Cristis and fals prophetis schulen ryse vp, and schulen zyue tokenes and grete wondris, to disceyue, if it may be don, 3he, the chosene.

23 Therfore se 3e; loo! I have bifore seid to you alle thingis.

24 But in the dayes, aftir that tribulacioun, the sunne schal be maad derk, and the mone schal not zyue hir schyn-

25 And sterris of heuenes schal be fallinge doun, and vertues that be in heuenes, schulen be mouyd.

26 And thanne thei schulen se mannis sone comynge in cloudis of heuene, with greet vertu and glorie.

27 And thanne he schal sende his aungels, and schal gedre his chosene fro foure wyndis, fro the loweste thing of erthe vnto the hizeste thing of heuene.

28 Forsothe of the fyge tree lerne 3e the parable. Whanne now his braunche schal be tendre, and leeuys ben sprongen out, ze witen for somer is in the nexte.

29 So and whanne 3e schulen se alle these thingis ben maad, wite ze, that it is in the nexte in the doris.

30 Treuly I seye to 30u, for this generacioun schal not passe awey, til alle these thingis be don.

31 Heuene and erthe schal passe, forsothe my wordis schulen not passe.

- 32 Treuly of that day or our no man woot, nethir aungelis in heueue, nether the sone, no but the fadir.
- 33 Se 3e, wake 3e, and preie 3e; sothli ze witen not, whanne tyme is.
- 34 For as a man the which gon fer in pilgrimage, lefte his hous, and 3af to his seruauntis power of euery work, and comaundide to the porter, that he schulde wake
 - 35 Therfore wake 3e, forsothe 3e witen

- 20 And excepte that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no man shulde be saved; but for the electes sake which he hath chosen, he hath shortened thoose
- 21 And then yff eny man save vnto you, Loo! here is Christ, loo! he is
- there, beleve nott.
- 22 For falce Christes shall aryse and falce propetes, and shall shewe myracles and wonders, to deceave, yf it were possible, evyn the electe.

23 But take ye hede; beholde! I have shewed you all thinges before.

- 24 Moreover in thoose dayes, after that tribulacion, the sunne shall wexe darke, and the mone shall not geve her light,
- 25 And the starres off heven shall fall, and the powers which are in heven, shall move.

26 And then shall they se the sonne of man commynge in the cloudes, with greate power and glory.

27 And then shall he sende his angels, and shall gaddre to gedder his electe from the fourre wyndes, and from the one ende off the worlde to the other.

28 Learne a similitude of the fygge When his braunches are yett tender, and hath brought forthe leves, ye knowe that sommer ys neare.

20 So in lyke maner when ye se these thinges come to passe, vnderstond, that it ys nye even att the dores.

30 Verely I saye vnto you, that thys generacion shall nott passe, tyll all these thynges be done.

31 Heven and erth shall passe, butt my wordes shall nott passe.

32 Butt of the daye and the houre knoweth no man, no nott the angels which are in heven, nether the sonne hym silfe, save the father only.

33 Take hede, watche, and praye; for ye knowe nott, when the tyme ys.

34 As a man which ys gone in to a straunge countrey, and hath lefte hys housse, and geven auctorite to hys servauntes and to every man hys worke, and commaunded the porter to watche.

- 3 And thei seiden to gidere, Who schal turne agen to vs the stoon fro the dore of the sepulcre?
- 4 And thei biholdinge syzen the stoon walewid awey, forsoth it was ful greet.
- 5 And thei goynge yn into the sepulcre syzen a zong oon, hilid with a whit stoole, sittinge at the rist half; and thei weren abaist.[†]
- 6 The which seith to hem, Nyle 3e drede; 3e seken Jhesu of Nazareth crucified; he hath risun, he is not heere; lo! the place where thei puttiden him.
- 7 But go 3e, seye 3e to his disciplis, and to Petre, for he schal go byfore 3ou in to Galilee; there 3e schulen se him, as he seide to 3ou.
- 8 And thei goynge out fledden fro the sepulcre; forsothe drede and quakynge hadde assaylid hem,† and to no man thei seiden ony thing, forsoth thei dredden.
- 9 Sothly Jhesus, rysinge erly in the first day of the wouke, apperide firste to Mary Mawdeleyn, of whom he hadde cast out seuene deuelis.
- 10 She goynge tolde to hem that weren with him, hem weylinge and wep-ynge.
- 11 And thei heeringe that he lyuede, and was seyn of hir, bileueden not.
- 12 Sothli after thes thingis tweyne of hem wandringe, he is schewid in an other lyknesse[†] to hem goynge in to a toun.
- 13 And thei goynge toolden to othere, nethir thei bileuyden to hem.
- 14 Forsoth at the laste, hem enleuene restinge, Jhesus apperide to hem, and reprouyde the vnbileue of hem, and the hardnesse of herte, for thei bileuyden not to hem, that hadden seyn him to haue risun fro deede.
- 15 And he seide to hem, 3e goynge in to al the world, preche the gospel to ech creature.
- 16 He that schal bileue, and schal be baptisid, schal be sauyd; sothli he that schal bileue not, schal be dampned.

- 3 And they said won to another, Who shall rolle awaye the stone from the dore off the sepulcre?
- 4 And when they behelde yt they sawe how the stone was rolled awaye, for it was a very greate won.
- 5 And they went in to the sepulcre and sawe a yonge man, sittinge on the ryght syde, cloothed in a longe white garment; and they were abasshed.
- 6 He sayd vnto them, Be nott afrayed; ye seke Jesus of Nazareth which was crucified; he ys rysen, he ys nott here; behoolde! the place where they putt hym.
- 7 Butt go youre waye, and tell his disciples, and namly Peter, that he is goone before you in to Galile; there shall ye se hym, as he sayde vnto you.
- 8 And they went oute quicly and fleed from the sepulcre; for they trembled and were amased, nether said they eny thinge to eny man, for they were afrayed.
- 9 When Jesus was risen, the morowe after the sabboth daye, he appered fyrst to Mary Magdalen, oute off whom he cast seven devyls.
- ro And she went and toolde them that were with hym, as they morned and weppte.
- 11 And when they herde that he was alive, and had appiered to her, they beleved it not.
- 12 After that he appered vnto two of them in a straunge figure, as they walked and went in to the country.
- 13 And they went and toolde it to the remnaunt, and they beleved them nether.
- 14 After that, he appered vnto the eleven, as they sate at meate, and cast in their tethe their vnbelefe, and hardnes off herte, be cause they beleved not them, which had sene hym after his resurrection.
- 15 And he sayd vnto them, Goo ye in to all the woorlde, and preache the gospell to all creaturs.
- 16 Whosoever beleveth, and ys babtised, shalbe safe; and whosoever beleveth nott, shalbe dampned.

- 17 Đás tácnu fyliaþ đam, đe gelýfaþ. On mínum naman hi deofol-seocnessa út-drifaþ; hi sprecaþ niwum tungum;
- 18 Næddran hi áfyrraþ; and him ne deraþ, đeah hi hwæt deadbærlices drincon. Ofer seoce hi hyra handa settaþ, and hi beoþ hále.
- 19 And witodlice Drihten Hælend, syddan he to him spræc, he wæs on heofonum áfangen, and he sit on Godes swidran healfe.
- 20 Sóplice hi đá farende æghwar bodedon, Drihtne mid-wyrcendum, and trymmendre spræce æfter-fyligendum tácnum.

17 Forsoth these tokenes schulen sue hem, that schulen bileue. In my name thei schulen cast out fendis; thei schulen speke with newe tungis;

18 Thei schulen do awey serpentis; and if thei schulen drynke ony venym,† it schal not noye hem. Thei schulen putte hir hondis vpon sike men, and thei schulen haue wel.

- 19 And sothli the Lord Jhesu, aftir that he hadde spoke to hem, is takun vp in to heuene, and sittith on the rizthalf of God.
- 20 Sothli thei gon forth prechiden euerywhere, the Lord worchinge with, and conferminge the word with signes followinge.

17 And these signes shall followe them, that beleve. In my name they shall cast oute devyls; and shall speake with newe tonges;

18 And shall kill serpentes; and yf they drynke eny dedly thynge, yt shall nott hurte them. They shall laye their hondes on the sike, and they shall recover.

- 19 So then when the Lorde had spoken vnto them, he was receaved in to heven, and sate on the right honde of God.
- 20 And they went forth and preached every where, and the Lorde wroght with them, and confirmed their preachynge with myracles that followed.

- 56 And Mary aboode with her iij. monethes, and retourned home agayne.
- 57 Elizabethes tyme was come that she shulde be delyvered, and she brought forth a sonne.
- 58 And her neghboures and her cosins herde tell, howe the Lorde had magnified hys mercy vppon her; and they reioysed with her.
- 59 And hit fortuned, the eyght daye, they cam to circumcise the childe; and called his name Zacari, after the name of his father.
- 60 And his mother answered and sayd, Not soo, but he shalbe called Jhon.
- 61 And they sayd vnto her, There ys none of thy kynne, that is named with thys name.
- 62 And they made signes to hys father, howe he wolde have hym called.
- 63 And he axed for wrytynge tables, and wroote, saying, Hys name is Jhon. And they mervelled all.
- 64 And hys mought was opened immediatly, and hys tonge, and he spake, lawdynge God.
- 65 And feare cam on all them that dwelt nye, and all these sayinges were noised abroade throughoutt all the hylly countre of Jewry.
- 66 And all they that herde them layde them vppe in their hertes, saying, What maner chylde shall thys be? And the honde of God was with hym.
- 67 And his father, Zacherias, was fylled with the Holy Goost, and prophisyed, sayinge,
- 68 Blessed be the Lorde God of Israhel, for he hath visited, and redemed his people.
- 69 And hath reysed vppe the horne off health vnto vs in the housse of his servaunt, David.

Bedleem, for that he was of the hous and meyne of Dauith,

- 5 That he schulde knowleche with Marie, with child spousid wyf to him.
- 6 Sothli it was don, whanne thei weren there, the dayes weren fulfillid, that she schulde bere child.
- 7 And sche childide her firste born sone, and wlappide him in clothis, and puttide him in a cracche, for ther was not place to hym in the comyn stable.
- 8 And schepherdis weren in the same cuntre, wakinge and kepinge the watchis of the ny₃t on her flok.
- 9 And loo! the aungel of the Lord stood by sydis hem, and the clerenesse of God schynede aboute hem; and thei dredden with greet drede.
- 10 And the aungel seide to hem, Nyle 3e drede; lo! sothli I euangelise to 3ou a grete ioye, that schal be to al peple.
- 11 For a sauyour is borun to day to vs, that is Crist the Lord, in the cite of Dauith.
- 12 And this a tokene to 30u; 3e schulen fynde a 30ng child wlappid in clothis, and put in a cracche.

13 And sudenly ther is maad with the aungel a multitude of heuenly knysthod, heriynge God, and seyinge, 14 Glorie be in the hizeste thingis to God, and in erthe pees be to men of good wille.

- 15 And it was don, that whanne the aungelis passiden a wey fro hem in to heuene, the schepherdis spaken to gidere, seiynge, Passe we ouer til to Bedleem, and se we this word that is maad, the whiche the Lorde maad, and schewid to vs.
- 16 And thei hyzinge camen, and founden Marie and Joseph, and a zong child put in a cracche.
- 17 Sothli thei seinge, knewen of the word that was seid to hem of this child.
- 18 And alle men that hadden herd wondriden, and of thes thingis that weren seide to hem of the schepherdis.

called Bethleem, because he was of the housse and linage of David,

5 To be taxed with Mary, his wedded wife which was with childe.

- 6 And it fortuned, whill they there were, her tyme was come, that she shulde be delyvered.
- 7 And she brought forth her fyrst begotten sonne, and wrapped hym in swadlynge cloothes, and layed hym in a manger, be cause there was no roume for them with in in the hostrey.
- 8 And there were in the same region shepherdes, abydinge in the felde and watching their flocke by nyght.
- 9 And loo! the angell of the Lorde stode harde by them, and the brightnes of the Lorde shone rounde aboute them; and they were soore afrayed.

no And the angell sayd vnto them, Be not afrayed; beholde! I brynge you tydinges off greate ioye, that shall come to all the people.

11 For vnto you is borne this daye in the cite of David, a saveoure, which is Christ the Lorde.

12 And take this for a signe; ye shall fynde the childe swadled, and layed in a manger.

13 And streight waye there was with the angell a multitude of hevenly sowdiers, laudynge God, and sayinge, 14 Glory to God an hye, and peace on the erth, and vnto men reioysynge.

- 15 And itt fortuned, as sone as the angels were gone awaye in to heven, the shepherdes sayd won to another, Let vs goo even vnto Bethleem, and se this thynge that is hapened, which the Lorde hath shewed vnto vs.
- 16 And they cam with haste, and founde Mary and Joseph, and the babe layde in a manger.

17 When they had sene it, they publisshed abrode the saynge which was tolde them off that chylde.

18 And all that herde itt wondred, att thoose thynges which were tolde them off the shepherdes.

- 32 I cam not to call the rightewes to repentaunce, but the synners.
- 33 They sayde vnto hym, Why do the disciples off Jhon fast often, and praye, and the disciples of the Pharises also, and thyne eate and drynke?
- 34 To whome he sayde, Can ye make the children of the weddynge fast, as longe as the brydegrome is present with them?
- 35 The dayes will come, when the brydgrome shalbe taken awaye from them, then shall they fast in thoose dayes.

- 37 And no man sendith newe wyn in to olde wyn vesselis; ellis the newe wyn schal breke the wyn vesselis, and the wyn schal be sched out, and the wyn vesselis schulen perische.
- 38 But newe wyn is to be sent in to newe wyn vesselis, and bothe ben kept.
- 39 And no man drynkinge old, wole anon newe; sothli he seith, The olde is the betere.

CHAP. VI. 1 Forsothe it is don in the secunde firste saboth, whanne he passide by cornes, his disciplis pluckeden eeris; and thei frotinge with her hondis, eeten.

- 2 Sothli summe of the Pharisees seiden to hem, What don 3e this, that is not leefful in sabotis?
- 3 And Jhesu answeringe seide to hem, Neithir 3e han rad this, that Dauith dide, whanne he hungride, and thei that weren with him;
- 4 Hou he entride in to the hous of God, and took looues of proposicioun, and eet, and 3af to hem that weren with him; whiche looues it was not leefful to ete, no but to preestis aloone.

5 And he seide to hem, For mannis sone is lord, ze, of the saboth.

- 6 Sothli it was don and in an other saboth, that he entride in to a synagoge, and tau;te. And a man was there, and his rigthond was drye.
- 7 Forsothe scribis and Pharisees aspieden him, if he schulde heele him in the saboth, that thei schulden fynde cause, wherof thei schulden accuse him.
- 8 Sothli he wiste the thoustis of hem, and he seith to the man that hadde a drye hond, Rise vp, and stond in to the myddel. And he risinge stood.

- 36 He spake vnto them in a similitude; No man puttheth a pece of an newe garment into an olde vesture; for yf he do, then breaketh he the newe, and the pece that was taken out of the newe agreeth nott with the olde.
- 37 Also no man poureth newe wyne into olde vessels; yf he do, the newe wyne breaketh the vessels, and runneth out it silfe, and the vessels perisshe.
- 38 But newe wyne must be poured into newe vessels, and boothe are preserved.
- 39 Also no man that drynketh olde wyne, strayght waye can awaye with newe; for he sayeth, The olde is plesaunter.

CHAP. VI. I Hit happened on an aftersaboth, they went thorowe the corne felde, and his disciples plucked the eares of corne; and ate them, and rubbed them in their hondes.

2 Certayne of the Pharises sayde vnto them, Why do ye that, which is not laufull to be done on the saboth dayes?

3 Jesus answered them and sayde, Have ye nott redde what David did, when he hym silfe was anhungred, and they which were with hym;

4 Howe he went into the house off God, and toke, and ate the loves off halowed breed, and gave also to them which were with hym; which was nott laufull to eate, but for the prestes only.

5 And he sayd vnto them, The sonne of man is lorde, even of the saboth daye.

6 And it fortuned in a nother saboth also, that he entred into the sinagoge, and taught. And there was a man, whose right honde was dryed vp.

7 The scribes and the Pharises watched hym, to se whether he wolde heale on the saboth daye or not, that they myght fynde an accusacion agaynst hym.

8 Butt he knewe their thoughtes, and sayde to the man which had the wyddred honde, Ryse vp, and stonde forthe in the myddes. He arose and stepped forthe.

37 Nyle 3e deme, and 3e schulen not be demyd. Nyle 3e condempne, and 3e schulen not be condempned; forzyue 3e, and it schal be forzouun to 3ou.

38 3yue 3e, and it schal be 30uun to 30u. Thei schulen 3yue in to 30ure bosum a good mesure, and wel fillid, and shakun to gidere, and ouerflowynge; forsothe by the same mesure, by which 3e schulen mete, it schal be meten to 30u.

39 Sothli he seide to hem and a liknesse, Whethir a blynd man may leede the blynde? whethir thei falle not bothe in to the dyche?

40 A disciple is not aboue the maistir; sothli ech schal be perfyt, if he is as his maistir.

41 Sothli what seest thou in thi brotheris y3e a festu, but thou biholdist not a beem, which is in thi owne y3e?

- 42 Othir hou maist thou seye to thi brother, Brother, suffre, I schal caste out a festu of thin yze? thou biholdist not a beem in thin owne yze? Ypocrite, first tak out the beem of thyn yze, and thanne thou schalt biholde, that thou lede out a festu of thi brotheris yze.
- 43 Forsothe it is not a good tree, that makith yucle frutis, nother an yucle tree, that makith goode fruytis;
- 44 Sothli euery tree is known of his fruyt. Sothli neither men gederyn fygis of thornes, neither men gederyn a grape of a boysch of breris.
- 45 A good man of the goode tresour of his herte bryngeth forth good thing, and an yuel man of yuel tresour, bryngith forth yuel thing; sothli of the plente of the herte the mouth spekith.
- 46 Forsothe what clepen 3e me, Lord, Lord, and don not the thingis that I seve.
- 47 Ech that cometh to me, and heerith my wordis, and doth hem, I schal schewe to 30u, to whom he is lyk.

- 36 Be ye therfore mercifull, as youre father ys mercifull.
- 37 Judge nott, and ye shall nott be judged. Condemne nott, and ye shall not be condemned; forgeve, and ye shalbe forgeven.
- 38 Geve, and yt shalbe geven vnto you. Goode measure, pressed doune, shaken to gedder, and runnynge over shall men geve into youre besomes; for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you agayne.
- 39 And he put forthe a similitude vnto them, Can the blynde ledde the blynde? do they nott both then fall into the dyche?

40 The disciple is not above his master; every man shalbe perfecte, even as hys master ys.

41 Why seist thou a moote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame, that is in thyne awne eye?

- 42 Other howe cannest thou saye to thy brother, Brother, lett me pull out the moote that is in thyne eye? when thou perceavest nott the beame that is in thyne awne eye? Ypocrite, cast out the beame out off thyne awne eye first, and then shalt thou se perfectly, to pull out the moote out of thy brothers eye.
- 43 Hit is nott a goode tree, that bryngeth forthe evyll frute, nether is that an evyll tree, whych bryngeth forthe goode frute;
- 44 For every tree ys knowen by his frute. Nether off thornes gader men fygges, nor of busshes gadrer they grapes.
- 45 A goode man off the goode treasure off hys hert bryngeth forthe that which ys goode, and the evyll man of the evyll treasure off hys hert, bryngeth forthe that whych ys evyll; for off the aboundaunce off the hert the mought speaketh.
- 46 Why call ye me, Master, Master, and do not as I bid you.

II Sothli this is the parable. The seed is Goddis word;

12 Sothli thei that ben bisydis the weye, ben thes that heeren; aftirward the fend cometh, and takith awey the word fro her herte, lest thei bileuynge be maad saaf.

13 Forwhi thei that felden down on a stoon, ben these men whiche whenne thei han herd, receyuen the word with ioye. And thes han not roote; for at a tyme thei bileuen, and in tyme of temptacioun thei gon'awey.

14 Forsothe thes that felden down in thornes, ben thes that herden, and of bysinessis, and richessis, and lustis of lyf thei goynge ben stranglid, and bryngen not azein fruyt.

15 Forsoth this that felde down in to good erthe, ben thes men whiche, in good herte and best, heeringe the word holdun, and bryngen forth fruyt in pacience.

16 Forsoth no man liztinge a lanterne hilith it with a vessel, ethir puttith vndir a bed, but on a candilsticke, that men entringe se lizt.

17 Forsoth no thing is princy, which schal not be openyd, neither hid, which schal not be knowun, and come into apert.

18 Therfore se 3e, hou 3e heeren; forsothe it schal be 30uun to him that hath, and who euere hath not, also this he gessith him silf to haue, schal be takun awey fro him.

19 Forsoth his modir and britheren camen to him; and thei mysten not go fully to him for the cumpany of peple.

20 And it is told to him, Thi modir and thi britheren stonden with oute forth, willings to se thee.

12 Thoose that are besyde the waye, are they that heare; and afterwarde commeth the devyll, and taketh awaye the worde out of their hertes, lest they shulde beleve and be saved.

13 They on the stonnes, are they which when they heare the worde, receave yt with ioye. And these have noo rotes; which for a whyle beleve, and in tyme of temtacion goo awaye.

14 That which fell amonge thornes, are they which heare, and goo forth and are choked with care, and riches, and voluptrous livynge, and brynge forth noo frute.

- 25 Forsoth he seyde to hem, Where is 30ure feith? Whiche dredinge wondriden, seyinge to gidere, Who, gessist thou, is this? for he comaundith to wyndis and to the see, and thei obeyen to him.
- 26 And thei rowiden to the cuntree of Gerasenus, which is azens Galilee.
- 27 And whanne he wente out to the lond, sum man ran to him . . . , which hadde a deuyl now longe tymes, and was not clothid with cloth, neither dwellide in hous, but in sepulcris.
- 28 This as he sy3 Jhesu, felde doun bifore him, and criynge with greet voys seide, What to me and to thee, Jhesu, the sone of God the hizeste? I beseche thee, that thou turmente not me.
- 29 Sothli he comaundide to the vnclene spirit, that he schulde go out fro the man. Forsothe he took him longe tymes, and he kept in stockis was bounden with chaynes, and, the boondis broken, he was led of fendis in desert.
- 30 Sothli Jhesu axide him, seyinge, What name is to thee? And he seyde, A legioun; for manye fendis hadde entrid in to him.
- 31 And thei preiden him, that he schulde not comaunde hem, that thei schulden go in to the depnesse.
- 32 Forsothe a flok of manye hoggis was there lesewynge in an hil, and thei preieden him, that he schulde suffre hem to entre in to hem. And he suffride hem.

- ciples alsoo. And he sayde vnto them, Lett vs goo over vnto the other syde of the lake. And they lanched forthe.
- 23 And, as they sayled, he fell a slepe. And there arose a storme of wynde in the lake, and they wer fylled with water, and wer in ieopardy.
- 24 And they went to hym and awoke hym, sayinge, Master, master, we are loost. He arose and rebuked the wynde, and the tempest off water; and they ceased, and it wexed calme.
- 25 And he sayd vnto them, Where is youre fayth? They feared and wondred, sayinge one to another, Who is this? for he commaundeth windes and water, and they obey him.
- 26 And they sayled vnto the region of the Gaderens, which is over agaynst Galile.
- 27 As he went out off the shippe to londe, there met hym a certayne man out off the cite, whych had a devyll longe tyme, and ware noo clothes, nether aboode in eny housse, but amonge graves.
- 28 When he sawe Jesus, he cryed, and fell doune before hym, and with a loude voyce sayde, What have I to do wyth the, Jesus, the sonne off the moost Hyest? I beseche the, torment me noot.
- 29 For he commaunded the foule sprete, to come out of the man. For ofte tymes he caught hym, and he was bounde with chaynes and kept with fetters, and he brake the bondes, and was carved of the fende into wildernes.
- 30 Jesus axed hym, sayinge, What is thy name? And he sayde, Legion; be cause many devyls wer entred into hym.
- 31 And they besought hym, that he wolde nott commaunde them, to goo into the depe.
- 32 There was therby an heerde of many swyne feadynge on an hill, and they prayed hym, that he wolde soffre them to enter into them. And he soffered them.

33 Then went the devyls out off the man, and entred into the swyne; and the heerd toke their course and ran heedlynge into the lake, and wer choked.

34 When the herdmen sawe what had chaunsed, they fleed, and tolde it in the cite, and in the villages.

35 And they cam out to se what was done. And cam to Jesus, and founde the man, out of whom the devyls wer departed, sittynge att the fete of Jesus clothed, and in hys right mynde; and they wer afrayde.

36 They also which sawe it tolde them, by what meanes he that was possessed of the devyll was healed.

37 And all the whole multitude of the Gadarens besought hym, that he wolde departe from them, for they wer taken with greate feare. And he gate hym into the shyppe and returned backe agayne.

38 The man out off whom the devyls were departed, besought hym, that he myght be with hym. But Jesus sent hym awaye, sayinge,

39 Goo home agayne into thyne awne housse, and shewe what thynges God hath done to the. And he went his waye, and preached thorowe out all the cite, what thynges Jesus had done vnto hym.

40 Hit fortuned, that when Jesus was come agayne, the people receaved hym; for they all longed for hym.

41 And beholde! there cam a man, named Jairus, and he was a ruler off the sinagoge; and he fell doune at Jesus fete, and besought hym, that he wolde come into his housse,

42 Ffor he had but a doughter only of twelve yere of age, and she laye a dyinge. As he went, the people thronge

- 51 And it followed, when the time was com that he shulde be receaved vp, that he determined hym silfe, to goo to Jerusalem;
- 52 And sent messengers before hym. And they went and entred into a citie of the Samaritans, to make redy for hym.
- 53 And they wolde nott receave hym, because his face was as though he wolde goo to Jerusalem.
- 54 When hys disciples, James and Jhon, sawe that, they sayde, Lorde, wilt thou that we commaunde, that fyre come doune from heven, and consume them, even as Helias did?
- 55 Jesus turned about and rebuked them, sayinge, Ye wote nott, what maner sprete ye are off;
- 56 The sonne of man ys not come to destroye mennes lives, but to save them. And they went to an other toune.
- 57 Hit chaunsed, as they went on their iorney, a certayne man sayd vnto hym, I wyll folowe the, whither soever thou goo.
- 58 Jesus sayd vnto him, Foxes have holes, and bryddes of the ayer have nestes, but the sonne of man hath nott where on to laye hys heed.
- 59 And he sayde vnto a nother, Folowe me. And the same sayde, Lorde, suffre me fyrst to goo, and bury my father.

60 Jesus sayd vnto hym, Lett the deed bury the deed; but goo thou, and preache the kyngdome off God.

61 And another sayde, I wyll folowe the, Lorde; but lett me fyrst goo bid them fare wele which are at home at my housse.

62 Jesus sayd vnto him, No man that putteth hys honde to the plowe, and loketh backe, is apte to the kingdom of God.

- 5 And he seith to hem, Who of 30u schal haue a frend, and schal go to him at mydny3t, and schal seie to him, Frend, leene to me thre loouys;
- 6 For my frend cometh to me of the weye, and I have not what I schal sette bifore him.
- 7 And he withynne forth answeringe seye, Nyle thou be noyful to me; the dore is now schit, and my children beth with me in the cowche; I may nost ryse, and zyue to thee.

8 And if he schal contynue knockynge, I seve to zou, thouz he schal not zyue to hym, for he is a frend, netheles for his vnrestefulnesse he schal rise, and zyue to hym, how manye he hath nedeful.

9 And I seie to 30u, axe 3e, and it schal be zouun to zou; seke ze, and ze schulen fynde; knocke ze, and it schal be openyd to 30u.

servynge. And stode, and sayde, Master, doest thou not care, that my sister hath leeft me to minister alone? bid her therfore, that she helpe me.

41 And Jesus answered and sayde vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou arte busied, and troublest thy silfe about many thynges;

42 Verely one ys nedfull. Mary hath chosen her a good parte, which shall not be taken awaye from her.

CHAP. XI. I And it fortuned, as he was prayinge in a certayne place, when he ceased, won of his disciples sayd vnto him, Master, teache vs to praye, as Jhon taught his disciples.

- 2 And he sayd vnto them, When ye praye, saye, Oure father which arte in heven, halowed be thy name. Lett thy kyngdom come. Thy will be fulfillet, even in erth as it is in heven.
- 3 Oure dayly breed geve vs this daye.
- 4 And forgeve vs oure synnes, for even we forgeve every man that traspaseth vs. And ledde vs not into temptacion, butt deliver vs from evyll. Amen.
- 5 And he sayde vnto them, Which of you shall have a frende, and shall goo to hym att mydnyght, and saye vnto hym, Frende, lende me foure loves;

6 For a frende of myne is come out off the waye to me, and I have nothynge to sett before him.

7 And he with in shall andswer and saye, Trouble me nott; nowe is the dore shett, and my servaunttes are with me in the chamber; I cannot ryse, and geve them to the.

8 I saye vnto you, though he woll not aryse and geve hym, be cause he is his frende, yet because of hys importunite he woll ryse, and geve him, as many as he nedeth.

9 And I saye vnto you, axe, and yt shalbe geven you; seke, and ye shall fynde; knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

10 Ælc dara de bitt, onfehp; and se de séch, he fint; and cnuciendum byb untýned.

24 Donne se unclæna gást gæþ of dam men, he gæþ þurh unwæterige stówa, TO Forsoth ech man that axith, takith; and he that sekith, fyndith; and to a man knockynge, it schal be openyd.

11 Therfore who of 30u axith the fadir breed, wher he schal 3yue to him a stoon? ether if he axith fysch, wher he schal 3yue to him a serpent for the fysch?

12 Ethir if he schal axe an ey, whethir he schal dresse to him a scorpioun?

13 Therfore if 3e, whanne 3e ben yuele, kunne 3yue to 3oure children goode thingis 3ouun, hou moche more 3oure fadir of heuene schal 3yue a good spirit to men axynge him.

14 And Jhesu was castinge out a fend, and he was doumbe. And whanne he hadde cast out the fend, the doumb man spak; and the cumpanyes wondriden.

- 15 Forsoth summe of hem seiden, In Belsebub, prince of deuelis, he castith out deuelis.
- 16 And othere temptinge axiden of him a tokene fro heuene.
- 17 Forsoth he, as he sy3 the thoustis of hem, seide to hem, Euery rewme departide agens it silf, schal be desolat, and an hous schal falle on an hous.
- 18 Forsoth and if Sathanas is departed agens him silf, how schal his rewme stonde? For 3e seyn, that I caste out fendis in Belsebub.
- 19 Forsoth if I in Belsebub caste out fendis, in whom youre sones casten out? Therfore thei schulen be youre domesmen.
- 20 Forsoth if I caste out fendis in the fyngir[†] of God, sothli the rewme of God is comen in to 30u.
- 21 Whanne a strong armed man kepith his hows, alle thingis that he weldith ben in pees.
- 22 Sothli if a strongere comynge aboue ouercome him, he schal take a wey alle his armeris, in whiche he tristide, and schal dele abrood his spuylis.
- 23 He that is not with me, is agens me; and he that gedrith not to gidere with me, scaterith a brood.
- 24 Whanne an vnclene spirit hath gon out of a man, he wandrith by drye placis, 10 For every one that axeth, receaveth; and he that seketh, fyndeth; and to him that knocketh, shall it be openned.

II Yf the sonne axe breed off eny off you which ys hys father, wyll he proffer hym a stone? or yff he axe fisshe, wyll he geve hym a serpent?

12 Or yf he axe an egge, wyll he proffer him a scorpion?

- 13 Yf ye then, which are evyll, know howe to geve good giftes vnto youre chyldren, howe moche more shall youre father celestiall geve a goode sprete to them that desire it of hym.
- 14 And he was a castynge out a devyll, whyche was dom. And it folowed when the devyll was gone out, the dom spake; and the people wondred.
- 15 Some off them sayde, He casteth out devyls by the power of Belzebub, the chefe of the devyls.
- 16 And other tempted hym sekynge of hym a signe from heven.
- 17 He knewe their thoughtes, and sayde vnto them, Every kyngdom at debate with in it silfe, shalbe desolate, and won housse shall fall apon another.
- 18 Soo if Satan be at variaunce with in hym silve, howe shall his kyngdom endure? Be cause ye saye, that I cast out devyls by the power off Belzebub.
- 19 Yf I by the power of Belzebub caste oute devyles, by whose power do youre chyldren cast them out? Therfore shall they be youre iudges.

20 Butt if I with the finger off God cast out devyls, noo doute the kyngdom of God is come apon you.

21 When a stronge man armed watcheth his housse, that he possesseth is in peace.

- 22 But when a stronger then he cometh apon hym and overcommeth hym, he taketh from him his harnes, wherin he trusted, and devideth his gooddes.
- 23 He that is not with me, is agaynst me; and he that gadereth nott with me, scatterch.
- 24 When the vnclene sprete is gone out of a man, he walketh through waterreste sécende; and nane ne gemét, donne cwyb he, Ic gewende eft to minum húse, de ic of-eode.

25 And dænne he cymp, he hit gemet æmtig mid besmum afeormod. . . .

sckinge reste; and he fyndynge not, seith, I schal turne agen in to myn hous, wher of I cam out.

- 25 And whanne he schal come, he fyndith it clensid with beesmes, and ourned.
- 26 Thanne he goth, and takith with him seuene othere spiritis werse than him silf, and thei gon yn, dwellen there. And the laste thingis of that man ben maad worse than the formere.
- 27 Forsoth it was don, whanne he seide thes thingis, sum womman of the cumpany reysinge hir vois, seide, Blessid be the wombe that bar thee, and blessid be the teetis whiche thou hast sokun.

28 And he seide, Rathere blessid ben thei, that heeren Goddis word, and kepen it.

- 29 Forsothe the cumpanye comynge to gidere, he bigan to seye, This generacioun is a weyward generacioun; it sekith a tokene, and a tokene schal not be 30uun to it, no but the tokene of Joonas, the prophete.
- 30 For whi as Joonas was a tokene to men of Nynyue, so mannis sone schal be to this generacioun.
- 31 The queene of the south schal ryse in dom with men of this generacioun, and schal condempne hem; for sche cam fro the endis of the erthe, to heere the wysdom of Salomon, and lo! here is more than Salomon.
- 32 Men of Nynyue schulen ryse in dom with this generacioun, and schulen condempne it; for thei diden penaunce at the prechinge of Joonas, and lo! here is more than Joonas.

33 No man lighteth a lanterne, and puttith in hidlis, other vndir a boyschel, but on a candel sticke, that thei that gon yn, se ligt.

34 The lanterne of thi body is thin y3e; if thin y3e schal be symple, al thi body schal be li3tful; forsoth if it schal be weyward, also thi body schal be derkful.

35 Therfore se thou, lest the list which is in thee, be derknessis.

36 Therfore if al thi body schal be listful, not hauynge ony part of derknessis, lesse places, sekynge reest; and when he fyndeth none, he sayeth, I will returne agayne vnto my housse, whence I cam out.

25 And when he commeth, he fyndeth it swept, and garnisshed.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh seven other spretes with hym worsse then hym silfe, and they enter in, and dwell there. And the ende off that man is worsse then the begynnynge.

27 Hit fortuned, as he thus spake, a certayne woman of the company lyfte vp her voyce, and sade vnto hym, Happy is the wombe that bare the, and the pappes which gave the sucke.

28 Butt he sayde, Happy are they, that heare the worde off God, and kepe it.

- 29 When the people wer gadered thicke to geder, he began to saye, This is an evyll nacion; they seke a signe, and there shall noo signe be geven them, but the signe off Jonas, the prophet.
- 30 For as Jonas was a signe to the Ninivites, so shall the sonne off man be to this nacion.
- 31 The quene off the southe shall ryse at the iudgement with the men of this generacion, and condempne them; for she cam from the ende of the worlde, to heare the wisdom of Solomon, and beholde! a greater then Solomon is here.
- 32 The men off Ninivite shall ryse at the iudgement with this generacion, and shall condempne them; for they repented at the preachynge of Jonas, and beholde! a greater then Jonas is here.

33 Noo man lighteth a candell, and putteth it in a preve place, nether vnder a busshel, butt on a candelsticke, that they that come in, maye se light.

34 The light off thy body is thyne eye; therfore when thyn eye is single, then is all thy body full off light; butt if thyne eye be evyll, then shall all thy body be full off darknes.

35 Take hede therfore, thatt the light whiche is in the, be nott darknes.

36 For if all thy body shalbe light, havynge noo parte darke, then shall all

49 Fordam eweep Godes wisdom, Ic sende to him witegan, and apostolas, and hig ofsleap hig and ehtap, it schal be al lightful, and as a lanterne of brighnesse it schal grue light to thee.

37 And whanne he spak, sum Pharisee praiede, that he schulde ete at hym. And he gon yn, saat to the mete.

38 Sothli the Pharisee bigan to seie, gessynge with ynne him silf, whi he was not waischun byfore the mete.

- 39 And the Lord seith to him, Now 3e Farisees clensen that thing that is with outenforth of the kuppe and plater; but that thing of 30u that is with ynne, is ful of raueyn and wickidnesse.
- 40 Foolis, wher he that made that thing that is with oute forth, made not also that thing that is with yone?

41 Netheles that thing that is ouer,† 3 yue 3e almes, and lo! alle thingis ben clene to zou.

- 42 But woo to 30u, Pharisees, that tythen mynte, and ruwe, and al wort,† and passen dom and the charite of God. Forsoth it bihofte to do thes thingis, and not for to leeue hem.
- 43 Woo to 30u, Pharisees, that louen the firste chaieris in synagogis, and salutaciouns in cheping.
- 44 Woo to 30u, that ben as sepulcris, whiche apperyn not, and men walkynge aboue witen not.
- 45 Forsoth oon of the wyse men of lawe ensweringe, seide to him, Maistir, thou seyinge thes thingis, doist dispit also to vs.
- 46 He seide, And woo to 30u, wyse men of lawe, for 30 chargen men with birthins whiche thei moun not bere, and 30 30u silf with 30ure o fynger touchen not the heuynessis.
- 47 Woo to 30u, that bilden birielis of prophetis; forsoth 30ure fadris slowen hem.
- 48 Treuly 3e witnessen, that 3e consenten to the werkis of 3oure fadris; for sothli thei slowen hem, but 3e bilden her sepulcris.
- 49 Therfore and the wysdom of God seide, I schal sende to hem prophetis, and apostlis, and of hem thei schulen slee and pursue, be full off light, even as when a candell doeth light the with his brightnes.

- 37 And as he spake, a certayne Pharise besought hym to dyne with hym. And Jesus went in, and sate doune to meate.
- 38 When the Pharise sawe that, he marveylled, that he had nott wessched before dynner.
- 39 And the Lorde sayde to hym, Nowe do ye O Pharises make clene the outsyde of the cuppe and of the platter; but youre inwarde parties are full of raveninge and wickednes.
- 40 Ye foles, did not he that made that which is with out, make that which is within alsoo?

41 Neverthelesse ye geve of that that ye have, and beholde! all is clene to

- 42 But wo be to you, Pharises, for ye tythe the mynt, and rewe, and all manner erbes, and passe over iudgment and the love of God. These ought ye to have done, and nott to have left the other ondone.
- 43 Wo be to you, Pharises, for ye love the vppormost seates in the sinagoges, and gretynges in the markettes.
- 44 Wo be to you, scribes and Pharises, ypocrites, for ye are as graves, which apere not, and men that walke over them are nott ware of them.
- 45 Then answered one of the lawears, and sayd vnto hym, Master, thus sayinge, thou puttest vs to rebuke also.
- 46 Then he sayde, Wo be to you also, ye laweras, for ye lade men with burthens greveous to be borne, and ye youre selves touche nott the packes with one of youre fingers.

47 Wo be to you, that bilde the sepulcres off the prophetes; for youre fathers kiled them.

48 Truely ye beare witnes, that ye alowe the dedes of youre fathers; for they killed them, and ye bilde their sepulcres.

49 Therfore sayde the wisdom off God, I will send them prophetes, and apostles, and off them they shall slee and persecute, 14 The ruler off the sinagoge answered, with indignacion be cause that Jesus had healed on the saboth daye, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in the weke, in which men ought to worke; in them come, and be healed, and nott on the saboth daye.

15 Then answered hym the Lorde and sayd, Ypocryte, doth not eache one of you on the saboth daye loose his oxe, or his asse, from the stall, and leade hym to the water?

16 And shulde not this doughter of Abraham be loosed from this bonde on the saboth daye, whom Sathan hath bounde, loo! xviij. yeares ?

17 And when he thus sayde, all his adversaris were ashamed. And all the people reioysed on all the excellent dedes, that were done by hym.

18 Then sayde he, What is the kyngdom of God lyke? or where to shall I compare it?

- 19 It is lyke a grayne of mustard seede, which a man toke, and sowed in his garden; and it grewe, and wexed a greate tree, and the foules off the aver bilt in the braunches of it.
- 20 And agayne he sayde, Where vnto shall I lyken the kyngdom of God?

- 27 Thei eeten and drunken, and weddiden wyues, and weren 30uun to weddingis, til in to the day in which Noe entride in to his schip; and the greet flood cam, and loste alle.
- 28 Also as it was don in the dayes of Loth, thei eeten and drunken, bouzten and seelden, plantiden and byldeden;
- 29 Sothli in what day Loth wente out of Sodom, the Lord reynede fier and brymstoon fro heuene, and loste alle.
- 30 Vp this thing it schal be, in what day mannis sone schal be schewid.
- 31 In that our he that schal be in the roof, and his vesels in the hous, come he not down to take hem awei; and he that schal be in the feeld, also turne not agen bihynde.
 - 32 Be 3e myndeful of the wyf of Loth.

- shulde come, he answered them, and sayde, The kyngdom of God commeth not with waytingefore,
- 21 Nether shall men saye, Loo! here, loo! there; for beholde! the kyngdom of God is within you.
- 22 And he sayde vnto hys disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to se won daye of the sonne of man, and ye shall not se it.
- 23 And they shall saye to you, Se! here, se! there. Goo nott after them, nor folowe them;
- 24 For as the lightenynge that apereth out of the one parte of the heven and shyneth vnto the other parte of heven, soo shall the sonne of man be in his dayes.
- 25 But fyrst must he suffre many thinges, and be reproved of this nacion.
- 26 As it happened in the tyme of Noe, soo shall it be in the tyme of the sonne of man.
- 27 They ate they dranke, they maryed wyves, and were maryed, even vnto that same daye that Noe went into the arke; and the floud cam, and destroyed them all.
- 28 Likewise also as it chaunsed in the dayes of Lot, they ate, thei dranke, thei bought, thei solde, thei planted, they bilte;
- 29 And even the same daye that Lot went out of Zodom, hit rayned fyre and brymstone from heven, and destroyed them all.
- 30 After these ensamples shall the daye be, when the sonne of man shall apere.
- 31. Att that daye he that is on the house toppe, and his stuffe in the house, lett hym nott come doune to take hit out; and lyke wyse lett not him that is in the feldes, turne backe agayne to that he lefte behynde hym.
 - 32 Remember Lottes wyfe.
- 33 Whosoever will goo about to save his lyfe, shall loose it; and whosoever shall loose his life, shall quycken it.

- 5 Netheles for this widowe is heuy to me, I schal venge hir; lest at the laste sche comynge strangle me.

6 Sothli the Lord seide, Heere 3e, what the domesman of wickidnesse seith;

- 7 Forsoth wher God schal not do the veniaunce of his chosene, criynge to him ny3t and day, and schal haue pacience in hem?
- 8 Sothli I seie to 30u, for soone he schal do the veniaunce of hem. Netheles gessist thou, mannis sone comynge schal fynde feith in erthe?
- 9 Forsoth he seide also to sum men, that tristiden in hem silf, as rigtful, and dispiseden othere, this parable, seyinge,
- 10 Tweye men stizeden in to the temple for to preie; oon a Pharise, and the tothir a pupplican.
- 11 Forsothe the Farise stondinge, praiede anentis him silf thes thingis, seyinge, God, I do thankingis to thee, for 37 And they answered and sayde to him, Wheare, Lorde? And he said vnto them, Whersoever the body shalbe, thid-ther will the egles resoorte.

CHAP. XVIII. I He put forth a similitude vnto them, signifyinge that men ought alwayes to praye, and not to be wery;

2 Sayinge, There was a judge in a certaine cite, which feared not God, nether regarded man.

- 3 And there was a certayne widdowe in the same cite, whych cam vnto hym, sayinge, Avenge me of myne adversary;
- ⁴ And a greate whyle he wolde noott. Afterwarde he sayd vnto hymsilfe, Though I feare nott God, nor care for man,
- 5 Yett because this widdowe troubleth me, I woll a venge her; lest at the last she come and rayle on me.

6 And the Lorde sayd, Heare what the vnrightewes judge sayeth;

7 And shall not God avenge his electe, which crye nyght and daye vnto him? ye, though he differre them,

- 8 I tell you, he will avenge them, and that quicly. Neverthelesse when the sonne of man commeth, suppose ye, that he shall fynde faithe on erthe?
- 9 And he put forthe this similitude vnto certaine, which trusted in them selves, that they wer perfect, and despysed other.

10 Two men went vp into the temple to praye; the one a Pharise, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharise stode, and prayed thus with hym silfe, God, I thanke the, that I am nott as other are, extorsioners, valuete,

45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that solde therin and them that bought,

46 Sayinge vnto them, Hyt is written, My housse is the housse off prayer, butt ye have made it a den off theves.

47 And he taught dayly in the temple. The hye prestes, and the scrybes, and the chefe off the people went about to destroye hym;

48 Butt coulde nott fynde what to do, for all the people stacke by hym, and gave him audience.

CHAP. XX. I And yt fortuned in one off those dayes, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospell, the hye prestes and the scrybes cam vnto hym wyth the seniours;

2 And spake vnto hym, sayinge, Tell vs, by what auctorite thou doest these thynges, other who is he that gave the thys auctorite?

3 He answered and sayde vnto them, I also will axe you a question; and answer me.

4 Was the baptem of Jhon from heven, or of men?

5 They thought wyth in them selves, sayinge, Yff we shall saye, From heven, he will saye, Why then beleved ye hym not?

6 But and yff we shall saye, Of men, all the people will stone vs; for they suerly beleved, that Jhon was a prophett.

7 And they answered, that they coulde nott tell, whence it was.

8 And Jhesu seide to hem, Neither I seie to 30u, in what power I do thes thingis.

9 Forsothe he bigan to seye to the comyn peple this parable. Sum man plantide a vyner, and settide it to ferme to tilieris; and he was in pilgrymage many tymes.

10 And in the tyme of gedrynge of grapis, he sente a seruaunt to the tilieris, that thei schulden 3yue to him of the fruyt of the vyner; whiche leften him, betun, voyde.

11 And he addide to sende another seruaunt; forsothe also thei betinge this, and ponyschynge with dispisingis, leften voyde.

12 And he addide to sende the thridde, whiche also woundinge him, castiden out.

- 13 Sothli the lord of the vyner seide, What schal I od ? I schal sende my dereworthe sone; perauenture whanne thei schulen se him, thei schulen be aschamyd.
- 14 Whom whanne the tilieris hadden seyn, thei thousten with ynne hem selue, seyinge, This is the eyr, sle we him, that the critage be maad oure.

15 And thei killiden him, cast out of the vyner. What therfore schal the lord of the vyner do to hem?

16 He schal come, and lese these tilieris, and he schal 3yue the vyner to othere. Which thing herd, thei seiden to him, Fer be it.

17 Forsothe he biholdinge hem, seide, What therfore is this thing that is writun, The stoon whom men bildinge reproueden, this is maad in to the heed of the corner?

18 Ech that schal falle on that stoon, schal be brysid; forsothe on whom it schal falle, it schal breke him in to smale parties.

19 And the princes of prestis, and the scribis, souten to sette hondis on him in that our, and thei dredden the peple; forsothe thei knewen that to hem he seide this lyknesse.

20 And thei aspyinge senten aspieris,

8 And Jesus sayde vnto them, Nether tell I you, by what auctorite I do these thynges.

9 Then began he to put forthe to the people this similitude. A certayne man planted a vyneyarde, and lett it forthe to fermers; and went hym silfe into a straunge countre for a greate season.

10 And when the time cam, he sent a servaunt to his tennauntes, that they shulde geve hym of the frutes of the vyneyarde; the tennauntes bett hym, and sent hym awaye empty.

11 And he ceased nott therby but sent yett another servaunt; and they bett hym, and foule entreated hym alsoo, and sent hym awaye empty.

12 Morover he sent the thyrde alsoo, and hym they wounded, and cast hym out.

- 13 Then sayde the lorde off the vyneyarde, What shall I do? I wyll sende my deare sonne; hym per adventure they wyll reverence, when they se hym.
- 14 When the fermers sawe hym, they thought in them selves, sayinge, This is the heyre, come, lett vs kyll hym, that the enherytaunce maye be oures,
- 15 And they cast hym out of the vyneyarde, and kylled hym. Nawe what shall the lorde off the vyneyarde do vnto them?
- 16 He wyll come, and destroye those fermers, and will lett out his vyneyarde to other. When they herde that, they sayde, God forbid.
- 17 He behelde them, and sayd, What meaneth thys then that is written, The stone that the bylders refused, is made the heed corner stone?
- 18 Whosoever stomble at that stone, shalbe brused; but on whomsoever it faul, it wyll alto breake hym.
- 19 And the hye prestes, and the scrybes, the same howre went about to laye hondes on him, but they feared the people; for they perceaved that he had spoken this similitude agaynst them.

20 And they watched him and sent

7 Sothli thei axiden him, seyinge, Comaundour, whanne schulen thes thingis be ? and what tokene, whanne thei schulen bigynne to be don?

- 8 Which seide, Se 3e, that 3e be not disceyued; forsothe manye schulen come in my name, seyinge, For I am, and the tyme schal neize; therfore nyle ze go aftir hem.
- o But whanne se schulen heere batels and dissenciouns with ynne, nyle se be aferd; it bihoueth first thes thingis to be don, but not zit a noon the ende.
- 10 Thanne he seide to hem, Folk schal ryse agens folk, and rewme agens rewme;
- 11 And grete mouyngis of erthe schulen be by places, and pestilensis, and hungris, and dredis fro heuene, and grete tokenes schulen be.
- 12 But bifore alle thes thingis their schulen sette hir hondis on zou, and schulen pursuwe, bitakinge in to synagogis and kepingis,† drawynge to kingis and iustisis, for my name;

13 Forsothe it schal bifalle to 30u in to witnessing.

14 Therfore putte ze in zoure hertis, not to thenke bifore, how ze schulen answere;

15 For I schal zyue to zou mouth and wysdom, to whiche alle 30ure aduersaries schulen not mowe azenstonde, and azenseye.

16 Sothli 3e schulen be bytrayed of fadir, and modir, and britheren, and cosyns, and frendis, and by deeth thei schulen turmente summe of 30u;

17 And 3e schulen be hatid of alle men for my name.

18 And an heer of 3oure heed schal not perische; but she of her penury, hath cast in all the substaunce, that she hadde.

5 As some spake of the temple, howe it was garnesshed with goodly stones and iewels, he sayde,

6 The dayes wyll come, when off these thynges which ye se, shall nott be lefte stone apon stone, that shall nott be throwen doune.

7 And they axed hym, sayinge, Master, when shall these thynges be? and what signes will there be, when suche thynges shall come to passe?

8 And he sayd, Take hede, that ye be not deceaved; for many will come in my name, saying of them selves, I am he, and the tyme draweth neare; folowe ye nott them therfore.

9 Butt when ye heare of warre and dissencion, be not afrayd; for these thynges must fyrst come, butt the ende foloweth not by and by.

10 Then sayd he vnto them, Nacion shall ryse agaynst nacion, and kyngdom agaynst kingdom;

11 And greate erthquakes shalbe in all quarters, and honger, and pestilence, and fearfull thinges, and greate signes shall there be from heven.

12 But before all these they shall lave their hondes on you, and persecute you, delyverynge you vppe to the synagoges and into preson, and brynge you before kynges and rulers, for my names sake;

13 And this shall chaunche you ffor a testimoniall.

14 Lett it sticke therfore faste in youre hertes, nott once to stody before, whatt ye shall answere for youre selves;

15 For I will geve you a mouth and wysdom, were agaynste all youre adversarys shall not be able to speake, nor resist.

16 Ye and ye shalbe betrayed of youre fathers, and mothers, and of youre brethren, and kynsmen, and lovers, and some of you shall they put to deeth;

17 And hated shall ye be off all men for my names sake.

18 Yet there shall not one heer of youre heeddes perisse; Digitized by Google

- 23 And thei bigynnen to seche among hem silf, who it was of hem, that was to doynge this thing.
- 24 And stryf was maad among hem, which of hem schulde be seyn to be more.

- so And he sayde vnto them, Beholde! as ye enter into the cite, there shall a man mete you bearynge a pitcher off water; hym folowe into the same housse, that he entreth in.
- II And ye shall saye vnto the goode man off the housse, The master sayeth, Where is the gest chamber, where I shall eate myne ester lambe wyth my dissciples?
- 12 And he shall shewe you a greate parloure paved, there make redy.
- 13 They went and founde as he had sayde vnto them, and made redy the ester lambe.
- 14 And when the houre cam, he sate doune, and the twelve apostles with hym.
- 15 And he sayde vnto them, I have inwardly desyred to eate this ester lambe with you, before that Y suffre;
- 16 For I saye vnto you, hence forthe I will nott eate of it eny moore, vntill itt be fulfilled in the kyngdom of God.
- 17 And he toke the cuppe, and gave thankes, and sayde, Receave this, and devyde itt amonge you;

18 For I saye vnto you, I will not drynke of the frute of the vyne, vntill the kyngdom of God be come.

- 19 And he toke breed, and gave thankes, and brake itt, and gave it vnto them, sayinge, Thys is my body, which is geven for you; thys do in the remembraunce of me.
- 20 Lykewyse alsoo when they had supped, he toke the cuppe, sayinge, This is the cuppe, the newe testamentt in my bloud, which shall for you be shedde.

21 Yet beholde! the honde off hym that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

- 22 And the sonne of man goeth, as hit is appoynted; but wo be to that man, by whom he is betrayed.
- 23 And they began to enquyre amonge them selves, which off them it shulde be, that shulde do that.
- 24 And there was a stryfe amonge them, which of them shulde seme greatest.

27 Sothli ther suede him moche cumpanye of peple, and of wymmen that weileden, and bymoornyden him. Herod wer made frendes togedder; for before they were at variaunce.

- 13 Pilate called to gedder the hye prestes and rulers and the people,
- 14 And sayde vnto them, Ye have brought this man vnto me, as won that perverted the people, and loo! I examined hym before you, and founde noo faute in this man off those thinges, where of ye accuse hym;

15 No nor yett Herode, for I sent you to him, and lo! noo thynge worthy of deeth is done to him.

16 I will therfore chasten hym, and lett hym loosse.

17 For off necessite he must have lett one loosse vnto them at that feast.

18 And all the people cryed at once, saynge, Awaye with him, and delivre to vs Barrabas;

19 Which for insurrection made in the cite, and morther, was cast into preson.

20 Pilate spake agayne to them, willynge to lett Jesus losse.

21 And they cryed, sayinge, Crucify hym, crucify hym.

22 He sayde vnto them the thyrde tyme, What harme hath he done? I fynde noo cause off deeth in hym; I will therfore chasten hym, and lett hym goo losse.

23 And they cryed with loude voyce, and required that he myght be crucifyed; and the cryinge off the hye prestes prevayled.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it shulde be as they required.

25 And lett losse vnto them hym, that for insurreccion and morther was cast into preson, whom they desyred; and delyvered Jesus to do with hym what they wolde.

26 And as they ledde hym awaye, they caught won, Simon of Sirene, commynge out of the felde, and on hym layde they the crosse to beare it after Jesus.

27 There followed hym a greate company of people, and of wemen, which wemen bewayled, and lamented hym.

- 41 And treuly we iustly, for we han receyued worthi thingis to dedis; sothli this hath don no yuel.

- 28 Jesus turned backe vnto them and sayde, Doughters of Jerusalem, wepe not for me, but wepe for youre selves, and for youre children.
- 29 For marke! the dayes will come, when men shall saye, Happy are the baren, and the wombes that never bare, and the pappes which never gave sucke.
- 30 Then shall they begyn to saye to the mountaynes, Fall on vs, and to the hilles, Cover vs.
- 31 For yf they do this to a grene tree, what shalbe done to the drye?
- 32 There were two evyll doers ledde with hym to be slayne.
- 33 And when they wer come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucifyed hym, and the evyll doars, one on the right honde, and the other on the lefte honde.
- 34 Then sayde Jesus, Father, forgeve them, for they woot not what they do. And they parted his rayment, and cast loottes.
- 35 And the people stode and behelde; and the rulers mocked hym with them, saying, He holpe other men; lett hym helpe hym silfe, yf he be Christ, the chosen of God.
- 36 The soudiers alsoo mocked hym, and cam and gave hym veneger,
- 37 And sayde, Yf thou be that kynge off the Iewes, save thy silfe.
- 38 His superscripcion was written over him in Greke, Latin, and Ebrue letters, This is the kynge off the Iewes.
- 39 The one off the malefactours which hanged, rayled on hym, sayinge, Yf thou be Christ, save thy silfe and vs.
- 40 The other answered, and rebuked hym, sayinge, Nether fearest thou God, because thou arte in the same damnacion?
- 41 We are righteously punnesshed, for we receave accordynge to oure dedes; butt this man hath done noo thynge amysse.

42 And he seide to Jhesu, Lord, haue mynde on me, whanne thou schalt come in to thi kingdom.

43 And Jhesu seyde to him, Treuli I seie to thee, this day thou schalt be with me in paradys.

44 Sothly it was almost the sixte our, and derknessis weren maad in al erthe til to the nynthe our.

45 And the sunne was maad derk, and the veyl of the temple was kitt the myddel.

46 And Jhesu cryinge with greet voys, seide, Fadir, in to thi hondis I bitake my spirit. And he seyinge thes thingis, sente out the spirit.[†]

47 Forsothe centurio seynge the thing that was don, glorifiede God, seyinge, Verily this man was just.

42 And he sayde vnto Jesus, Lorde, remember me, when thou commest into thy kyngdom.

43 And Jesus sayde vnto hym, Verely I saye vnto the, to daye shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixt houre, and there cam a darcknes over all the londe vntyll the nynth houre.

45 And the sonne was darckened, and the vayle of the temple rent even thorow the myddes.

46 And Jesus cryed with a greate voyce, and sayd, Father, into thy hondes I commende my sprete. And when he thus had sayd, he gave vp the goost.

47 When the centurion sawe what had happened, he glorified God, sayinge, Of a surtie this man was perfecte.

48 And all the people that cam to gedder to that sight, beholdynge the thinges which were done, smoote their brestes, and returned home.

49 All hys acquayntaunce stode a farre of, and the wemen which followed hym from Galile, beholdynge these thynges.

50 And beholde! there was a man, named Joseph, a senatour, which was a goode man and a juste,

51 (He did nott consent to their counsell and dede;) which was of Aramathia, a cite off the Iewes; which same alsoo wayted for the kyngdom off God.

52 He went vnto Pylate, and begged

the boddy of Jesus,

53 And toke it doune and wrapped it in a lynnen clooth, and layed it in an heawen toumbe, wherin was never man before layed.

54 And that daye was the saboth even,

and the saboth drue on.

55 The wemen that followed after, whych cam with hym from Galile, behelde the sepulcre, and howe hys body was layed.

56 And returned, and prepared swete odoures, and oyntmentes; and the saboth daye they rested, accordynge to the commaundement.

- 14 And thei spaken to gidere of alle thes thingis that hadden falle.
- 15 And it was don, while thei talkiden, and souzten with hem silf, and Jhesu him silf neizynge, wente with hem.
- 16 Sothli her yzen weren holdun, lest thei knewen him.

CHAP. XXIV. 1 On the morowe after the saboth erly in the mornynge they cam vnto the toumbe, and brought the odoures whych they had prepared, and other wemen wyth them.

2 And they founde the stone rouled awaye from the sepulcre.

- 3 And went in, and founde nott the body off the Lorde Jesu.
- 4 And it happened, as they were amased ther at, loo! two men stode by them in shynynge vestures.
- 5 As they were a fraide, and bowed doune their faces to the erth, they sayd to them, Why seke ye the livynge amonge the deed?

6 He is nott here, but is rysen. Remember, howe he spake vnto you, when he was yett with you in Galile,

7 Sayinge, That the sonne off man must be delivered into the hondes off synfull men, and be crucified, and the thyrde daye ryse agayne.

8 And they remembred his wordes.

- g And returned from the sepulcre, and tolde all these thynges vnto the eleven, and to all other.
- 10 Hytt was Mary Magdalen, and Joanna, and Mary Jacoby, and other that were with them, whych tolde these thynges vnto the apostles.
- 11 And their wordes semed vnto them fayned thynges, nether beleved they them.
- 12 Then aroose Peter, and ran vnto the sepulcre; and stouped in, and sawe the lynnen cloothes layde by them sylfe. And departed, wondrynge in hym sylfe att thatt whych hadd happened.
- 13 And beholde! two of them went that same daye to a toune, whych was from Jerusalem about thre scoore forlonges, called Emaus.

14 And they talked togedder of all thinges which had happened.

- 15 And it chaunsed, as they commened togedder, and reasoned, that Jesus hym silfe drue neare, and went with them.
- 16 But their eyes were holden, that they coulde nott knowe hym.

17 And he cweep to him, Hweet synd da speca, de gyt recceap inc betweenan gangende, and synd unrôte?

- 24 And sum men of oure wenten to the graue, and thei founden so as the wymmen seiden, but thei founden not him.
- 25 And he seyde to hem, A! foolis, and slowe of herte for to bileue in alle thingis whiche the prophetis han spoke.
- 26 Where it bihofte not Crist to suffre thes thingis, and so for to entre in to his glorie?
- 27 And he bigynnynge at Moyses and alle prophetis, expownede to hem in alle scripturis, whiche weren of him.
- 28 And thei camen ny3 to the castel, whidur thei wenten. And he made cuntenaunce him to go ferthere.
- 29 And thei constreyneden him, seyinge, Dwel with vs, for it drawith to nyst, and the day is now bowid down. And he entride with hem.
 - 30 And it was don, while he restide

- 17 And he sayde vnto them, What maner of communicacions are these, that ye have one to another as ye walke, and are sadde?
- 18 And the one off them, named Cleophas, answered and sayd vnto hym, Arte thou only a straunger in Jerusalem, and haste nott knowen the thinges, which have chaunsed therin in these dayes?
- 19 To whom he sayd, What thynges? And they sayd vnto hym, Of Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet, myghty in dede and worde before God and all the people;

20 And howe the hye prestes and oure ruelers delivered hym to be condempned to deeth, and have crucified hym.

- 21 We trusted, that it shulde have bene he that shulde have delivered Israhell. And as touchynge all these thynges to daye is even the thyrd daye, that they were done.
- 22 Ye and certayne wemen also of oure company made vs astonyed, whych cam erly vuto the sepulcre;
- 23 And founde nott his boddy, and cam, sayinge, that they had sene visions off angels, which sayde, that he was alive.
- 24 And certayne of them which were with vs went their waye to the sepulere, and founde ytt even soo as the wemen had sayde, but hym they sawe nott.

25 And he sayde vnto them, O! foles, and slowe of herte to beleve all that the prophetes have spoken.

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these thinges, and to enter into his glory?

- 27 And he began at Moses and at all the prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all scriptures, which were written of him.
- 28 And they drue neve vnto the toune, which they went to. And he made as though he wolde have gone further.
- 29 And [they] constrayned hym, sayinge, Abyde with vs, for it draweth tawardes nyght, and the daye is farre passed. And he went in to tary with them.
 - 30 And it cam to passe, as he sate att onfeng hlaf, and hine bletsode, and bræc, and him ræhte.

43 And whanne he hadde etun bifore hem, he takynge the relyfs, 3af to hem.

44 And he seyde to hem, Thes ben the wordis whiche I spak to 30u, whanne I was 3it with 30u; for it is nede that alle thingis be fillid, whiche ben writun in the lawe of Moyses, and in prophetis, and in salmes, of me.

45 Thanne he openyd witt to hem, that thei schulde vndirstonde scripturis.

. 46 And he seyde to hem, For thus it meate wyth them, he toke breed, and blessed yt, and brake ytt, and gave it vnto them.

31 And their eyes were openned, and they knewe hym; and he vannisshed out of their syght.

32 And they sayde bitwene them selves, Did not oure hertes burne wyth in vs, whyll he talked with vs by the waye, and openned to vs the scriptures?

33 And they roose vp the same houre, and returned agayne to Jerusalem, and they founde the eleven gaddered to gedder, and them that were wyth them,

34 Sayinge, The Lorde is risen in dede, and hath apered to Simon.

35 And they tolde what was done in the waye, and howe they knewe hym by the breakynge off breed.

36 As they thus spake, Jesus hym silfe stode in the myddes of them, and sayde vnto them, Peace be with you.

37 And they were abasshed and afrayde, supposinge that they had sene a sprete.

38 And he sayde vnto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughtes aryse in youre hertes?

39 Beholde my hondes and my fete, for it ys even I my sylfe. Handle me, and se; for spretes have nott flesshe, and bones, as ye se me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hondes and his fetc.

41 And whyll they yett beleved nott for ioye, and wondred, he sayde vnto them, Have ye here eny meate?

42 And they gave hym a pece of a brouled fisshe, and of an hony combe.

43 And he toke it, and ate it before them.

44 And he sayde vnto them, These are the wordes which I spake vnto you, whill I was yett with you; that all must be fulfilled, which were written of me in the lawe of Moses, and in the prophetes, and in the psalmes.

45 Then openned he their wyttes, that they myght vnderstond the scriptures.

CHAP. I. I In the begynnynge was that worde, and that worde was with God, and God was thatt worde.

- 2 The same was in the begynnynge wyth God.
- 3 All thynges were made by it, and with out it was made noo thinge, that made was.
- 4 In it was lyfe, and lyfe was the light of men:
- 5 And the light shyneth in darcknes, and darcknes comprehended it not.
- 6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was Jhon.
- 7 The same cam as a witnes, to beare witnes of the light, that all men through him myght beleve.
- 8 He was nott that light, but to beare witnes of the light.
- 9 That was a true light, which lighteneth all men that come into the worlde.
- 10 He was in the worlde, and the worlde by him was made, and the worlde knewe hym not.
- 11 He cam into his awne, and his receaved him not.
- 12 Vnto as meny as receaved him, gave he power to be the sonnes of God, in that they beleved on his name;
- 13 Which were borne not of bloude, nor of the will of the flesshe, nor yet of the will of men, but of God.
- 14 And that worde was made flesshe, and dwelt amonge vs, and we sawe the glory off yt, as the glory off the only

- 15 John berith witnessing of him, and cryeth, seyinge, This it was, whom I seide, He that cometh aftir me, is maad bifore me, for he was the formere than I;
- 16 And of the plente of him we alle han takun, and grace for grace.
- 17 For the lawe is 30uun by Moyses; forsoth grace and treuthe is maad by Jhesu Crist.
- 18 No man euere sy3 God, no but the con bigetun sone, that is in the bosum of the fadir, he hath told out.
- 19 And this is the witnessing of John, whanne Jewis senten fro Jerusalem prestis and dekenys to hym, that thei schulden axe him, Who art thou?
- 20 And he knowlechide, and denyede not, and he knowlechide, For I am not Crist.
- 21 And thei axiden him, What therfore? art thou Elye? And he seide, I am not. Art thou a prophete? And he answeride, Nay.
- 22 Therfore thei seyden to him, Who art thou? that we 3 yue answere to thes that sente vs. What seist thou of thi silf?
- 23 He seith, I a vois of the crying in desert, Dresse 3e the wey of the Lord, as Ysaye, the prophete, seyde.
- 24 And thei that weren sente, weren of the Pharisees.
- 25 And thei axiden him, and seiden to him, What therfore baptysist thou, if thou art not Crist, nethir Elye, nether prophete?
- 26 John answeride to hem, seyinge, I baptise in watir, sothli the myddil man of 30u stood, whom 3e knowen not;
- 27 He it is, that cometh aftir me, that is mad bifore me, of whom I am not worthi, that I vnbynde the thwong of his schoo.
- 28 Thes thingis ben don in Bethany ouer Jordan, wher John was baptisinge.

- begotten sonne off the father, which worde was full of grace, and verite.
- 15 Jhon bare witnes off hym, sayinge, Thys is he, of whome I spake, He that commeth after me, was before me, be cause he was yer then I;
- 16 And of his fulnes have all we receaved, even favour for favour.
- 17 For the lawe was geven by Moses; but favour and verite cam by Jesus Christ.
- 18 No man sawe God at eny tyme, the only begotten sonne, which is in the fathers bosum, hath declared hym.
- 19 And this is the recorde off Jhon, when the Iewes sent prestes and levites from Jerusalem, to axe hym, What arte thou?
- 20 And he confessed, and denyed nott, and sayde playnly, I am nott Christ.
- 21 And they axed hym, What then? arte thou Helias? And he sayde, I am nott. Arte thou a prophet? And he answered, Noo.
- 22 Then sayd they vnto hym, What arte thou? that we maye geve an answer to them that sent vs. What sayest thou of thy silfe?
- 23 He sayde, I am the voyce of a cryar in the wildernes, Make strayght the waye of the Lorde, as sayde the prophet, Esayas.
- 24 And they which were sent, wer off the Pharises.
- 25 And they axed hym, and sayde vnto him, Why baptisest thou then, yf thou be nott Christ, nor Helias, nether a prophet?
- 26 Jhon answered them, sayinge, I baptise with water, butt one is come amonge you, whom ye knowe nott;
- 27 He it is, that commeth after me, whiche was before me, whose shoue latchet I am not worthy to vnlose.
- 28 These thynges were done in Bethabara beyonde Jordan, where Jhon did baptise.

- 34 And I sawe yt, and have borne recorde, that thys ys the sonne off God.

35 The next daye after Jhon stode agayne, and two off hys disciples;

- 36 And he behelde Jesus as he walked by, and sayde, Beholde! the lambe off God.
- 37 And the two disciples herde hym speake, and they folowed Jesus.
- 38 Jesus turned about, and sawe them folowe, and sayde vnto them, What seke ye? They sayde vnto hym, Rabi, which is to say be interpretacion, Master, where dwellest thou?
- 39 He sayde vnto them, Come, and se. They cam, and sawe where he dwelt; and abode with hym that daye. For it was about the tenthe houre.
- 40 Won off the two, whych herde Jhon speake, and folowed Jesus, was Andrew, Simon Peters brother.
- 41 The same founde hys brother Simon fyrst, and sayde vnto hym, We have founde Messias, whych ys be interpretacion Announted;
- 4.2 And brought hym to Jesus. And Jesus behelde hym, and sayde, Thou arte Simon, the sonne off Jonas; thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretacion, A stone.

19 Jhesu answeride, and seyde to hem, Vndo ze this temple, and in thre dayes

I schal reyse it.

20 Therfore the Jewis seyden to him, In fourty and sixe zeeris this temple is byldid, and thou in thre dayes schalt reyse it?

21 Forsothe he seide of the temple of his body.

- 22 Therfore whanne he hadde rysun fro deed men, his disciplis hadden mynde, for he seyde this thing; and thei bileueden to the scripture, and to the word that Jhesu seide.
- 23 Forsothe whanne Jhesu was at Jerusalem in pask, in the feeste day, manye bileuyden in his name, seynge the syngnes of him that he dide.

24 Sothli Jhesu him silf bileuede not hym silf to hem, for that he knew alle men;

25 And for it was not nede to hym, that eny man schulde bere witnessing of man, sothli he wiste what was in man.

CHAP. III. I Forsothe ther was a man of Pharisees, Nicodeme bi name, a prince of Jewis.

- 2 He cam to Jhesu in the nyste, and seide to him, Raby, we witen, for of God thou hast come a maistir; sothli no man may do thes signes that thou dost, no but God were with him.
- 3 Jhesu answeride, and seyde to him, Treuli, treuli, I seye to thee, no but a man schal be born azen, he may not se the kyngdom of God.

4 Nycodeme seide to him, How may a man be born, whanne he is olde? wher he may entre agen in to his modris wombe, and be born agein?

5 Jhesus answeride, Treuli, treuli, I seie to thee, no but a man schal be born agen of watir, and of the Hooly Gost, he may not entre in to the kyngdom of God.

6 That that is born of fleisch, is fleisch;

19 Jesus answered, and said vnto them, Destroye this temple, and in thre dayes I will rayse it vppe agavne.

20 Then sayde the Iewes, In xlvj. yeares this temple was bilt, and wylt thou rayse it vppe in thre dayes?

21 Butt he spake of the temple off hys boddy.

22 As sone therfore as he was rysen from deeth agayne, his disciples remembred, that he thus sayde vnto them; and they beleved the scripture, and the wordes whych Jesus had sayde.

23 When he was at Jerusalem at ester, in the feaste, many beleved on his name, when they sawe the signes which he did.

24 But Jesus put nott hym silfe in their hondes, be cause he knewe all men;

25 And neded nott, that eny man shulde testify off man, for he knewe what was in man.

CHAP. III. I There was a man off the Pharises, named Nicodemus, a ruler amonge the Iewes.

2 He cam to Jesus be nyght, and sayde vnto him, Master, we knowe, that thou arte a teacher whyche arte come from God; for no man coulde do suche miracles as thou doest, except God were wyth hym.

3 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto hym, Verely, verely, I saye vnto the, except that a man be boren a newe, he cannot se the kingdom of God.

- 4 Nicodemus sayde vnto hym, Howe can a man be boren, when he is olde? can he enter into hys moders body, and be boren agayne?
- 5 Jesus answered, Verely, verely, I saye vnto the, except that a man be boren of water, and of the Sprete, he cannot enter into the kyngdom of God.
 - 6 That whych is boren of the flesshe, and that that is born of spirit, is spirit.

- 7 Wondre thou not, for I seye to thee, It behoueth you for to be born agein.
- 8 The spirit brethith wher it wole, and thou heerist his vois, but thou wost not, fro whennis he cometh, or whidir he goth; so is ech man that is borun of the spirit.
- 9 Nycodeme answeride, and seide to him, Hou mown thes thingis be don?
- 10 Jhesu answeride, and seyde to him, Art thou a maistir in Israel, and knowist not thes thingis?
- 11 Treuli, treuli, I seye to thee, for that that we witen, we speken, and that that we han seyn, we witnessen, and 3e taken not oure witnessing.
- 12 If I have seid to 30u ertheli thingis, and 3e bileuen not, how if I schal seie to 30u heuenli thingis, schulen 3e bileue?
- 13 And no man styeth in to heuene, no but he that cam down fro heuene, mannis sone that is in heuene.
- 14 And as Moyses reride vp a serpent in desert, so it bihoueth mannus sone for to be areysid vp,

15 That ech man that bileueth in to him, perische not, but haue euerelastinge lyf.

16 Forsothe God so louede the world, that he 3af his oon bigetun sone, that ech man that bileueth in to him perische not, but haue euere lasting lyf.

17 Sothli God sente not his sone in to the world, that he iuge the world, but that the world be sauyd by hym.

- 18 He that bileueth in to him, is not demyd; forsothe he that bileueth not, is now demed, for he bileueth not in the name of the oon bigetun sone of God.
- 19 Sothli this is the dom, for list cam in to the world, and men louede more derknessis than list; forsoth her workis weren yuele.
 - 20 Sothli ech man that doth yuele,

- is flesshe; and that which is boren of the sprete, is sprete.
- 7 Marvayle nott, that I sayd to the, Ye must be boren a newe.
- 8 The wynde bloweth where he listeth, and thou hearest his sounde, butt thou canst nott tell, whence he commeth, and whether he goeth; so is every man that is boren of the sprete.
- 9 Nicodemus answered, and sayde vnto him, Howe can these thynges be?
- 10 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto hym, Arte thou a master in Israhell, and knowest nott these thynges?
- 11 Verely, verely, I saye vnto the, we speake that we knowe, and testify that we have sene, and ye receave not oure witnes.
- 12 Yff I have tolde you erthely thynges, and ye have not beleved, howe shulde ye beleve, if I shall tell you of hevenly thynges?
- 13 And noo man hath ascended vppe to heven, but he that cam down from heven, that ys to saye the sonne of man which is in heven.
- 14 And as Moses lifte vppe the serpent in wyldernes, even soo must the sonne off man be lifte vppe,
- 15 That noo man which beleveth in hym perisshe, but have eternall lyfe.
- 16 God soo loved the worlde, that he gave his only sonne, for the entent that none that believe in hym shulde perisshe, butt shulde have everlastynge lyfe.
- 17 For God sent not his sonne into the worlde, to condempne the worlde, but that the worlde through him myght be saved.
- 18 He that beleveth on hym, shall not be condempned; but he that beleveth nott, is condempned all redy, be cause he beleveth nott in the name off the only sonne off God.
- 19 And this is the condempnacion, light is come into the worlde, and the men have loved darcknes more then light; be cause their dedes were evyll.
 - 20 For every man that evyll doeth, hateth the light; nether commeth to light, lest his dedes shulde be reproved.

21 Butt he that doth the trueth, commeth to the light, that his dedes myght be knowen, howe that they are wroght in God.

22 After that cam Jesus, and his disciples, into the Iewes londe, and there abode with them, and baptised.

23 And Jhon also baptised in Enon, besydes Salim, because there was moche water there; and they cam, and were baptised.

24 For Jhon was not yet cast into preson.

25 There a rose a question bitwene Jhons disciples and the Iewes, a bout purifiynge.

26 And they cam vnto Jhon, and sayde vnto hym, Master, beholde! he that was with the beyonde Iordan, to whom thou barest witnes, baptyseth, and all men come to hym.

27 Jhon answered, and sayde, A man can receave nothynge at all, except it be geven hym from heven.

28 Ye youre selves are witnesses, howe that I sayde, I am nott Christ, butt am sent before hym.

- 29 He that hath the bryde is the brydegrome; but the frende off the brydegrome, which stondeth by, and heareth hym, reioyseth greately, of the brydgromes voyce. Therfore this my ioye is fulfilled.

36 He that beleveth on the sonne, hath everlastyng lyfe; and he that beleveth nott the sonne, shall nott se lyfe, but the wrathe of God bydeth on hym.

- CHAP. IV. I As sone as the Lorde had knowledge, howe that it was come to the eares off the Pharises, that Jesus made and baptised moo disciples, then Jhon.
- 2 Though that Jesus hym silfe baptised not, butt his disciples,
- 3 He lefte Iewry, and departed agayne into Galile.
- 4 And it was soo that he must nedes goo thorowe Samaria.
- 5 Then cam he to a cite of Samaria, called Sichar, besydes the possession, that Jacob gave to his sonne, Joseph.
- 6 And there was Jacobs well; Jesus then weried in his iorney, sate thus on the well. Hit was about the sixte houre.
- 7 There cam a woman of Samaria, to drawe water. Jesus sayde vnto her, Geve me drynke.
- 8 For his disciples wer gone awaye vnto the toune, to beye meate.
- 9 The woman off Samaria sayde vnto hym, Howe is itt thatt thou, beinge a Iewe, axest drynke of me, which am a Samaritane? for the Iewes medle not with the Samaritans.
- 10 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto her, If thou knewest the gyfte of God, and who it is, that sayeth to the, Geve me drynke, thou woldest have axed of hym, and he wolde have geven the water of lyfe.
- 11 The woman sayde vnto hym, Syr, thou hast noo thynge to drawe it with all, and the well is depe; from whence then hast thou that water off lyfe?

fadir Jacob, that caue to vs this pitt? and he drank therof, and his sones, and his beestis.

- 13 Jhesu answeride, and seide to hir, Ech man that drynkith of this watir, schal thirste eftsoone;
- 14 Forsothe he that schal drynke of the watir that I schal 3yue to him, schal not thirste in to with outen ende; but the watir that I schal 3yue to him, schal be maad in him a welle of watir, spryngynge vp in to euerelastinge lyf.

15 The womman seith to him, Sire, 3yue to me this watir, that I thirste not, nether come hidir for to drawe.

16 Jhesu seith to hir, Go, clepe thin hosebonde, and come hidur.

- 17 The womman answeride, and seide, I have not an hosebonde. Jhesu seith to hir, Thou seidist wel, For I have not an hosebonde;
- 18 Forsoth thou hast had fyue hosebondis, and he whom thou hast, is not thin hosebonde. This thing thou seidist sothli.
- 19 The womman seith to him, Lord, I se, for thou art a prophete.
- 20 Oure fadris worschipiden in this hil, and 3e seyn, for at Jerusalem is a place, wher it bihoueth for to worschipe.
- 21 Jhesu seith to hir, Womman, bileue to me, for the our schal come, whanne nether in this hil, nether in Jerusalem, ze schulen preye[†] the fadir.

22 3e worschipen that that 3e witen not; we worschipen that that we witen; for heelthe is of Jewis.

23 But the our cometh, and now it is, whanne trewe worschiperis schulen worschipe the fader in spirit and treuthe; forwhi and the fadir sekith suche, that schulen worschipe him.

24 God is a spirit, and it bihoueth hem that worschipen him, for to worschipe in spirit and treuth.

25 The womman seith to him, I woot for Messias is comen, that is seid Crist; therfore whanne he schal come, he schal telle to vs alle thingis.

26 Jhesu seith to hir, I am, that speke with thee.

Jacob, which gave vs this well? and he hym silfe dranke there of, and his chyldren, and his cattell.

13 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto her, Whosoever drynketh of this water, shall thurst agayne;

14 But whosever shall drynke of the water that I shall geve hym, shall never be moare a thyrst; but the water that I shall geve hym, shalbe in hym a well of water, spryngynge vp in to everlastynge lyfe.

15 The woman sayde vnto hym, Syr, geve me of that water, that I thyrst not, nether come hedder to drawe.

16 Jesus sayde vnto her, Go, and call thy husband, and come hydder.

17 'The woman answered, and sayde vnto hym, I have no husband. Jesus sayde to her, Thou hast well sayd, I have no husbande;

18 For thou haste had five husbandes, and he whom thou nowe hast, is not thy housband. That saydest thou truely.

19 The woman sayde vnto hym, Syr, I perceave, that thou arte a prophet.

20 Oure fathers worshipped in this mountayne, and ye saye, thatt in Jerusalem is the place, where men ought to praye.

21 Jesus sayde vnto her, Woman, trust me, the houre cometh, when ye shall nether in this mountayne, nor yet att Jerusalem, worshippe the father.

22 Ye worshippe ye wot neare what; we knowe what we worshippe; for sal-vacion commeth of the Iewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and nowe is, when the true worshippers shall worshippe the father in sprete and in verite; for verily suche the father requyreth, to worshippe hym.

24 God is a sprete, and they that worshippe hym, must honoure hym in sprete and verite.

25 The woman sayde vnto hym, I wot well Messias shall come, which is called Christ; when he is once come, he will tell vs all thynges.

26 Jesus sayde vnto her, I thatt speake vnto the, am he.

27 And dær-rihte comon his leorningcnihtas, and hig wundredon, dæt he wid dæt wif spræc; deah hyra nán ne cwæb, Hwæt sécst dú, odde, Hwæt sprycst dú wid hig?

- 38 I sente 30u for to repe, that that 3e traueliden not; othere men traueliden, and 3e entriden in to her trauelis.
- 39 Forsoth of the citee many Samaritans bileueden in to him, for the word of the womman beringe witnessing, For he seide to me alle thingis, what euere thingis I dide.
 - 40 Therfore whanne Samaritans camen to him, thei preieden him, that he schulde dwelle there; and he dwelte there twey dayes.
 - 41 And many mo bileueden for his word,
 - 42 And seyden to the womman, For

- 27 And even at that poynte cam his disciples, and marvelled, that he talked with the woman; yet no man sayde vnto hym, What meanest thou, or, Why talkest thou with her?
- 28 The woman lefte her water pott behynde her, and went her waye into the cite, and sayde to the men there,
- 29 Come, se a man, whiche tolde me all thynges thatt ever I dyd; is not he Christ?
- 30 Then they went out off the cite, and cam vnto hym.
- 31 In the meane whyle his disciples prayed hym, saynge, Master, eate.
- 32 He sayde vnto them, I have meate to eate, that we knowe nott off.
- 33 Then sayd the disciples bitwene them selves, Hath eny man brought hym meate?
- 34 Jesus sayd vnto them, My meate ys, to fulfill the will off hym that sent me, and to fynnysshe hys worcke.
- 35 Saye not ye, there are yett foure monethes, and then commeth harvest? Beholde! I saye vnto you, lyfte vppe youre eyes, and loke on the regions, for they are whyte allredy vnto harvest.
- 36 And he that repeth receaveth rewarde, and gaddereth frute vnto lyfe eternall; that bothe he that soweth myght reioyce also, and he that repeth.

- 54 Jhesu dide eft this secunde tokene, whanne he cam fro Judee in to Galilee.

we beleve nott be cause off thy sayinge; for we have herde hym oure selves, and knowe, thatt thys ys even in dede Christ, the savioure off the worlde.

43 After two dayes he departed thence, and went awaye into Galile.

- 44 And Jesus hym silfe testifyed, that a prophet hath none honoure in hys awne countre.
- 45 Then as sone as he was come into Galile, the Galileans receaved hym, which had sene all thynges that he did at Jerusalem, on the feast; for they went also vnto the feast daye.
- 46 And Jesus cam agayne into Cana of Galile, where he tourned water into wyne. And there was a certayne rueler, whose sonne was sycke at Capernaum.

47 As sone as he herde, that Jesus was come out of Iewry into Galile, he went vnto hym, and besought him, that he wolde descende, and heale his sonne; for he was even redy to deve.

48 Then sayde Jesus vnto hym, Excepte ye se signes and wonders, ye beleve not.

40 The rueler sayde vnto hym, Syr, come awaye, or ever that my chylde deve.

50 Jesus sayde vnto him, Goo thy waye, thy sonne liveth. And the man beleved the wordes, that Jesus had spoken vnto hym, and went his waye.

51 And anon as he went on his waye, his servauntes mett hym, and tolde hym, sayinge, Thy sonne liveth.

- 52 Then enquyred he of them the houre, when he began to amende. And they sayde vnto hym, Yester daye the seventhe houre the fever lefte hym.
- 53 And the father knew, that it was the same houre, when Jesus sayde vnto hym, Thy sonne liveth; and he beleved, and all his houshold.
- 54 Thys ys agayne the seconde myracle that Jesus did, after he cam out of lewry into Galile.

- 4 Forsothe the aungel of the Lord aftir tyme cam down in to the stonding watir, and the watir was moued; and he that first cam down in to the sisterne, aftir the mouyng of the watir, was maad hool of what euere siknesse he was holdun.
- 5 Forsothe sum man was there, hauynge eizte and thritti zeeris in his syknesse.
- 6 Whanne Jhesu hadde seyn him liggynge, and hadde knowe, for now he hadde moche tyme, he seith to him, Wolt thou be maad hool?
- 7 The syke man answeride to him, Lord, I have not a man that whanne the water schal be troublid, he sende me in to the sisterne; forsoth the while I com, another goth down bifore me.
- 8 Jhesu seith to him, Ryse vp, taak thi bed, and wandre.
- 9 And a non the man is mad hool, and took vp his bed, and wandride. And saboth was in that day.
- To Therfore the Jewis seyden to him that was mand hool, It is saboth, it is not leefful to thee, for to take thi bed.
- 11 He answeride to hem, He that made me hool, seide to me, Taak thi bed, and wandre.
- 12 Therfore thei axiden him, Who is that man, that seide to thee, Taak thi bed, and wandre?
- 13 Sothli he that was maad hool, wiste not who it was. Forsothe Jhesu bowide him fro the cumpany ordeyned[†] in the place.
- 14 Aftirward Jhesu fond him in the temple, and seide to him, Lo! thou ert maad hool; now nyle thou do synne, leste ony thing worse bifalle to thee.

- feast off the Iewes, and Jesus went vppe to Jerusalem.
- 2 There is at Jerusalem by the slaugh ter housse a pole, called in the Ebrue tonge Bethesda, havynge five porches.
- 3 In them laye a greate multitude off sicke folke, off blynde, halt, and wyddered, waytynge for the movynge off the wather.
- 4 For an angell went doune at a certayne ceason into the pole, and stered the water; whosoever then fyrst, after the sterynge off the water, stepped doune, was made whoale of what soever disease he had.
- 5 And a certayne man was there, which had bene disleased .xxxviij. yeares.
- 6 When Jesus sawe hym lye, and knewe, that he nowe longe tyme had bene diseased, he sayde vnto hym, Wilt thou be whoale?
- 7 The syke answered hym, Syr, I have no man when the water is moved, to put me into the pole; butt in the meane tyme whill I am about to come, another steppeth doune before me.
- 8 Jesus sayde vnto hym, Ryse, take vp thy beed, and walke.
- 9 And immediatly that man was whole, and toke vp his beed, and went. And the same daye was the saboth daye.
- 10 The Iewes therfore sayd vnto hym that was made whole, It is the saboth daye, it is nott laufull for the to cary thy beed.
- 11 He answered them, He that made me whole, sayde vnto me, Take vp thy beed, and gett the hence.
- 12 Then axed they hym, What man is that, which sayd vnto the, Take vp thy beed, and walke?
- 13 And he that was healed, wist not who yt was. For Jesus gatt hym silfe awaye, be cause that there was preace of people in the place.
- 14 After that Jesus founde hym in the temple, and sayd vnto hym, Beholde! thou arte made whole; se thou synne no moore, lest a worsse thinge happen vnto the.

- 15 The ilke man wente, and telde to the Jewis, for it was Jhesu that maad him bool.
- 16 Therfore the Jewis pursueden Jhesu, for he dide this thing in the saboth.
- 17 Forsoth Jhesu answeride to hem, My fadir worchith til now, and I worche.
- 18 Therfore thanne the Jewis souzten more for to slee hym, for not oonly he brak the saboth, but and he seide his fadir God, makinge him euene to God.
- 19 And so Jhesu answeride, and seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, I seie to 30u, the sone may not of him silf do ony thing, no but that thing that he schal se the fadir doynge; what euere thingis sothli he doith, thes thingis and the sone also doith.
- 20 Forsothe the fadir loueth the sone, and schewith to him alle thingis that he doith; and he schal schewe to him more workis than thes, that 3e wondre.
- 21 Forsothe as the fadir reysith deede men, and quykeneth, so and the sone quykeneth whiche he wole.
- 22 Sothli neither the fader iugeth ony man, but hath 30uun al the dom to the sone.
- 23 That alle men honoure the sone, as thei honouren the fadir. He that honoureth not the sone, honoureth not the fadir that sente him.
- 24 Treuli, treuli, I seye to 30u, for he that heerith my word, and bileueth to him that sente me, hath euere lasting lyf, and cometh not in to dom, but passith fro deeth in to lyf.

25 Treuli, treuli, I seye to 30u, for the our cometh, and now it is, whanne deede men schulen heere the vois of Goddis sone, and thei that schulen heere, schulen lyue.

26 Sothli as the fader hath lyf in him silf, so he 3af and to the sone for to haue lyf in him silf;

15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes, that yt was Jesus the whyche had made hym whole.

16 And therfore the Iewes did persecute Jesus, and sought the meanes to slee hym, be cause he had done these thynges on the saboth daye.

17 Jesus answered them, My father worketh hidderto, and I worke.

18 Therfore the Iewes sought the moore to kill hym, not only be cause he had broken the saboth, but sayde also that God was his father, and made hym silfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and sayde vnto them, Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, the sonne can do noo thynge of hym silfe, but that he seyth the father do; for whatsoever he doeth, that doeth the sonne also.

20 For the father loveth the sonne, and sheweth hym all thynges whatsoever he him silfe doeth; and he will shewe hym gretter thynges then these, be cause ye shoulde marvayle.

21 For lykwyse as the father rayseth vppe the deed, and quyckeneth them, even soo the sonne quyckeneth whom he woll.

22 Nether iudgeth the father eny man, but hath committed all iudgment vnto the sonne, 23 Be cause that all men shulde honoure the sonne, even as they honoure the father. He that honoureth nott the sonne, the same honoureth not the father which hath sent hym.

24 Vyrely, verely, I saye vnto you, he that heareth my wordes, and beleveth on hym that sent me, hathe everlastynge lyfe, and shall not come in to damnacion, but is scaped from deth vnto lyfe.

25 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, the tyme shall come, and nowe ys, when the deed shall heare the voyce off the sonne of God, and they that heare, shall live.

26 For as the father hath life in hym silfe, soo lyke wyse hath he geven to the sonne to have lyfe in hym silfe;

36 But I seide to 30u, for and 3e han seyn me, and 3e bileueden not.

37 Al thing, that the fadir 3yueth to me, schal come to me; and I schal not caste out him, that cometh to me.

- 38 For I cam down fro heuene, not that I do my wille, but the wille of him that sente me.
- 39 Forsothe this is the wille of him that sente me, the fadris, that al thing that the fadir 3af to me, I leese not of it, but agen reise it in the laste day.
- 40 Sothly this is the wille of my fadir that sente me, that ech man that seeth the sone, and bileueth in to him, haue euerlasting lyf; and I schal azen reyse him in the laste day.

41 Therfore Jewis grucchiden of him, for he hadde seyd, I am breed that cam down fro heuene.

- 42 And thei seiden, Wher this is not Jhesu, the sone of Joseph, whos fadir and modir we han knowun? Therfore hou seith this, I cam down fro heuene?
- 43 Therfore Jhesu answeride, and seide to hem, Nyle 3e grucche to gidere.
- 44 No man may come to me, no but the fadir that sente me, schal drawe him; and I schal azen reyse him in the laste day.

45 It is writun in prophetis, And alle men schulen ben able to be taust of God. Ech man that herde of the fadir, and lernede, cometh to me.

46 Not for ony man sy3 the fadir, no but this that is of God, this sy3 the fadir.

47 Sothli, sothli, I seye to 30u, he that bileueth in me, hath euerlasting lyf.

48 I am the breed of lyf.

49 Joure fadris eeten manna in desert, and ben deede.

50 This is breed comynge doun fro heuene, that if ony man schal ete therof, he deyeth not.

51 I am quyk breed, that cam down fro heuene. If ony man schal ete of this bred, he schal lyue with outen ende. 36 Butt I saye vnto you, that ye have sene me, and yett beleve ye not.

37 All, that my father geveth me, commeth to me; and hym that commeth to me, cast I not out at the dores.

38 For I cam doune from heven, nott to do myne awne will, butt his will whiche hathe sent me.

39 And this is my fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath geven me, I shulde loose noo thynge, but shulde rayse it vp agayne at the last daye.

40 And this is the wyll off hym that sent me, that every man whych seith the sonne, and beleveth on hym, have everlastynge lyfe; and I wyll rayse hym vp att the last daye.

41 The Iewes murmured att itt, because he sayde, I am thatt breed which is come downe from heven.

42 And they sayde, Is nott this Jesus, the sonne of Joseph, whose father and mother we knowe? Howe ys yt then that he sayeth, I cam doune from heven?

43 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Murmur not betwene youre selves.

44 No man can come to me, except my father which hath sent me, drawe hym; and Y will rayse hym vp at the last days.

45 Hit is written in the prophetes, And they shall all be taught of God. Every man which hath herde, and learned of the father, commeth vnto me.

46 Not that eny man hath sene the father, save he which is off God, the same hath sene the father.

47 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, he that beleveth on me, hath everlastynge

48 I am that breed of lyfe.

49 Youre fathers did eate manna in the wildernes, and are deed.

50 This is that breed which commeth from heven, that he wich off it eateth, shulde also not deve.

51 I am that livynge breed, which cam doune from heven. Yf eny man eate of this breed, he shall live for eyer.

- 14 Forsoth it was saboth, whanne Jhesu made cley, and openyde his yzen.
- 15 Eft Pharisees axiden him, how he hadde seyn. Sothly he seide to hem, He puttide to me cley on the y3en; and I waischide, and I se.
- 16 Therfore summe of Pharisees seiden, This man is not of God, for he kepith not the saboth. Othere men seyden, How may a man synnere do thes syngnys?[†] And dyuysioun was a mong hem.
- 17 Therfore thei seyn eftsoone to the blynd man, What seist thou of him, that openyde thin y₃en? Sothli he seide, For he is a prophete.

18 Therfore Jewis bileueden not of him, for he was blynd, and hadde seyn, til thei clepiden his fadir and modir, that hadde seyn.

- 19 And thei axiden hem, seyinge, Is this 3 oure sone, whom 3e seyn, for he is born blynd? hou therfore seeth he now?
- 20 His fadir and modir answeriden to hem, and seyden, We witen, for this is oure sone, and for he is born blynd;
- 21 Sothli how he seeth now, we witen not, or who openyde his yzen, we witen not; axe ze him, he hath age, speke he of him silf.
- 22 His fadir and modir seiden thes thingis, for thei dredden Jewis; forsoth now the Jewis hadden conspirid, that if ony man knowlechide him Crist, he schulde be don out of the synagoge.

23 Therfore his fadir and modir seiden, For he hath age, axe 3e him.

- 24 Therfore eftsoone thei clepiden the man, that was blynd, and seyden to him, 3yue thou glorie to God; we witen, for this man is a synner.
- 25 Therfore he seide, If he is a synner, I woot not; o thing I woot, for whanne I was blynd, now I se.

14 Hit was the saboth daye, when Jesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.

15 Then agayne the Pharises also axed hym, howe he had receaved his sight. He sayde vnto them, He putt claye apon myne eyes; and I wasshed, and I se.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, be cause he kepeth not the saboth daya. Other sayde, Howe can a man that is a synner do suche myracles? And there was stryfe a monge them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blynde agayne, What sayst thou of hym, be cause he hath openned thyne eyes? And he sayd, He ys a prophet.

18 The Iewes did nott beleve off the felowe, howe that he was blynde, and had receaved hys sight, vntill they had called the father and mother off him, that had receaved his sight.

19 And they axed them, saying, Ys this youre sonne, whome ye saye was borne blynde? howe doth he nowe se then?

20 His father and mother answered them, and sayde, We wote wele, that this is oure sonne, and that he was borne blynde:

21 Butt by what meanes he nowe seyth, that can we nott tell, or who hath openned his eyes, can we nott tell; he is olde ynough, axe hym, lett hym answer for hym sylfe off thynges that pertayne to hym sylfe.

22 Suche wordes spake his father and mother, be cause they feared the Iewes; for the Iewes had conspyred all redy, that yff eny man did confesse that he was Christ, he shulde be excommunicat out of the sinagoge.

23 Therfore sayde his father and mother, He is olde ynough, axe hym.

24 Then agayne called they the man, that was blynde, and sayd vnto hym, Geve God the prayse; we knowe, thatt thys man ys a synner.

25 He answered and sayde, Whither he be a synner or noo, I cannot tell; won thynge I am sure off, that I was blynde, and nowe I se.

- 18 No man takith it fro me, but I putte it fro my silf. I have power for to putte it, and I have power for to take it eftsoone. This maundement I have take of my fadir.
- 19 And so dissencioun was maad among the Jewis for thes wordis.
- 20 Forsoth manye of hem seiden, He hath a deuel, and maddith; what heeren 3e him?
- 21 Othere men seiden, Thes wordis beth not of a man hauynge a fend. Wher a deuel may opene the yzen of blynde men?
- 22 Forsothe newe feestis of halwing of the temple ben maad in Jerusalem, and it was wyntir.
- 23 And Jhesu walkide in the temple, in the porche of Salomon.
- 24 Therfore Jewis enyrowneden him, and seiden to him, Hou longe dost thou a wey oure soule? if thou ert Crist, seie to vs opynly.
- 25 Jhesu answeride to hem, I speke to 30u, and 3e bileuen not; the workis that I do in the name of my fadir, thes beren witnessing of me.
- 26 But and 3e bileuen not, for 3e ben not of my scheep.

29 That thing that my fadir 3af to me, is more than alle; therfore no man may rauysche fro my fadris hond.

30 I and the fadir ben o thing.

31 Jewis token vp stoones, for to stoone hym to the deeth.

32 Jhesu answeride to hem, I haue schewid to 30u manye goode werkis of my fadir, for which werk of hem stoonen 3e me?

33 The Jewis answeriden to him, We stoonen not thee of good work, but of blasphemye, and for thou, sithen thou art a man, makist thi silf God.

3e ben goddis?

35 If he seide hem goddis, to whiche the word of God is maad, and the scripture, which the fadir halwide, and sente in to the world, may not be vndon,

36 And 3e seyn, for I blaspheme, for I seide, I am Goddis sone?

37 If I do not the workis of my fadir, nyle 3e bileue to me;

- 38 Sothli if I do, thous se wolen not bileue to me, bileue se to the workis; that se knowe and bileue, for the fadir is in me, and I in the fadir.
- 39 Therfore thei souzten for to take him, and he wente out of her hondis.
- 40 And he wente eftsoone ouer Jordan, in to that place where John was first baptisinge, and he dwelte there.
- 41 And manye camen to him, and seiden, Forsoth John dide no signe; forsothe alle thingis what euere John seide of this, weren sothe.
 - 42 And many bileueden in to him.

shall eny man plucke them out off my honde.

- 29 My father wich gave them me, is greatter then all men; and no man is able to take them out off my fathers honde.
- 30 And I and my father are one.

31 Then the Iewes agayne toke vppe stones, to stone hym with all.

- 32 Jesus answered them, Many goode workes have I shewed you from my father, for which off them wyll ye stone me?
- 33 The Iewes answered hym, sayinge, For thy goode workes sake we stone the not, but for thy blasphemy, and be cause that thou, beinge a man, makest thy silfe God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in youre lawe, I have sayde, Ye are goddes?

35 Yf he called them goddes, vnto whom the worde of God was spoken, and the scripture can nott be broken, 36 Saye ye then to hym, whom the father hath sanctified, and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest, because I sayd, I am the sonne of God?

37 Yf I do not the workes off my father, beleve me not;

- 38 Butt . . . though ye beleue not me, yett beleve the workes; that ye maye knowe and beleve, that the father is in me, and I in hym.
- 39 Agayne they went aboute to take hym, but he escaped out of their hondes.
- 40 And went awaye agayne beyonde Jordan, into the place where Jhon before had baptised, and there aboode.
- 41 And many resorted vnto hym, and sayd, Jhon did no miracle; butt all thynges that Jhon spake of this man, are true.
 - 42 And there many beleved on hym.

syk man, Lazarus of Bethanye, of the castel of Mary and Martha, his sistris.

2 Forsoth Mary it was, which anountide the Lord with dynement, and wipte his feet with hir heeris, whos brother Lazarus was syk.

3 Therfore his sistris senten to him, seyinge, Lord, lo! he whom thou louest, is svk.

- 4 Forsoth Jhesu heeringe seide to hem, This sicknesse is not to the deeth, but for the glorie of God, that Goddis sone be glorified bi it.
- 5 Sothli Jhesu louede Martha, and hir sistir Marye, and Lazarus.
- 6 Therfore as Jhesu herde, for he was syk, thanne sothli he dwellide in the same place tweye dayes.

7 Therof aftir thes thingis he seide to his disciplis, Go we eft in to Judee.

- 8 Disciplis seyen to him, Raby, now the Jewis souzten for to stoone thee, and eft thou gost thidur?
- 9 Jhesu answeride, Wher ther ben not twelue ouris of the day? If ony man schal wandre in the day, he hirtith not, for he seeth the list of this world.
- 10 Sothli if he schal wandre in the nyat, he hirtith, for list is not in him.
- 11 He seith thes thingis, and aftir thes thingis he seith to hem, Lazarus, oure frend, slepith, but I go for to reyse him fro slepe.

12 Therfore his disciplis seiden, Lord, if he slepith, he schal be saf.

13 Forsothe Jhesu hadde seid of his deeth; but thei gessiden, that he seide of the slepinge of sleep.

14 Thanne therfore Jhesu seide to hem

opynli, Lazarus is deed;

- 15 And I enioye for 30u, that 3e beleue, for I was not there; but go we to him.
- 16 Therfore Thomas, that is seid Didymus, seide to euen disciplis, And go we, that we deve with him.

sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the toune off Mary, and her sister Martha.

- 2 It was that Mary, which annoynted Jesus with oyntment, and wept his fete with her heere, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.
- 3 And his sister sent vnto hym, sayinge, Lorde, behold! he whom thou lovest, is sicke.
- 4 When Jesus that herde he sayd, This infirmite is not vnto deth, but for the laude of God, that the sonne off God myght be praysed by the reason of it.

5 Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 After he herde, thatt he was sicke, then aboode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that sayd he to his disciples, Let vs goo into Iewry agayne.

- 8 His disciples sayde vnto hym, Master, the Iewes lately sought meanes to stone the, and wilt thou goo thither agayne?
- 9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve houres in the daye? Yf a man walke in the daye, he stombleth not, because he seith the light of this worlde.
- 10 Yf a man walke in the nyght, he stombleth, be cause there is no light in hym.
- 11 This sayd he, and after that he sayde vnto them, Oure frende Lazarus slepeth, but I goo to wake hym outt of slepe.

12 Then sayde his disciples, Lorde, iff he slepe, then shall he do wele ynough.

13 Jesus spake of his deeth; but they thought, that he had spoken of the naturall slepe.

14 Then sayde Jesus vnto them playnly, Lazarus is deed;

15 And I am gladde for youre sakes, that I was not there, be cause ye maye beleve; neverthelesse let vs goo vnto hvm.

16 Then sayde Thomas, which is called Didimus, vnto the disciples, Let vs also goo, that we maye deye with him.

- 29 Therfore the cumpany that stood, and herde, seide, thundir to be maid; othere men seiden, an aungel spak to him.
- 30 Jhesu answeride, and seide, This vois cam not for me, but for 30u.
- 31 Now is dom of the world, now the prince of this world schal be cast out.
- 32 And if I schal be enhaused fro the erthe, I schal drawe alle thing to my silf.

33 Sothli he seide this thing, signifiynge bi what deeth he was to deiynge.

- 34 The cumpany answeride to him, We han herd of the lawe, for Crist dwellith in to with outen ende; and hou seist thou, It bihoueth mannis sone for to be arerid? Who is this mannis sone?
- 35 Therfore Jhesu seith to hem, 3it a litil list is in 30u; walke 3e, the while 3e han list, that derknessis catche not 30u; and he that wandrith in derknessis, woot nere whidur he goth.

36 The while 3e han list, byleue 3e in to list, that 3e be the sones of list. Jhesu spak thes thingis, and wente, and hidde him fro hem.

37 Sothli whanne he hadde don so manye signes byfore hem, thei bileueden not in to him;

- 38 That the word of Ysaie, the prophete, schulde be fillid, which be seide, Lord, who bileuede to oure heering, and to whom is the arm of the Lord schewid?
- 39 Therfore thei mysten not bileue, for eft Ysaye seide,

- 31 Nowe is the iudgement of this worlde, nowe shall the prynce off this worlde be cast out a dores.
- 32 And I yf I were lifte vppe from the erthe, will drawe all men vnto me.
- 33 This sayde Jesus, signifyinge what deeth he shulde deye.
- 34 The people answered hym, We have herde of the lawe, that Christ bydeth ever; and howe sayest thou then, That the sonne of man must be lifte vppe? Who is that sonne of man?
- 35 Jesus sayde vnto them, Yet a lytell whyle is the light with you; walke, whill ye have lightt, lest the darcknes come on you; he that walketh in the darke, wotteth not whither he goeth.
- 36 Whyll ye have light, beleve on the light, that ye maye be the children of light. These thynges spake Jesus, and departed, and hid hym silfe from them.

37 And though he hade done soo many myracles before them, yet beleved not they on hym;

38 That the sayinge of Esayas, the prophet, myght be fulfilled, that he spake, Lorde, who shall beleve oure sayinge, and to whom ys the arme off the Lorde declared?

39 Therfore coulde they not beleve, be cause that Esaias sayth agayne,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their hertes, that they shuld not se with their eyes, and vnderstonde with their hertes; and shulde be converted, and I shulde heale them.

- 21 When Jesus had thus sayde, he was troubled in his sprete, and testified, sayinge, Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, that won off you shall betraye me.
- 22 Then the disciples loked won on another, doutinge of whom he spake.
- 23 There was one of his disciples which leaned on Jesus besome, whom Jesus loved.
- 24 To hym beckened Simon Peter, that he shulde axe who it was, off whome he spake?
- 25 He then as he leaned on Jesus brest, sayde vnto hym, Lorde, who ys it?
- 26 Jesus answered, He yt ys, to whom I geve a soppe when I have dept hit. And he wet a soppe, and gave ytt to Judas Iscarioth Simons sonne.
- 27 And after the soppe, Satan entred into hym. Then sayde Jesus vnto hym, Thatt thou dost, do quyely.
- 28 That wist noo man at the table, for what intent he spake vnto hym.
- 29 Some off them thought, be cause Judas had the bagge, that Jesus had sayd vnto hym, By those thynges, that we have nede of against the feast, or that he shulde geve some thynge to the povre.
- 30 As sone then as he had receaved the soppe, he went immediatly out; and it was nyght.
- 31 When he was gone out, Jesus sayde, Nowe is the sone of man glorified, and God is glorified by hym.
- 32 Yf God be glorified by him, God shall also glorify him in him sylfe, and shall strayght waye glorify hym.
- 33 Deare children, yet a lytell whyle am I with you; ye shall seke me, and, as I sayde vnto the Iewes, Whither I goo, thither can ye nott come; also to you saye I nowe.
- 34 A newe commaundment geve I vnto you, that ye love to gedder, as I have loved you, that even soo ye love one another.

 - 30 Now we witen, for thou wost alle thingis; and it is no nede to thee, that ony man axe thee. In this thing we bileuen, for thou wentist out fro God.
 - 31 Jhesu answeride to hem, Now 3e bileuen.

- 19 Jesus perceaved, that they wolde axe hym, and sayde vnto them, This is it that ye enquyre of bitwene youre selves, that I sayd, After a whyle, ye shall nott se me; and agayne after a whyle, ye shall se me.
- 20 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, ye shall wepe and lament, and the worlde shall reioyce; ye shall sorowe, but youre sorowe shalbe tourned to ioye.
- 21 A woman when she traveyleth, hath sorowe, be cause her houre is come; but as sone as she is delivered off her chylde, she remembreth no moare her anguysshe, for ioye, that a man is borne in to the worlde.
- 22 And ye nowe are in sorowe, butt I will se you agayne, and youre hertes shall reioyce, and youre ioye shall no man take from you.
- 23 And in that daye shall ye axe me no question; verely, verely, I saye vnto you, whatsoever ye shall axe the father in my name, he will geve it you.

24 Hetherto have ye axed no thinge in my name; axe, and ye shall receave it, that youre ioye maye be full.

- 25 These thinges have I spoken vnto you in proverbes; the tyme will come, when I shall no moare spake to you in proverbes, but I shall shewe you playnly from my father.
- 26 At that days shall ye axe in myne name; and I saye not vnto you, that I will speake vnto my father for you;
- 27 For my father hym silfe loveth you, be cause ye have loved me, and beleved, that I cam out from God.
- 28 I went out from the father, and cam into the worlde; I leve the worlde agayne, and go to the father.

29 His disciples sayd vnto hym, Loo! nowe speakest thou playnly, and thou vsest no proverbe.

30 Nowe knowe we, that thou vnderstondest all thinges; and nedest not, that eny man shulde axe the eny question. Therfore beleve we, that thou camst from God.

- 12 Whyll I was with them in the worlde, I kepte them in thy name; those that thou gavest me, have I kepte, and none of them is lost, but that lost chylde, that the scripture myght be fulfilled.
- 13 Nowe come I to the, and these wordes speake I in the worlde, that they myght have my joye full in them.
- 14 I have geven them thy doctryne, and the worlde hath hated them; because they are nott off the worlde, even as I am not of the worlde.
- 15 I desyre not, that thou shuldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou kepe them from evyll.
- 16 They are not off the worlde, as I am not of the worlde.
- 17 Sanctify them in thy trueth; thy sayinge is verite.
- 18 As thou diddest send me into the worlde, even soo have I sent them into the worlde.
- 19 And for their sakes sanctify I my silfe, thatt they also myght be sanctified thorowe the trueth.
- 20 I praye not for them alone, butt for them also which shall beleve on me thorowe their preachynge;
- 21 That they all maye be one, as thou, father, arte in me, and I in the, that they maye be also one in vs; that the worlde maye beleve, that thou hast sent
- 22 And that glory that thou gavest me, I have geven them, that they maye be wone, as we are wone;
- 23 I am in them, and thou arte in me, that they maye be made perfecte in won; and that the worlde maye knowe, that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

CHAP. XVIII. I When Jesus had spoken these wordes, he went forth with his disciples over the broke Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, with his disciples.

2 Judas also, wich betrayed hym, knewe the place, for Jesus often tymes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas then after he had receaved a bonde off men, and ministers of the hy prestes and of the Pharises, cam thither with lanterns, and fyerbroudes, and wepens.

4 Then Jesus knowynge all thynges that shulde come on hym, went forth, and sayde vnto them, Whom seke ye?

5 They answered hym, Jesus off Nazareth. Jesus sayde vnto them, I am he. Judas also which betrayed him, stode by with them.

6 As sone as he had sayd vnto them, I am he, they went backe wardes, and fell to the grounde.

7 He axed them agayne, Whome seke ye? They sayde, Jesus off Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I sayde vnto you, I am he; iff ye seke me, lett these goo theyr waye.

11 Therfore Jhesu seide to Petre, Sende thou the swerd in to the schethe; wolt thou not, that I drynke thilke cuppe, that my fadir 3af to me?

12 Therfore the cumpany of kny3tis, and the tribune, and the mynystris of Jewis, token Jhesu, and bounden him, 13 And ledden him first to Annas; sothli he was fadir of Cayphas wyf, that was bischop of that zeer.

14 Sothli it was Cayphas, that 3af counceil to the Jewis, that it spedith o man for to deie for the peple.

15 Therfore Symount Petre suede Jhesu, and another disciple; forsoth thilke disciple was known to the bischop. And he entride yn with Jhesu, in to the halle of the bischop;

16 Sothly Petre stood at the dore withoute forth. Therfore the tothir disciple, that was known to the bischop, wente out, and seide to the womman kepinge the dore, and ledde yn Petre.

17 Therfore the handmayde, kepere of the dore, seide to Petre, Wher and thou art of the disciplis of this man? He seide, I am not.

18 Forsoth the seruauntis and mynystris stooden at the colis, for it was coold, and thei warmyden hem; sothli and Petre was with hem, stondinge and warmynge him.

19 Therfore the bischop axide Jhesu of his disciplis, and of his teching.

20 Jhesu answeride to him, I haue spokun opynly to the world; I tauste euere in the synagoge, and in the temple, whidur alle the Jewis camen to gidere, and in priuy I spak no thing.

21 What axist thou me ? axe hem that herden, what I have spokun to hem; lo! thei witen, what thingis I haue

II Then sayde Jesus vnto Peter, Put vppe thy swearde into the sheath; shall I not drynke of the cuppe, which my father had geven me?

12 Then the company, and the captayne, and the ministers off the Iewes, toke Jesus, and bounde hym,

13 And ledde hym awaye to Anna fyrst; for he was fatherelawe vnto Cayphas, which was the hye preste thatt same yeare.

14 Cayphas was he, that gave counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that won man shulde deye for the people.

15 Simon Peter followed Jesus, and another disciple; that disciple was knowen' of the hye preste. And went in with Jesus, into the pallys off the hye preste;

16 Peter stode att the dore with outt. Then wentt outt thatt other disciple, which was knowen vnto the hye preste, and spake to the damsell thatt kept the dore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then sayde the damsell, that kept the dore, vnto Peter, Arte nott thou wone off this mannes disciples? sayde, I am nott.

18 The servauntes and the ministers stode there and had made a fyre off coles, for it was colde, and they warmed them selves; Peter also stode amonge them, and warmed hym silfe.

19 The hye preste axed Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered hym, I spak openly in the worlde; I ever taught in the sinagoge, and in the temple, whither all the Iewes resorted, and in secrete have I sayde nothynge.

21 Why axest thou me? axe them whiche herde me, what I sayde vnto them; beholde! they can tell, what I sayde.

22 When he had thus spoken, one off the ministers which stode by, smote Jesus on the face, sayinge, Answrest thou the hye preste soo?

23 Jesus answered hym, Yf I have evyll spoken, beare witnes of the evyll;

- 7 The Jewis answeriden to him, We han a lawe, and vpon the lawe he owith to deie, for he made him Goddis sone.
- 8 Therfore whanne Pilat hadde herd this word, he dredde more.

delyvered to the Iewes; but nowe is my kingdome not from hence.

- 37 Pilate sayde vnto hym, Arte thou a kynge then? Jesus answered, Thou sayst, that I am a kynge. For this cause was I borne, and for this cause cam I into the worlde, that I shulde beare witnes vnto the trueth. All that are of the trueth, heare my voice.
- 38 Pilate sayde vnto hym, What is trueth. And when he had sayde that, he went out agayne vnto the Iewes, and sayde vnto them, I fynde in him no cause at all.
- 39 Ye have a costome amonge you, that I shulde delyvre you won loosse at ester; will ye that I loose vnto you the kynge of the Iewes?

40 Then cryed they all againe, sayinge, Not him, but Barrabas. Barrabas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX. I Then Pilate toke Jesus, and scourged hym.

- 2 And the soudiers wonde a croune off thornes, and put it on his heed, and they did on hym a purple garment,
- 3... And sayd, Hayl, kynge off the Iewes. And they smote hym on the face.
- 4 Pilate went forthe agayne, and sayde vnto them, Beholde! I brynge him forth to you, that ye maye knowe, that I fynde no faute in hym.
- 5 Then cam Jesus forthe, wearynge a croune of thornes, and a robe of purple. And Pilate sayd vnto them, Beholde! the man.
- 6 When the hye prestes and ministers sawe him, they cryed, sayinge, Crucify him, crucify hym. Pilate sayde vnto them, Take ye hym, and crucify hym, for I fynde no cause in hym.

7 The Iewes answered hym, We have a lawe, and by oure lawe he ought to deye, be cause he made hym silfe the sonne of God.

27 Then sayde he to Thomas, Put in thy fynger here, and se my hondes, and putt forth thy honde, and thrust hym into my syde, and be nott wyth out fayth, but beleve.

28. Thomas answered, and sayde vnto hym, My Lorde and my God.

29 Jesus sayde vnto hym, Thomas, because thou hast sene me, therfore hast thou beleved; happy are they, that have not sene, and yet have beleved.

30 And many other signes did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this boke.

31 These are written, that ye myght beleve, that Jesus is Christ, the sonne of God, and that ye in belevynge myght have life thorewe his name.

CHAP. XXI. 1 After that Jesus shewed hym silfe agayne . . . at the see of Tyberias. And on this wyse shewed he him silfe.

- 2 There were to gedder Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didimus, and Nathanael, of Cana a cite of Galile, and the sonnes off Zebedei, and two other off the disciples.
- 3 Simon Peter sayde vnto them, I goo afysshynge. They sayde vnto hym, We also wyll goo wyth the. They went their waye, and entred into a shippe strayght waye. And that nyght caught they noo thynge.

4 When the mornynge was nowe come, Jesus stode on the shore; neverthelesse the disciples knewe not, that it was

Jesus

- 5 Jesus sayde vnto them, Syrs, have ye eny meate? They answered hym, Noo.
- 6 And he sayde vnto them, Cast out youre nett on the right syde of the shippe, and ye shall fynde. They cast out, and anon they were not able to drawe it, for the multitude of fysshes.

7 Then sayde the disciple, whom Jesus louede, seide to Petre, It is the Lord. Symount Petre, whanne he hadde herd for it was the Lord, girte him with a coote, sothli he was nakid, and sente him in to the see.

- 8 Sothli othere disciplis camen by boot, for thei weren not fer fro the lond, but as two hundrid cubitis, drawynge the nett of fischis.
- 9 Therfore as thei camen down in to the lond, thei syzen colis put, and a fysch put aboue, and breed.

10 Jhesu seith to hym, Brynge 3e of the fischis, whiche 3e han taken now.

- 11 Symount Petre stizede vp, and drow; the nett in to the lond, ful of grete fischis, an hundrid fyfti and thre; and whanne thei weren so greete, the nett is not brokun.
- 12 Jhesu seith to hem, Come 3e, ete 3e. And no man of the sittinge at mete durste axe him, Who art thou, witinge for it is the Lord.
- 13 And Jhesu cam, and took breed, and 3af to hem, and the fysch also.
- 14 Now this thridde day Jhesu is schewid to his disciplis, whanne he hadde rise agen fro deed men.
- 15 Therfore whanne thei hadden etyn, Jhesu seith to Symount Petre, Symount of John, louest thou me more than thes don? He seith to hym, 3he, Lord, thou wost for I loue thee. Jhesu seith to him, Feede thou my lambren.
- 16 Eft he seith to hym, Symount of John, louest thou me? And he seith to him, 3he, Lord, thou wost for I loue thee. He seith to him, Feede thou my lambren.
- 17 He seith to him the thridde tyme, Symount of John, louest thou me? Petre is sori, for he seith to him the thridde tyme, Louest thou me, and he seith to him, Lord, thou wost alle thingis; thou wost for I loue thee. Jhesu seith to him, Feede thou my scheep.

18 Treuli, treuli, I seie to thee, whanne thou were 3 ongere, thou girdedist thee, and wandridest where thou woldist; sothli whanne thou schalt wexe eldere, loved, vnto Peter, It is the Lorde. When Simon Peter herde that it was the Lorde, he gyrde his mantell to hym, for he was naked, and sprange into the see.

8 The other disciples cam by shippe, for they were nott farre from londe, butt as itt were two hondred cubites, and they drewe the net with fisshes.

9 As sone as they were come to londe, they sawe hoot coles layde, and fisshe layde ther on, and breed.

10 Jesus sayde vnto them, Brynge of the fisshes, which ye have nowe caught.

II Simon Peter stepped forthe, and drewe the nett to londe, full of greate fisshes, an hondred and .liij. and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus sayde vnto them, Come, and dyne. And none of the disciples durste axe hym, What arte thou, for they knewe that it was the Lorde.

13 Jesus then cam, and toke breed, and gave them, and fisshe lykwyse.

14 And this is nowe the thyrde tyme that Jesus apered to his disciples, after that he was rysen agayne from deeth.

15 When they had dyned, Jesus sayde to Simon Peter, Simon Joanna, lovest thou me more then these? He sayde vnto hym, Ye, Lorde, thou knowest that I love the. He sayde vnto hym, Fede my lambes.

16 He sayde to hym agayne the seconde tyme, Simon Joanna, lovest thou me the sayde vnto hym, Ye, Lorde, thou knowest that I love the. He sayde vnto hym, Fede my shepe.

17 He sayde vnto hym the thyrde tyme, Simon Joanna, lovest thou me? Peter sorowed, because he sayde the thyrde tyme, Lovest thou me, and sayde vnto hym, Lorde, thou knowest all thynge; thou knowest that I love the. Jesus sayde vnto hym, Fede my shepe.

18 Verely, verely, I saye vnto the, when thou wast yonge, thou gerdedst thy silfe, and walkedst whither thow woldest; but when thou arte olde, thou shalt 568

20 Petre converted sy3 thilke disciple, whom Jhesu louede, and which restide in the souper on his brest, and he seide to hym, Lord, who is it, that schal bitraye thee?

21 Therfore whanne Petre hadde seyn this disciple, he seith to Jhesu, Lord, what forsothe this?

22 Jhesu seith to him, So I wole him dwelle til I come, what to thee? sue thou me.

23 Therfore this word wente out a mong britheren, for thilke disciple deyeth not. And Jhesu seide not to him, for he deieth not, but, So I wole him dwelle til I come, what to thee?

24 This is thilke disciple, that berith witnessing of thes thingis, and wroot thes thingis; and we witen, for his witnessing is trewe.

Here endith the gospel of John.

stretche forthe thy hondes, and a nother shall gyrde the, and leade the whither thou woldest not.

19 That spake he, signifyinge by what deeth he shulde glorify God. And when he had sayde thus, he sayd to hym, Folowe me.

20 Peter turned about and sawe that disciple, whom Jesus loved, folowynge, which also lened on his brest at super, and sayde, Lorde, which is he, that shall betraye the?

21 When Peter sawe hym, he sayde to Jesus, Lorde, what shall he here do?

22 Jesus sayd vnto hym, Yf I will have hym to tary tyll I come, what is that to the? followe thou me.

23 Then went this sayinge a broode amonge the brethren, that that disciple shulde nott deye. And Jesus sayde nott to hym, he shall not deye, butt, Yff I will that he tary tyll I come, what is that to the?

24 The same disciple is he, which testifieth off these thynges, and wrote these thynges; and we knowe, that hys testymony is true.

25 There are also many other thynges which Jesus did, the which yff they shulde be written every won, I suppose the worlde coulde nott contayne the bokes, that shulde be written.

NOTES ON

THE GOTHIC VERSION.

Title, p. 2, column 1.—The Title of St. Matthew does not exist in the Codex Argenteus, but it is complete in St. Mark, where the MS. has Aiwaggelyo tairh Marku anastodeib Evangelium secundum Marcum incipit. From this, the Title of St. Matthew is taken. Aiwaggelyo is a mere transliteration of the Greek Εὐαγγέλιον; for, as γ, before another y in Greek, has the sound of n, so it has in the Gothic, and Aiwaggelyo is, therefore, pronounced Aiwangelyo, with the same meaning as Εὐαγγέλιον, and the Latin Evangelium, that is glad tidings, good news. Our Anglo-Saxon forefathers translated Εὐαγγέλιον by god good, and spell a narration, news, that is Gódspell, our present Gospel. writers of the Gospels were then styled Gódspelleras, our old Gospellers, and now Evangelists, from Εὐαγγελιστής, and the Latin Evangelista an Evangelist, or bringer of glad tidings.

Matt. i. 21. The Gothic text is based upon the Codex Argenteus, as given in — "Codex Argenteus, sive sacrorum Evangeliorum Versionis Gothicæ fragmenta, quæ iterum recognita adnotationibusque instructa per lineas singulas ad fidem codicis, additis fragmentis evangelicis codicum Ambrosianorum, et tabula lapide expressa. Edidit Andreas Uppström, Ph. D. AA. LL. M. in Regia Academia Upsaliensi Linguæ Gothicæ docens, et in schola Cathedrali adjunctus. Upsaliæ: C. A. Leffler Reg. Acad. Typographus, 1854 et 1857."

Dr. Uppström has published, on the same plan, the Gothic Fragments of St. Matthew's Gospel from the MS. in the Ambrosian Library at Milan, containing ch. xxv. 38-46: xxvi. 1-3, 65-75: and xxvii. 1 ;-Part of St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans from the Codex Carolinus, in the Library of Wolfenbüttel in the Duchy of Brunswick;—and the Skeireins, i. e. Eppyreia, Interpretatio, or Commentary of part of St. John's Gospel, from the MSS. in the Vatican and Ambrosian Libraries. They are printed in an inexpensive form, -an 8vo. pamphlet of 48 pages, -with this Title, - " Fragmenta Gothica Selecta, ad fidem codicum Ambrosianorum Carolini Vaticani. Edidit Andreas Uppström, Upsaliæ, C. A. Leffler, Reg. Acad. Typographus MDCCCLXI." In his preface, he defends himself from some severe strictures, which his laborious and valuable work does not appear to have deserved.

Where our text differs from Dr. Uppström's, a small t is placed after the word or clause in the text, referring to these notes for the reason of the alteration, or for the source of the addition. The indefatigable and learned Massmann has made up some of the verses of the lost chapters of St. Matthew by quotations from other sources. These verses are given from the other Gospels, in the text of Upps. on the plan of Professor Massmann's most useful and comprehensive "ULFILAS. Die Heiligen Schriften alten und neuen Bundes in Gothischer Sprache: Mit gegenüberstehendem Griechischem und Lateinischem Texte, Anmerkungen, Wörterbuch, Sprachlehre und geschichtlicher Einleitung von H. F. Massmann. 8vo. Stuttgart, 1857."

v. 8. From Lk. vi. 20 Mass. — 8. Exactly, from Skeireins Mass. 4to. p. 26, col. 2, and p. 48, col. 2; also Upps. 4to. p. 1: 8vo. p. 37, 20-23: also Cast. Mai. p. 24.—Palimpsests. As Cast. Mai. the contraction for Count Castiglione and Angelo Mai, will be quoted hereafter, it may be noticed, that they have published Ulphilæ, in Ambrosianis palimpsestis, specimen (see Note on ch. vii. 28). Mai had discovered in the Ambrosian Library at Milan, in 1817, parts of the Gothic translation of the Scriptures, under more recent writing. These are called Palimpsests or rescripts, because they were παλίμψηστοι cleaned again (from παλίν again, and ψάω to scour, clean); that is, the original writing was washed off the parchment, that it might be used for a new manuscript. The first writing could seldom be entirely obliterated, and it could, therefore, be often read under, and on the side of the later writing. Facsimiles are given by Cast. Mai. They recovered under other writing, not only this 8th verse of Matt. v., but other parts of Scripture, see note on Matt. i. 21, p. 570. —18. See Lk. xiv. 34; Mk. ix. 50 Mass. -15. Here the Codex Argenteus begins, and continues to ch. vi. 32, where another chasm occurs in the MS. indicated by a blank space in the Gothic column. Upps. p. 2 and 4.—15c. The small italic letter after the number of the verse, indicates the word referred to in the verse. The first word of the verse is denoted by a, the second by b, and the fifth by s. Thus, 15s denote verse 15, and e the fifth word of that verse, or liuteib. Arg. has liuteib, evidently a mistake for liuhteip; see liuhtyai in the next verse.—29i. Arg. has usstagg, but it ought to be usstigg.—43ij. Arg. has fiais fiand for fiyais fiyand.

vi. 24y. Mammonin—In the margin of the Codex Argenteus, against this word, Upps. was the first to notice faihupra[ina] which Junius Glos. says, "videtur mihi composita ex faihu opes, divitiæ; et preihan premere, comprimere, elidere, affligere; propter multiplices illas curas, quæ acquirendas acquisitasque opes comitantur," p. 244. Faihupraina is from Lk. xvi. 9. The A.S. translates δουλεύειν μαμωνᾶ servire mamonæ, by woruld-welan worldly weal.

IS in Arg. is a contracvii. 28e. tion for IESNS. Dr. Marshall, in the Gothic and Anglo-Saxon Gospels of 1665, was the first to suggest this true reading, in a note on Mt. xi. 16, p. 405. Dr. Marshall's suggestion was verified by Cast. Mai in 1819. Esdras ii. 36, where the word was first found written in full: thus ns rakaa ïesnis us garda Ïesuis, τφ οἴκφ Ἰησοι de domo Iesu. They then add, in a note, "Ita codex explicatis omnibus litteris IG-SNIS, quum alibi sit INIS. nunc omnino definitur controversia num legendum sit ÏESNS an ÏAISNS, de qua jampridem egerant Ihreus in Ulphila illustr. ad Marc. i. 45. Gordonus in specimine animadv. critic. et Knittelius in Commentario ad Ulphil. p. 321." Ulphilæ partium ineditarum in Ambrosianis Palimpsestis ab Angelo Maio repertarum specimen, conjunctis curis ejusdem Maii et Caroli Octavii Castillionæi editum, 4to. Mediolani 1819, p. 2. For an account of Palimpsests, see note to Mt. v. 8.

Matt. ix. 15t. Arg. atgagggand for atgaggand.

xi. 10. Arg. has meinna, it should be meinana meum, to agree with aggilu.— 15c. From 15c. to 23q. Arg. is almost illegible. The deficient letters and words are most carefully supplied by Upps. chiefly from the other Gospels, so as exactly to fill the same spaces in the Codex Arg. as the original letters and words occupied before they were worn away or become illegible. With the aid of a good magnifying glass, and a clear light, which the constant access to the Codex enabled Dr. Uppström to choose, the distinct outlines and even faint traces of letters and words were discovered. Guided by these, and the exact spaces to be filled up in the defective Codex, there can be little doubt of the correct restoration of the deficient letters and words. These, in our Text, are all placed within brackets.

xiv. 31ij.—Gabelentz and Löbe, p. 133, note to 31ij, assert that—du wiganna of Arg. "Sine dubio falsum, pro du wigana ad bellum, qui est dativus vocis wigans bellum." Upps. thinks the reading of Arg. may be retained; it is, therefore, adopted in our text. Though his remarks are too long for insertion, we give the following quotation, and refer to his note for particu-"Quid si Codicis lectio ipsa per se proba est, dummodo probe explicetur? x. 18 f-k. Omitted in Arg. There can scarcely be any doubt as to the restored passage, within brackets, when it is seen under the Greek, and between the two lines now in Arg. thus,-

Ni whashun nimb bo af [mis, akei ik lagya bo af] mis silbin.

Here the first two lines of the Gothic ending with bo af, and the next two beginning with mis, the eye seems to have caught the lower bo af, and then to have naturally gone on to mis silbin, instead of mis, akei &c. omitting the whole Those, who have line within brackets. had much experience in copying MSS. know the tendency they have had to such errors. The restored line was first suggested by Dr. Marshall in 1665, p. 469, approved by subsequent editors, especially by Gab. Löb. and adopted by Upps. Mass. and others.

xi. 25no. The reading of Arg. is that given in the text. Upps. defends it in a long note, p. 31, 32. — Mass. alters the text to pauhyabai gadaupnip, in Greek καν ἀποθάνη, and the Vulgate etiam si mortuus fuit.

xii. 1a. From Arg. fol. 75, 1. xviii. 87l. [qab] is omitted in Arg.

NOTES ON

THE ANGLO-SAXON VERSION.

Title, p. 2, column 2.—Gódspell is derived from gód good, and spell narration, message, tidings. It has exactly the same meaning as the Greek εὐαγγέλων, from εὖ well, good, and ἀγγέλλω to bear a message, to bring tidings or news.

The Anglo-Saxon Text is from the MS. in Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, No. CXL. of Nasmith's Catal. In Wanley's Catal. p. 116, col. 1, the age of this MS. is stated to be-" Paulo ante Conquisitionem Angliæ descriptus." A reference is made to it, in the following notes, by B., which is the first letter of Bene't, for some time the colloquial name of Corpus Christi Col-Some readings and correct inflections of words, with their more usual orthography, have been taken from the invaluable MS. Ii. 2. 11, in the Cambridge University Library, and referred to in the notes, by the letter C. This Cambridge MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels is remarkable for its adherence to the West-Saxon grammatical forms and orthography. Wanley, in p. 152, col. 1, says "Circa tempus Conquisitionis Angliæ scriptus." It is supposed. however, that both B and C are earlier than the dates assigned to them by Wanley; probably B was written about The Anglo-Saxon rubrics, in A.D. 995. the following notes, are all copied from C, and compared with O, the Anglo-Saxon MS. of the Gospels in the Bodleian Library, Oxford, No. 441. The Anglo-Saxon Rubrics do not exist in B and H. They could not be retained in the body of our Anglo-Saxon Text, as they stand in C, without deranging the parallel order of the verses, and the loss of much space. An obelisk † is, therefore, placed in the Text, where the Rubrics begin, referring to the chapter and verse, where they will be found in the following notes.

C.—21 f. du C, H: tu B.—22u.—Tyndale has the following clause [x-ii]—and to be baptised with the baptim that Y shalbe baptised with, -because it is in Greek, from which Tyndale translated. It is omitted by the Vulgate, and therefore by Wycliffe, as he translated from the Vulgate. Ιt is also w. in Anglo-Saxon.—28. Between this and the next verse, the following interpolation occurs in B, C, H, O.—Ge wylniab to gedeonne on gehwædum þinge, and beon gewanod on dam mæstan þinge. Witodlice, donne ge to gereorde geladode beop, ne sitte ge on dam fyrmestan setlum, de-læs de arwurdre wer æfter de cume, and se húsbonda háte để árisan and rýman đam óđrum, and đú beo gescynd. đú sitst on gereorde, on đam ýtemestan setle; and æfter để cymb óđer gebeor, and se ladigenda cwede to dé, -Site innor, leof: donne by dé árwurdlicor donne de man úttor scufe. literally, in English,—Ye seek to become great in a small matter, and to be minished in the greatest matter. Verily, when ye shall be bidden to a feast, sit ye not in the first seats, lest a more worthy man come after thee, and the householder bid thee rise and make room for the other. and thou be put to shame. If thou sittest at a feast, in the outermost seat; and after thee cometh another guest, and the bidder say to thee,—Friend, sit nearer: then shalt thou be more honourable than the man put into the outer [seat]. The whole of this parable, except the first sentence, will be found in ch. xiv. 7-10 of St. Luke. Junius and Marshall's Evan. Goth. et A. S. p. 496. This interpolation is not contained in the Vulgate, but it is found entire in the MS. of the Gospels, which Gregory the Great sent into England by St. Augustine in the sixth century. From that time to the Reformation it was carefully preserved in the Bibliotheca Gregoriana in St. Augustine's Abbey, at Canterbury. At the dissolution of religious houses, it came first into the hands of Lord Hatton, then of Sir Robert Cotton, of Cunington, Huntingdonshire, where it was in 1602; as the latter name, place, and date are written on the MS. It afterwards found its way into the Bodleian Library, where this great treasure is still kept with the utmost care. I am indebted to Geo. Waring, Esq., M.A., for the following verbatim copy of this interpolation, taken from the Bodleian MS. Codex August. 857 "Vos autem quæritis de D. 2. 14. modico crescere, et de maximo minui. Cum autem introcritis ad cenam vocati. nolite recumbere in superioribus locis, ne forte dignior te superveniat, et accedens is qui te invitavit, dicat tibi,-Adhuc inferius accede, et confundaris. NOTES ON WYCLIFFE'S TRANSLATION.

THE text of Wycliffe has been taken from the first version, given in the 4to. Edition, published at Oxford in 1850, printed at the University Press, under the editorial care of Sir Frederic Madden and the Rev. Josiah Forshall, collated with the original MS. No. 369 of the Douce Collection in the Bodleian Library.

The following words in Italic are in the body of the page of Wycliffe's trans-They are, like our marginal readings, explanatory of words, which seemed to require elucidation. In the Douce MS. they are written in letters of the same form as the other part of the text; but, for distinction, a red line is drawn under them. For the same purpose, Sir Frederic Madden and Mr. Forshall have printed them in the Italic character. In their text of Matt. i. 2b. after gendride, we find in Italic or bigate. —and in v. 22aa. Racha, that is, a word of scorn.—vi. 13m. Amen, that is, so be it.—x. 39e. his soule, that is, temporal lyf. Though these explanatory words could not be entirely excluded, as they belong to the translation; yet, if left in the text, they would have expanded it too much to harmonise with the other versions. A small obelisk or dagger is, therefore, placed in the text, where such Italic words occur. All these explanatory words are given in the following notes, in the Italic character.

Matt. i. 2b. or bigate.—19i. or ristful.—19m. or lede hir forther.—20n. or sweven.—23w. or expound.

TYNDALE'S TRANSLATION.

Our text of Tyndale's version is taken verbatim from the very exact and beautiful facsimile published with the following Title,—"The first New Testament printed in the English language [1525 or 1526], translated from the Greek by William Tyndale: reproduced in Facsimile, with an introduction by Francis Fry, F.S.A., Bristol, printed for the editor, 1862."

This facsimile is a perfect representation of the earliest and most complete copy of Tyndale's version known to exist. It was printed by Peter Schöffer at the free city (frei statt, p. 24) of Worms, and sold in Oxford "before the 7th February, 1526:" Had it been dated, it might have been 1525 or 1526. Further notice of Tyndale and of this edition is given in the Preface. present, it is only necessary to observe, that it is believed our text is in the exact words written by Tyndale, for it was printed from his own MS. under his own eye. Only the evident and glaring errors in orthography are corrected, and made to agree with the same words used in other parts of the translation. Every possible care has been employed to give the words precisely as the Martyr wrote them. "The errours comitted in the prentynge" (Fol. ccclv.) are such as would most likely occur to a German compositor: as in John vii. 14 gebe for geve gave. The misprints are very numerous; but they are at once detected by an English eye. The following are a few examples:—John iii. 36 beloveth for beleveth

what
stepped in verse 4

ynough enough

It would be a waste of time to cite more examples. The manifest misprints have been silently corrected, that our text might be made, as far as possible, a perfect representation of the words written by William Tyndale, one of the best scholars and one of the greatest Divines of his age.
